The Haviland family, which arrived several days ago from Kansas, has moved into the H. E. Finney house on Wynook street.
District organizer Day of the Woodmen of the World, met with the local lodge Monday evening. He expects to return the first of the week for further work.
Mrs. G. W. Christenson and children leave the latter part of the week to join Mr. Christenson in Northern California where he is carpentering on the Southern Pacific railroad.
Another accession was made to the Minnesota settlement here last week by the arrival of W. H. Taylor and family. They will probably locate in this vicinity, and have moved into the Paul Macy house.
K. O. Eldridge, the Independence creameryman, formerly of Newberg, passed through town on his way to Portland Friday morning. Mr. Eldridge is working up a flourishing industry in Polk county.
The Reporter states that the losses of the Oregon Fire Relief Association from the late forest fires aggregate about $7000 all of which has been paid. Considering the wide membership of the mutual company in the state, such a small loss is surprising.
The following which appeared in the local columns of Friday's Oregonian is a good advertisement of Newberg industry: A citizen who is preparing to have a rather handsome building erected here stated yesterday that he was paying $80 per thousand for some of the brick to be used in the construction. "Great Ghost!" exclaimed the person to whom this information was imparted, "are they 'gold bricks' and how many of them have you ordered?" "They are not gold bricks, and only three thousand of them will be used. They are to be made at Newberg, and to be large at one end and quite small at the other, requiring a great deal of filing, and they are to be used in arches." Just whether there are any more expensive brick in the market outside of gold and silver bricks is not known, but $80 per thousand ought to satisfy almost any body.

All kinds of empty barrels for sale at Wilson's Grocery.
The best line of teas and coffees in the city at Wilson's grocery.
Mrs. C. L. Ballard of Sherwood visited in town with Mrs. Noah Heater Tuesday.
A drop in undertaking goods at T. B. Cummings & Co. Call and get prices before buying elsewhere.
B. F. DeFord, a late arrival from Iowa, has recently moved to the Wm. Jones place east of town.
McMinnville is putting on metropolitan airs by the laying of cement walks along her principal business street.
Henry Schneider who has been running a creamery in Union county has accepted a position on a dairy farm near Perrydale, and will move at once.
Notice—The regular meeting of the Hook & Ladder Company occurs Nov. 4, 8 p. m. All members are requested to be present as special business will come before the meeting.
J. A. Millap brought in a couple of Early Rose potatoes Wednesday morning that were hummers for spuds of this variety. The larger one weighed two and a fourth pounds.
While the college boys are not doing anything at football this season, they expect to put a strong basket ball team in the field a little later and make a hard fight for the league championship.
Mrs. Martin Downs has traded her property in the west part of town to J. W. Miller, proprietor of the Cottage Hotel, for the latter's place in Clackamas county, about thirty miles southeast of Portland.
The Oregon Fire Relief Association is doing lots of business these days. In Monday morning's mail the association received 368 letters. The clerks in the office are kept busy receiving and recouping for money on assessments.—Register.
Little Alice Hill of LaGrande who with her mother has been visiting in Portland came up to Newberg with Frank Elliott last Thursday evening and visited over Sunday. Mrs. Hill and children are expected up here the latter part of this week for a visit.
City politics are warming up at the county seat. Two tickets are in the field; known as the law and order, and civic improvement tickets. The names both look good and the fact that there is a stiff fight on indicates that somebody is selling under borrowed colors.
It has been suggested that a public debate be held, the question at issue to be upon the desirability of allowing cows to run at large within the city limits. One gentleman has already volunteered to debate on the anti-cow side, and there should be many volunteers to speak for the bovines. Such a forensic battle would be of practical interest and would prove a relief as a change from the tiresome, hack speeches so often heard in the political arena.

Fresh bread at A. B. Cooper's, first door east Hollingsworths furniture store.
M. O. Pickett went down to Portland Monday morning to begin work in the law office of Murdock & Moser.
Chester Hall of Sherwood, formerly a student in college here, was married in Oregon. City last week to a lady named Mounts.
The metal stands Hodson Bros. are giving with $15 cash purchases are models of beauty and an ornament to any home.
A young man named Stinson from Minnesota, visited a few days ago with the Soper young people on Chehalum mountains.
A 3 1/2 in. wagon for sale or trade for a one horse wagon; also a young cow for sale or trade for a horse. Inquire of J. P. Johnson.
On last Friday evening without any notice of their intentions having been given, Byron Brown of McMinnville and Miss Emma Cummins of this place, took themselves to the M. E. parsonage and were quietly united in matrimony. After spending a few days visiting in Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Brown have settled at McMinnville. The groom is a brother of Mrs. J. G. Hadley, late of Newberg.
Hollingsworth & Cooper's addition to their store building has been completed, and they are busy getting their stock in shape in new and rearranged quarters. They now have five separate rooms at command, one for their undertaking business, two for second hand goods and the two front ones for new stock. Of the latter, the east one has been extended by the removal of a partition, and when filled with gilt edge furniture, constitutes a model show room.
The large audience which filled the Friends church last Friday evening voted itself highly entertained by the veteran male octet of Portland, assisted by Miss Nilson, reader. The octet put up good music not only for "old men," but such as no musical aggregation should be ashamed of. However the members object to being called old men, and in fact belied the term by a general attitude of jollity such as is exhibited by a band of school boys off on a lark. They found the audience in sympathy with them and responded with evident pleasure to numerous encores. A few of the voices of unusual tone quality attracted special notice. Beginning with the first tenors, the names of the singers are, S. Bulluck, W. S. Powell, C. W. Tracy, R. V. Pratt, O. C. Pratt, J. M. Moore, A. M. Cumming, and H. R. Littlefield. The octet is fortunate in having such a superior accompanist as Miss E. C. Felt. The people were delighted with the reading of Miss Nilson whom they consider one of the best all round elocutionists who ever appeared in Newberg. The entertainment was a great success and the ladies of the Friends church promise some more of the same kind.

Call at Ehret Bros. store on Thursdays and examine Miss Flora Bell's line of Portland millinery.
J. B. David of Chehalum mountain showed his face in Newberg Wednesday, the first time in a year to the day.
All sizes of window glass at the Newberg Sash & Door Factory near the depot. Take your windows there to be filled.
James Duncan returned home the latter part of last week from Southern Oregon where he has recently been working with a surveying crew.
The Misses Rhoda and Delia Peterman of Bloomsburg, Pennsylvania, who are out seeing the Pacific Coast, arrived in town the latter part of this week for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bott.
In chambers at Salem on Tuesday Judge Boise decided in favor of plaintiff the case of J. H. Nelson vs Yamhill county, wherein suit was brought for deputy hire. This decision gives to the plaintiff the sum of $1,200 for service of deputy during his last term, and also involves the payment of the salary of the present deputy until such time as the law governing this shall be amended.—Reporter.
Miss Olive Stratton left the middle of the week for Nehalem, Clatsop county, to enter upon a career as a school ma'am. Her many friends wish her success, and advise her not to follow the plan of a young lady teacher of an adjoining county, of whom it is reported that, hoping to secure prompt attendance, promised to kiss the first pupil at school every morning. "Tis said that the big boys have taken to roosting on the school house fence all night."
Among the public school teachers from this and adjacent districts who are attending the annual county institute at McMinnville the latter part of this week are R. W. Kirk, F. H. Buchanan, Meedames David Martin, H. E. Morris, J. H. Dunstan, A. H. Pape, and the Misses Lena Stillwell, Ella Crawford, Margaret Ingils, Grace Dudley, Gertrude Lamb, Nettie Jones, Jas. Gould, Rose Metcalf, and Pauline Rosner. Whatever the institute may mean, it is chiefly important in the eyes of the boys and girls from the fact that it brings a three day's holiday.
The best of temperance towns are not proof against occasional public exhibitions of drunkenness. In a place where saloons are on every corner it is little wonder that youths yield to temptation so prominently and persistently offered, but when a young man goes out of his way to hunt up the stuff what can be said for him? A young fellow who was reading about on the streets a few evenings ago, fell off the sidewalk into the ditch and was heard to mutter, "You d— fool, what are you doing here?" The question was more pertinent than he imagined and one to which he should give some attention in his sober moments. What was he doing there? Dependent sayeth not.

Forty Years Torture.
To be relieved from a torturing disease after 40 years torture might well cause the gratitude of anyone. That is what DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve did for O. Haney, Geneva, O. He says: "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me of piles after I had suffered 40 years." Cuts, burns, wounds, skin diseases. Beware of counterfeits. Caldwell & Co.
The Youths Companion Calendar Free.
The publishers of the Youth's Companion are sending free to new subscribers to the paper for 1903 a very handsome calendar, lithographed in twelve colors, with a border embossed in gold. The exquisite home scene which forms the principal feature of the calendar is sold to non-subscribers for fifty cents, but to new subscribers for 1903 it is sent free, with all the issues of the Companion for the remaining weeks of 1902, the paper then being sent for a full year, to January, 1904.
The Youth's Companion, 144 Berkeley St., Boston, Mass.
Look Out For Fever.
Biliousness and liver disorders at this season may be prevented by cleansing the system with DeWitt's Little Early Biscuits. These famous little pills do not gripe. They move the bowels gently, but copiously, and by reason of the tonic properties, give tone and strength to the glands. Caldwell & Co.
For Sale.
Nine hundred acres of land within five miles of Newberg, in different tracts. Mostly improved. Amos Nelson.
His Life Is Worth.
"I just seem to have gone all to pieces!" writes Alfred Bee, of Wellars, Tex., "biliousness and a lame back had made life a burden. I couldn't eat or sleep and felt almost too worn out to work when I began using Electric Bitters, but they worked wonders. Now I sleep like a top, can eat anything, have gained in strength and enjoy hard work." They give vigorous health and new life to weak, sickly run-down people. Try them. Only 50c at F. H. Caldwell & Co.
