The Douglas Studio for photos.
Orchard and apple boxes for sale by C. B. Wilson.
Lon Hill of Eugene visited in town a day or so the first of the week.
A few more of those 50c boxes of stationery left for 35c. Moore keeps them.
A. M. Hoskins left Monday morning to spend the winter in Southern Oregon.
You will always find a complete line of fresh vegetables at Wilson's grocery.
Ed Hampton and family of Seattle are expected here for a visit in a few days.
Go to T. B. Cummings for furniture, paints and oils. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock.
Mrs. Johnson, the milliner, has a line of fall millinery which cannot fail to please. Call and look over her stock.
Master Raymond Pressnall, grandson of Silas Comer, arrived the first of the week from Seattle, and has enrolled as a student in Pacific College.
Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bright and children who have been visiting here with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larsen, Mrs. Bright's parents, returned home last Friday.
Three Marion county officials in the persons of County Judge Scott, Commissioner Needham and Roadmaster Culver, accompanied by Hugh Geary of Champos, made a flying visit to Newberg Wednesday morning. They were down to investigate the proposition of putting in a free ferry below town, and came up to Newberg to interview citizens here in regard to the matter. The Yamhill county court has already allowed $500 for two years toward the project, and should the Marion county court act accordingly, and the officials here rather indicated that it would, the ferry will be assured.
Miss Grace Heston, aged 20 years, who for some time had been an invalid from tuberculosis, died at her home above Dundee Saturday morning, the funeral services being conducted at the Friends church Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The pastor, Miss Mendall, took her text from the life of the departed, and exhorted her hearers to be ready for—life. Mrs. Mabel Douglas spoke touchingly of the heroism of the deceased, in her life of absolute self-sacrifice, patience and contentment, under almost overwhelming cares. Music was furnished by a double quartet. Those serving as pall bearers were Messrs. John and George Larkin, W. S. Parker, A. C. Seely, L. B. Ferguson and W. C. Woodward. The attendance at the funeral was large, as the whole community was desirous of honoring the memory of her who had made such a brave fight, not so much for herself as for the fatherless and motherless children largely dependent upon her. The family wishes to express its gratitude to those who have shown themselves such close friends in this their bereavement.

All kinds of empty barrels for sale at Wilson's Grocery.
A few more of those 10c tablets for 5c left at Moore's.
The best line of teas and coffees in the city at Wilson's grocery.
Word comes from Gold Hill that Miss Joyce Hoskins is in very poor health again.
A drop in undertaking goods at T. B. Cummings & Co. Call and get prices before buying elsewhere.
A reception and social was given by the Christian associations of the college Saturday evening in honor of the new students.
Charlie Baldwin arrived the first of the week from Alaska and is at the home of his mother Mrs. M. E. Baldwin. He is in poor health.
Frank Williams has sold his place east of town and departed with his family for Arizona. The move was occasioned by the ill health of Mrs. Williams.
Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Bennett went down to Portland Tuesday. Mrs. Bennett remained, and with Mrs. F. A. Morris, who went down Thursday morning will visit for a few days.
Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Whitman of Tacoma, Washington, visited in town the first of the week with Jas. Comie and family. Harvey is now running as a conductor on the road between Seattle and Portland.
Mel David is now regularly hauling milk down to the creamery from their place on Chehalis mountain. He is milking but nine cows at present but intends steadily to increase the size of his dairy herd. He says he has some excellent cows for a starter.
J. L. Haworth and Jim Mills of Springbrook, Dr. A. Mills and the latter's brother-in-law, Abner Cook, started out Wednesday morning on an overland trip, the objective point being on the coast out south of Yaquina Bay. They went in search of school lands.
A meeting of the newspaper men of Yamhill county was called at the McMinnville city hall last Saturday morning, the purpose being to form an organization in the interests of the fraternity of pencil pushers. F. S. Harding was elected president and W. C. Woodward secretary. A committee was appointed to draft constitution and by-laws and another meeting will be held in the near future.
John Holman, the man who juggles cannon balls to the wonder of all beholders, gave his last show in town Monday evening. He convinced spectators that he really caught the ball from the mouth of the cannon, and on Saturday night Will McGuire essayed to catch the big shot and incidentally the hundred dollar reward offered. He failed, but gave an exhibition of his strength by putting above his head with one hand his 130 pound dumb bell. This is a feat Holman could not accomplish.

Fresh bread at A. B. Cooper's, first door east Hollingsworth's furniture store.
Blue pencils are best for the eyes; get them at Moore's. He keeps all kinds.
Sam Laabier has been down from Seattle this week visiting with his mother.
Say do you know a good bargain? Then look at that big five cent tablet at Moore's.
Dr. W. S. Clark of San Francisco visited in town over Sunday with the Graphic family.
Hear the veterans sing some of the good old songs at the Friends church, Friday evening, October 24.
The place to buy those red spelling tablets and writing books the teachers like so well is at Moore's. He keeps everything the teachers need.
Mr. S. Hiltchen and family have moved from the old Wyman place north of town and are occupying the Sam Terrell property on south Meridian street.
Dr. Minthorn was down at Waldport Friday, attending Mrs. Robt Harrison's little child, who is recovering slowly from an attack of paralysis.—Yaquina Bay News.
Mrs. Judge Wm. Galloway of Oregon City, Department Counselor of the Women's Relief Corps, was in town a couple of days this week, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Eggers.
A Dallas man was in town last week circulating a petition for a change in the time schedule of the local train, so that the morning train might leave Dallas about a half hour later in the morning and leave Portland and hour earlier in the evening. The petition was pretty generally signed.
A petition is being circulated in McMinnville for an ordinance prohibiting spitting upon the sidewalks. All the facts seem to come our way in time.—Reporter. (If this is a fact let us hope it will become something more. A class of fellows who have the habit of plastering up sidewalks and the floors of public buildings should have some decency legislated into them. That is all the hope there is for them—and for other people.)
A few days ago when temporarily under the weather, F. H. Storey had a hemorrhage of the lungs. It was a great surprise to him, not knowing that he was afflicted with any pulmonary trouble whatever. He was examined by a physician and informed that one lung was seriously affected and that he must try a change of climate. He is arranging accordingly to dispose of his property and business interests in Newberg, and try a different location, though upon the latter he has not decided. By years of rustic and hard work Mr. Storey has built up a prosperous business here as a tinner and plumber and his many friends will be sorry to see him leave it. It will doubtless be some time yet before a change can be made.

A fresh cow for sale. Horace Newlin, Springbrook.
Call at Elret Bros. store on Thursdays and examine Miss Flora Bell's line of Portland millinery.
All sizes of window glass at the Newberg Sash & Door Factory near the depot. Take your windows there to be filled.
Mrs. N. C. Maris of Heppner visited friends in McMinnville Saturday. Mrs. Maris and son Homer return home the latter part of this week.
On last Saturday night the Tillamook stage was held up by three robbers five miles west of North Yamhill, and the passengers relieved of their change.
Jacob Manser, who recently purchased the C. C. Elliott and M. Parrish places east of town arrived with his family from Washington Tuesday evening.
N. E. Britt has purchased a one hundred and twenty acre place near Prine Ridge, in the foothills of the Cascade mountains, and will stock it with cattle and sheep and place Clarence Elliott in charge.
When in the county seat Saturday the writer visited the McMinnville creamery, owned by Messrs. Bredwell & Palmer, who were preparing for market their first churning of butter. They have a neat and well equipped plant and in their persevering efforts are deserving of success. The more dairies and creameries Yamhill county has, the more prosperous farmers there will be, and the fewer mortgages.
According to the Observer a frolicsome treat is before the Dallas youngsters, as follows: "Several weeks ago Hon. W. C. Brown announced that in the event that hops reached a price of 20 cents a pound he would scatter $100 in nickles on Main street for the small girls and boys of Polk county to scramble for. Wednesday morning the old gentleman disposed of his hop crop at 25 cents, and he now announces that he is ready to make good his promise. On Saturday afternoon, October 25, he will scatter 2000 five-cent pieces on Main street in front of the court house, and the little people are invited to be present. All children over 13 years of age will be barred from participating in the scramble. If the street is muddy the money will be scattered on the college campus. Great fun is promised, and the kids are anxiously waiting the event.
M. O. Pickett who has been working for several months in a law office at South Bend, Washington, returned home Tuesday evening. He came rather with the intention of opening up a law office in Newberg, but when in Portland was offered a good position in the office of Murebeck & Moser, with which firm he studied before being admitted to the bar, and will probably accept it. He enjoys his work in South Bend but expresses himself as being glad to get back into a civilized state of society. This is hard on South Bend, but when it is known that the town is headquarters for sailors, fishermen and loggers, the statement is not surprising. The mayor of the bibulous town, and the county assessor recently went together to Seattle to take the Keeley cure and nothing was thought of the matter. As another example, a hotly contested city election was recently held between the temperance and the saloon people. Candidates on both tickets were elected and all proceeded immediately to get on a high whiz.

Wm. Manning has been on the road this week for the handle manufacturing company.
The Sheridan band was re-organized Monday evening with thirteen pieces. Sam Shortridge is instructor. They have rented the hall over the Sun office to practice in.—Sun. [Thirteen! What an unlucky circumstance—for the occupants of the Sun office.]
Miss Elizabeth Sawyers, a sister of Mrs. Fletcher Lion who sang here at college Commencement exercises in June, came up from Portland last Friday evening and visited over Sunday with Miss Mabel Edwards. Miss Sawyers was formerly an instructor in the music department of De Pauw University, Greencastle, Indiana.
Look Out For Fever.
Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. Caldwell & Co.
For Sale.
Nine hundred acres of land within five miles of Newberg, in different tracts. Mostly improved. Amos Nelson.
His Life in Peril.
"I just seem to have gone all to pieces," writes Alfred Bee, of Welfare, Tex., "billiousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began using Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly run-down people. Try them. Only 50c at F. H. Caldwell & Co.
