

THE NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER. W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 10, 1902.

Telephone statistics of the United States show that one person in every forty has a telephone.

There are said to be ten thousand rural delivery mail routes in the United States and over ten thousand more under consideration.

The Capital Journal gives a tip to hop growers when it says that more than one man has lost his farm by holding onto a hop crop when he could have sold it for a good price.

It is said that the census of 1900 spelt the theory that Americans die young because of the feverish pursuit of wealth and because we have not enough holidays.

The following graft from an exchange is one of those gems which are never out of date and applicable anywhere: It has been observed that people who subscribe for the local paper and keep their subscriptions paid always enjoy peculiar prosperity.

A sign of content and prosperity is shown in the number of light vehicles which are seen on the road, especially on a nice Sunday afternoon when the family goes out for a pleasure ride.

Better and more sincere advice to young men looking forward to public life is seldom given than that which follows. It was given the other day to an audience of Indiana young men by Senator A. J. Beveridge.

By the last of this week the pruned trees in this locality will have been mostly taken care of. There has seldom been finer weather for harvesting all kinds of crops than that which has been enjoyed this fall.

Oregon Postoffice Receipts.

Table with 3 columns: Office, 1902, 1901. Lists receipts for Albany, Astoria, Baker City, Burns, Corvallis, Eugene, etc.

Table with 3 columns: Location, 1902, 1901. Lists statistics for Dallas, Eugene, Forest Grove, Grants Pass, Heppner, Hillsboro, Hood River, Huntington, Independence, La Grande, Lakerville, Lebanon, Medford, Milwaukie, Newberg, Oregon City, Pendleton, Portland, Prineville, Roseburg, Salem, Seaside, The Dalles, Tillamook, Union, Vancouver.

Additional Local.

A. M. Aspinwall of Brooks was in town this week.

Vin Vincent has bought a sawmill near Sherwood which he is operating.

A young Jersey cow for sale, price $25. Justin Haworth, Springbrook.

F. H. Storey has been applying a white paint brush to his house this week.

Miss Florence Coffin returned home Wednesday morning from a visit at Dayton.

E. Spaulding who has been suffering some time from dysentery is able to be out again.

Charley Hoskins will begin teaching another year's school at Laurel the first of the week.

C. H. Christenson of Amity came down Wednesday and called on relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Partridge of Portland came up on the boat Wednesday for a few days visit.

A fire line of new hats at from $2.75 to $5.00 at Shaws. Also a few second hand stoves in thorough repair.

Don't forget the silver medal contest Friday night, October 10, at Craters hall. There will be plenty of good music.

Jasper Bales went down to Portland Thursday morning and took a position in Olds, Wortman & King's department store.

W. H. Morris took his wife, who has been ill for some time, down to a Portland hospital for treatment, Tuesday morning.

J. S. Rees got back Wednesday morning from Newport where he has been spending the summer working for Dr. H. J. Minthorn.

Herbert Coffin entered a school of pharmacy in Portland Monday morning. He boards at home and makes daily trips to the city.

The New Webfoot sewing machine at Shaws. Drop head, fully guaranteed, $18. Second hand machines from $1.50 to $5.00.

W. V. Culver of Oklahoma, who purchased the Rev. L. D. Berr property some little time ago is expected to arrive the latter part of this week.

Mrs. O. C. Yocum of Government Camp, on the side of Mt. Hood, arrived Wednesday evening for a visit with her brothers W. O. and W. L. Robertson.

H. E. Finney and Arthur Baird have formed a business partnership and are opening up a new stock of groceries in the Oliver building opposite the post-office.

From the number of trespasses and "no hunting" notices which have been secured at this office recently it would appear that the hunting preserves are getting rather scarce in this neighborhood.

By the last of this week the pruned trees in this locality will have been mostly taken care of. There has seldom been finer weather for harvesting all kinds of crops than that which has been enjoyed this fall.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Duncan got back Tuesday from Southern Oregon where they have been located for some months, and where Frank has been doing railroad carpentering at good wages. They are preparing to move to Oregon City.

working for the Penn. Mutual Life Insurance Company. Cecil Hoskins and Marie Nelson received $2.50 in premiums on their business exhibited at the state fair.—Reporter.

Rev. L. M. Haworth of Portland is visiting old friends in this vicinity.

Dr. A. Mills and family moved down from the Red hills the latter part of the week and are occupying the Eli Seese house on Meridian street.

Miss Minnie Newby who is engaged in mission work in Alaska, with Mr. and Mrs. Silas Moon, left here Tuesday morning and joined Mrs. Moon in Seattle where she has been visiting. Their departure has been unexpectedly delayed from the fact that there was no boat making the trip to Kaak Village.

Miss Newby was accompanied from here into Washington by her friend Miss Myrtle Coleman who has been out here from the East visiting for several weeks.

Kansas may be ahead of Oregon on corn but she will have to take a back seat when it comes to prunes. Monday Mr. G. W. Gwin brought into the Sun office a limb from a prune tree that had 30 silver prunes on a space less than a foot long.

No prunes in the bunch was smaller than a good sized hen's egg, though they were somewhat smaller than the rest of the prunes on the tree that were not so much bunched.—Sheridan Sun.

The ferry across the Willamette river at Ignatz Tomah's, near Mission landing, which has been in preparation several months by that gentleman, is now in operation, having started running the first of this week.

This, beside being a great convenience to citizens of St. Paul and Dayton, will be as much, if not more so to residents in the northern and western portions of Yamhill and Marion counties, as they can now cross the Willamette river with teams or stock without going a roundabout course.—Dayton Herald.

The Lewis & Clark Exposition will need some commissioners outside of Portland to look after state interests. J. C. Cooper of this place is prominently mentioned, as his successful work in horse carvings stamps him as a man well fitted for the job.

McMinnville and Yamhill county desire to be recognized in this matter.—Reporter. [A petition was freely signed here Saturday asking for Mr. Cooper's appointment. J. C. has numerous friends in this end of the county who are glad to know that he was appointed, not only for his own sake but for the public service he will be able to render.]

Advices have been received at the postoffice ordering that rural mail delivery route number two be established from Newberg on the first of November. This route will start out down Wynooki street, turn east, skirt the Willamette river in the vicinity of Butteville, come back over Parrott mountain, and come into town again on the Portland road.

No notices have yet been received as to the appointment of a carrier. The establishment of the proposed route over Chehalis mountain is pending further investigation.

When Mothers Don't Care.

"If your mother don't care for yer," said a pitiful youngster before Justice Olmsted in the Children's Court, "ye ain't got no mother."

Twelve words in the rough speech of the streets. With them a truth which, seeking entrance, sounds the electric bells of Fifth avenue mansions just as imperatively as it raps on the doors of east-side tenements.

There are children of wealth given over in all their tender years to the uncertain mercies of nursemaid and governess, scarce seeing the mothers who gave them birth, who are not less deserted in fact than was the little "forlornly" in court. He realized his neglected state; the others have their position and loneliness swamped in luxury. That is the only difference. But the attentions which money can buy carry no recompense for the absence of the maternal "caring for."

Not long ago it was found that lack of "mothering" was responsible for the high death-rate in a city founding asylum. The same lack is killing, not the children but something in them which is sweet, tender and invisible, in many homes that are counted fortunate. The whole world shares in the unbalanced loss that follows when "yer mother don't care for yer," be the home high or low.—New York World.

Eugene Field's Views on Ambition and Dyspepsia.

"Dyspepsia," wrote Eugene Field, "often incapacitates a man for endeavor and sometimes extinguishes the fire of ambition." Through great despite his complaint Field suffered from indigestion all his life. A weak, over-stomach can't digest your food. It needs rest. You can only rest it by the use of a preparation like Kodol, which relieves it of work by digesting your food. Rest soon restores it to its normal tone.

Strengthening Satisfying Invigorating Prepared only by E. G. Dewey & Co., Chicago. The 51. bottle contains 24 doses for 50c.

America's Famous Beauties. Look with horror on skin eruptions, blotches, sores, pimples. They don't have them, nor will any one, who uses Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It glorifies the face. Eczema or salt rheum vanishes before it. It cures sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains. Infalible for piles. 25c at F. H. Caldwell & Co's drugstore.

Take Notice. I hereby warn the public not to purchase a certain note given by me, Sep. 26, 1902, and made payable to Earl Hanson twenty days after date.

Out of Death's Jaws. "When death seemed very near from a very severe stomach and liver trouble, that I had suffered with for years," writes P. Muse, Durham, N. C. "Dr. King's New Life Pills saved my life and gave perfect health." Best pills on earth, and only 25c at F. H. Caldwell & Co's drugstore.

Sold Again. Thirty years ago a Tompkinsville girl put a needle between her lips while she hunted some thread, preparatory to threading it. Just then she sneezed and the needle was gone. She searched diligently without result. Yesterday she felt a tingling sensation at the end of one of her fingers. Upon examination she discovered the point of a small object just above the surface of the skin. Procuring a pair of tweezers, she withdrew a thread she had accidentally run in to her finger the day before while pruning a rose bush.—A Kansas Ex.

The Worst Form. Multitudes are singing the praises of Kodol, the new discovery which is making so many sick people well and weak people strong by digesting what they eat, by cleansing and sweetening the stomach and by transforming their food into the kind of pure, rich, red blood that makes you feel good all over.
