

THE NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER. W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1902.

The Graphic acknowledges an invitation to attend the Bi-ennial Horticultural Fruit Fair to be held at Hood River, October the eighth to the eleventh inclusive, which gives promise of proving educational value to all growers and lovers of fine fruit.

Hasn't the time about rolled around again when the old county fair could be revived? The question was inspired by the observation of the exhibit in the Orange store at the McMinnville Carnival last week.

PACIFIC COLLEGE OPENS.

Dr. W. S. Gilbert of Portland Delivers a Masterful Address.

A precedent was broken and a new order in college openings established in Newberg this week when the opening exercises of the college year were held in the evening in place of in the forenoon.

On Tuesday evening the college chapel was filled with an expectant audience gathered to hear the address of the occasion by Dr. W. S. Gilbert of Portland, pastor of the Calvary Presbyterian church.

The people came expecting to hear a good address and went away feeling that they had heard "the best" one. The speaker was certainly inspired, and sluggish indeed was that heart which was not thrilled by the gracious but burning words that proceeded out of his mouth.

Dr. Gilbert said that when he found he was coming to Newberg he asked his friend Walter Edwards what he should give the people up here. After a moment's hesitation the answer came, "Give them the best you have."

"We are born with possibility in ourselves. We may be pure or sinful cultured or rough, manly or beastly. Herein lies the source of appeal to manhood. We hold the key. Possibility in us as moral creatures brings us our responsibility. No man has the right to be less than he can be. We are too prone to live in the comparative mood and are satisfied if we are as good as Smith or Jones. Make it superlative. Be your best."

"These are wonderful days when 110,000 young people all over the sea country entering college and 17,000,000 children are entering the public schools. These are times of anxiety. New associations, new influences, new ideas, and new companions are met. Destinies are met."

The speaker drew a graphic picture of the young man and woman leaving for college, of the sacrifice of parents, and of their anxious solicitude; of how many had gone down in college because they had not been and done their best. He spoke of the great religious awakening in our great institutions of learning, as a condition favorable to the young person entering college today. More time is given to religious thought and biblical teaching than ever before.

Dr. Gilbert gave his impression on finding when in Chicago University how prominent a place was accorded to the Christian religion. He heard the learned professor of literature declare the bible to be the greatest work of literature, he heard the professor of sociology declare that sociology is but the thorough knowledge and practice of the teachings of Jesus Christ, and he heard the professor of astronomy close a lecture with the words "The heavens declare the glory of God and the firmament showeth his handiwork."

Dr. Gilbert suggested here that a blunder had been made in the public school system inasmuch as we insist upon the children knowing all about everything but religion and God—the all important.

rectly to the highest life and living. He learns best who lives best what he learns. In the words of the song as sung by the old negro in college days gone by, "Methinks I hear him say 'Make the best of life today. Make you don't know what may come tomorrow.'"

To make the best of life today means to make the best life today. The question should be before us continually—not, "Do I do great things?" but, "Do I do my best?"

The music of the evening was furnished for the most part by the new music teacher Mrs. Albertson, in a way pleasing to all. Miss Lucy Gause sang a solo.

Following the address Pres. McGrew made a few pertinent remarks, calling attention to the different departments of work, and inviting the public to visit the college often during the year.

The college management has poor success in attempting to evade the pruning drying season, and it is therefore impossible to tell as yet what the enrollment will be this year. However more new students than usual are here already, and when the old students which are expected come in, a full school is promised. Everything considered the friends and patrons of the college anticipate a prosperous year.

Rummage Sale.

The ladies of the Friends church will conduct a rummage sale beginning Wednesday November 13, and continuing through the week. We ask our members especially, to save any cast off articles of clothing or anything they may have to spare. Place of holding sale and articles wanted will be designated later.

Look Out For Fever.

Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Balm. These famous little pills do not grip. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tannic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. Caldwell & Co.

For Sale.

Work team for sale at my farm on Chehalis Mountain north of Springbrook. A. L. WATSON.

Forty Years Torture.

To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for C. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cures cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Caldwell & Co.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to H. J. Littlefield deceased, or the partnership firm of Littlefield Brothers are requested to call on me and settle. MARGIE L. LITTLEFIELD, Administratrix of the Estate of H. J. Littlefield.

Natural Anxiety.

Mothers regard approaching winter with uneasiness, children take cold so easily. No disease costs more little lives than croup. It's attack is so sudden that the sufferer is often beyond human aid before the doctor arrives. Such cases yield readily to One Minute Cough Cure. Liquidifies the mucus, allays inflammation, removes danger. Absolutely safe. Acts immediately. Cures coughs, colds, grip, bronchitis, all throat and lung troubles. F. S. McMahon, Hampton, Ga: "A bad cold rendered me voiceless just before an oratorical contest. I intended to withdraw but took One Minute Cough Cure. It restored my voice in time to win the medal." Caldwell & Co.

For Sale.

Nine hundred acres of land within five miles of Newberg, in different tracts. Mostly improved. Amos Nelson.

The Worst Form.

Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over. Mrs. Crandall, of Troy, I. T., writes: "For a number of years I trouble with indigestion and dyspepsia which grew into the worst form. Finally I was induced to use Kodol and after using four bottles I am entirely cured. I heartily recommend Kodol to all sufferers from indigestion and dyspepsia. Take a dose after meals. It digests what you eat." Caldwell & Co.

For Sale.

One two year old full blooded Jersey bull, also two cows that will soon be fresh. THOS. SMITH.

Good Like Hot Cakes.

"The fastest selling article I have in my store," writes druggist C. T. Smith, of Davis, Ky., "is Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, because it always cures. In my six years of sales it has never failed. I have known it to save sufferers from throat and lung diseases, who could get no help from doctors or any other remedy." Mothers rely on it, best physicians prescribe it, and F. H. Caldwell & Co. guarantee satisfaction or refund price. Trial bottles free. Reg. size 50c and $1.

Out of Death's Jaws.

"When death seemed very near from a very severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes P. Moss, Durham, N. C., "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave perfect health." Best pills on earth, and only 25c at F. H. Caldwell & Co's druggists.

Stanley, veteran of the Philippine war, who has been visiting his father Calvin Stanley at Plainfield, Indiana, since his return, writes his classmates here that he has the position of professor of Science in Central Academy, a long established institution at Plainfield under the control of the Friends church. He has already entered upon his new duties.

B. C. Miles was in Portland a few days ago, interviewing the Oregon Furniture Factory people in regard to putting in the proposed factory here. He received assurance from Manager Linn that the company was in earnest, that the capital was ready, and that as soon as the question of transportation rates and facilities could be settled, he would be up here to see how badly the people of Newberg wanted a big furniture factory.

Sunday night about eleven o'clock, fire was discovered in the large stock barn of Ole Highland who lives on Williams creek north of Willamina. The neighbors immediately turned out but the fire was in the hay loft and had such a start that nothing could be done to quench the flames. There was consumed in the barn, 50 tons of hay, 600 bushels of grain, one horse, all his chickens, three sets of harness and all his farming implements. The loss is estimated at between $1000 and $1500.—Sheridan Sun.

According to the Telephone-Register, L. W. Harger of West Chehalis has been calling the attention of members of the legislature to the need of providing each county in the state with a standard of weights and measures. This is done in most of the other states, where the county treasurer is made custodian of the standard. Often there arises disputes as to the weight of a commodity, and if each county was provided with the standard a settlement could soon be reached. All attempts in the past to supply this need have proved futile.

The trial on Tuesday of the state vs. Joseph Matty, on a charge of assault with intent to kill, the prosecuting witness being Clabe Bryan, was an engrossing one to many people. The state had about ten witnesses and the defense about five. The evidence was thoroughly gone over and strong arguments were made by James McCall, Judge Henry McGlin, Prosecuting Attorney Hart and Judge Caples. The jury was out all night, and the following day reported that they could not agree, and were discharged by the judge.—Reporter.

Wednesday, October 1, was the fiftieth anniversary of the arrival of J. H. Forsyth in Oregon. Portland was then a town of seven hundred people and he got work in a saw mill in the village the next day after his arrival at six dollars a day, and later on he got as high as ten dollars a day. He paid as high as twenty-five dollars a hundred for flour but says he did not mind it, considering the price paid for work. He was offered a tract of three hundred
