Andrew Gubser was down from Winlock, Washington the first of the week visiting with former friends and relatives about the old homestead north of town.

CARD OF THANKS—We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to all those who were so kind to us during the sickness and death of our little Harold.

Mr. and Mrs. GRANT HEATER.

M. J. Jones returned home from Boise, Idaho, last week near where he has been doing carpenter work on Allen evaporators. He left again soon for Jefferson, Marion county where he is working in the erection of a new flour mill.

Harold, the three year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Heater, of Springbrook, died last Friday morning after a brief illness. The funeral services were conducted Saturday morning at the Springbrook Friends church and were in charge of the pastor, Mrs. Phoebe Hammer. The stricken parents have the sympathy of many friends.

One night last week some would-be burglar spent a good deal of time endeavoring to effect an entrance to Walter Everett's home east of town. After listening for a while to the fellow's abortive efforts, Walter gave notice that he was awake and the visitor beat a hasty retreat. Walter had been hauling his hop crop to market and it is supposed that somebody wished to share the profits. It is significant that this year tin burglars are after the hop growers and are giving the banks a rest.

Rev. L. Brouillette arrived home from San Francisco last week where he went to consider a call that had come to him to take the pastorate of one of the Presbyterian churches in that city. He says that so far as the work for the church is concerned he would like it, but when he considers the fact that his large family would be compelled to live in a flat in very close quarters, and that every time one of the children would set foot on the street it would be thrown with dirty Italians and all the baser elements of society, it is too much for him and he can't consent to go.

All kinds of empty barrels for sale at Wilson's Grocery.

Miss Mabel Edwards returned home from Portland Wednesday evening where she had been keeping house for her brother Walter for a week or ten days, in the absence of Mrs. Edwards who was away on a visit.

Pres. McGraw and Jesse Edwards who went to Indianapolis to attend the Five Years Meeting of the Friends Church write to the home folks that they have had a very enjoyable time. They will probably arrive home the last of the week. Later—Pres. McGraw arrived Wednesday evening.

Roy Smith, nephew of John and Demsey Smith arrived here the first of the week from Missouri, after an absence of nearly five years. He says Demsey sold an interest in a mine some short time ago at a profit of about $1800. Demsey and his mother will probably return to Oregon in the spring.

Ervin Scott, carrier for Rural Route number two who made his first delivery last Saturday says he was met by the patrons of the route with a broad smile and a hearty hand shake as they all seem highly pleased at the outlook for having their mail delivered at the door six days in the week. A large number of boxes were already up and more are being added every day.

J. W. Coffin the head sawyer at the sawmill took a short vacation while the mill was closed down last week and went as far south as Eugene. He returned Monday after having had a very enjoyable trip. Almost every loose man he saw out south when accosted said he was in the employ of the Booth-Kelly lumber company and he returned with the impression that this company is doing a very large business in the manufacture of lumber. He found business on the move and he thinks Eugene is one of the best towns in the valley. A man never loses anything by getting out from home occasionally to see how the world moves.

Fresh bread at A. B. Cooper's, first door east Hollingsworth's furniture store. J. C. Sawyer of Oregon City came up to Newberg on business the middle of the week.

A drop in undertaking goods at T. B. Cummings & Co. Call and get prices before buying elsewhere.

The metal stands Hodson Bros. are giving with $15 cash purchases are models of beauty and an ornament to any home.

H. C. Paulsen of Chehalis Center was in town away before daylight Wednesday morning waking up the natives to tell of a new arrival at their home. He is entirely excusable as the latest addition is a son.

The exact age of John Bristow is not known about town but he evidently comes from a family subject to great length of life, for he says one of his ancestors who is still living came to this valley before the Indians were here. The exact date he does not give but that is immaterial.

There is evidently a law enforcement league in the county east which amounts to something more than the name. As a result of its exertions four saloon men were arraigned before the justice of the peace Tuesday, on a charge of selling intoxicants to minors. They pleaded guilty and were each fined twenty dollars and costs.

Wm. K. Lightfoot, of Gas City, Indiana, a brother of Mrs. James Vestal, arrived here Tuesday evening and will probably remain for several months. He stopped off at Hespey, Kansas, and picked a few apples from trees that were set by James Vestal and brought them along. Uncle Jimmie was showing them to his friends on the street Wednesday and telling of his experiences in Kansas in the days gone by.

The following from the Sheridan Sun is a very common story in the valley towns these days: Good dwelling houses are a scarce article in Sheridan. Several parties were in town the past week looking for houses. There are several old shacks around town that are not fit to live in but if they were torn down and good comfortable dwellings put up in their place it would be a good investment to the owners of the property.

Dr. H. C. Dixon is spending the week in Grants Pass visiting with his brother E. P. and family.

Call at Ebert Bros. store on Thursdays and examine Miss Flora Bell's line of Portland millinery.

An attorney from Vancouver, Washington, named Percival was in town on business the middle of the week.

Jasper Bales, who has been working in the department store of Olds, Wortman & King, Portland, has been laying off at home for a few days on account of illness.

Albert Schweizer, the popular little tailor, says that he expects to leave Newberg in a few days. He intends to try Southern Oregon and will probably locate at Roseburg and open up a shop.

We are not in business for fun but for profit, and for that reason have given up old styles and effects in photography. The present day finds us with advanced ideas in everything pertaining to pictures. C. C. Smith.

The long looked for rains came this week and the steamboat men are happy. The rise in the river has probably not been all they desire but it has been such that life is much easier for a steamboat. On Monday night a rise of two feet was recorded.

Special evangelistic meetings were begun at the Baptist church the first of the week and will continue through next week, with Rev. W. G. Silke as preacher. All Christians are invited to engage with us and every one is welcome to the meetings. F. O. Stander.

L. B. and L. W. Charies, both of whom have spent more or less time at the case in the Graphic office during the past six years, left here on Friday of last week for Grants Pass. If they succeed in finding employment they will probably remain and send for their families.

Emmor W. Hall who is on the available list for letter carrier in Portland has received the information from the Portland postmaster that he will have to go to Portland and hold himself in readiness, if his name is continued on the list of substitutes. He will probably move with his family to the city at an early day. Their many friends will regret to see them go.

Joseph Shaw, who has a non-in-law who has a position in the custom house in Shanghai, China, left a copy of the North China Daily Herald at this office Tuesday, which is a veritable blanket sheet. It is a nine column paper and when spread out on the table measures thirty-two by forty-six inches. Dealers over there evidently believe in the value of printers' ink for all of the eight pages except possibly two are taken up with advertising. One man announces "a good sized godown to let" which in United States means a warehouse.

FRANK WOOD.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, expose the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol relieves the inflammation, protects the nerves and cures the catarrh. Kodol cures indigestion, dyspepsia, all stomach troubles by cleansing and sweetening the glands of the stomach. Caldwell & Co.

For Sale.

Nine hundred acres of land within five miles of Newberg, in different tracts. Mostly improved. Amos Nelson.

One Minute Cough Cure

Is the only harmless cough cure that gives quick relief. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, pneumonia, asthma, Lag Grippe and all throat chest and lung troubles. The first bottle brought relief, several cured me. I am back to my old weight, 148 lbs. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, relieves the cough at once, draws out inflammation, cures croup. An ideal remedy for children. Caldwell & Co.
