Here in Oregon.
 As seen by a Trenchfoot.
 Everything goes—
 Here in Oregon.
 Webber grows between the toes—
 'Tis said in Oregon.
 Moss grows upon the back,
 Some folks get very slack,
 Concerning many things—
 Here in Oregon.
 One can 'may' get the blues—
 Here in Oregon.
 But need not if you choose—
 'Tis in Oregon.
 Tho' the days are filled with rain,
 'Shiny' days will come again,
 So sing the glad refrain—
 "Where rolls the Oregon."
 The days can be the gloomiest—
 Here in Oregon.
 The sky can get the blindest—
 They say in Oregon.
 The rain can come the gentlest
 The weather can be the balmyest—
 Here in Oregon.
 Potatoes can grow the largest—
 Here in Oregon.
 But I've seen some of the acrawnest—
 Here in Oregon.
 And carrots that were whoppers,
 And big fields where had been the hoppers—
 Here in Oregon.
 I've seen wheat that was the tallest—
 Here in Oregon.
 And oats that was the nicest—
 Here in Oregon.
 And such clover, hops and prunes,
 (By-the-way Newberg has no saloons)—
 It's here in Oregon.
 The way have a little mud—
 Here in Oregon.
 And it's better that we should—
 Here in Oregon.
 For without the gentle rain
 We could not gather in the grain
 As they do in Oregon.
 We have here the finest stream—
 That rolls in Oregon.
 And folks that's mighty mean—
 (Tho' they're not all in Oregon.)
 Fir trees that are the highest,
 A town that is the cleanest—
 Here in Oregon.
 We have no twisters, droughts or blizzards—
 Here in Oregon.
 Say! We've got it all from "A to Zard"—
 Here in Oregon.
 Our coffins may run out,
 But mind you still we shout—
 "Where rolls the Oregon."
 So we plod on through it all—
 Here in Oregon.
 Knowing God is over all—
 Here in Oregon.
 For He knows just what we need,
 How the hungry we must feed,
 And the weak and struggling lead
 to Him—
 Here in Oregon.
 All is not smooth sailing—
 Even tho' it's Oregon.
 Ah! no, there's many a bitter wailing—
 Here in Oregon.
 Not by courage and force we can
 Bravely conquer like a man,
 Overcoming every ban—
 Here in Oregon.
 Tell you what we need—
 Here in Oregon.
 That we all take on more speed—
 Here in Oregon.
 Make our lives and efforts talk,
 Bravely battling as we walk—
 While in Oregon.
 If it's you that wants a home—
 Here in Oregon.
 And to no other place you'll roam—
 If once in Oregon.
 Tho' we have the mud and rain
 And have sorrow, trouble, pain,
 Hope can still sing her refrain
 "God's near thee in Oregon."
 W. V. COLVINS.

Additional Local.
 Ping Pong, Combustion and other new games at Moore's.
 Don't fail to read the holiday ads in the Graphic this week.
 A good Eaty organ for sale, nearly
 new. See F. H. Storey.
 Buy your holiday goods of Moore this year if you want the best.
 The finest line of camiles, nuts and fruit in the city at Wilson's.
 O. V. Allen has bought an interest in a furniture store at Boise, Idaho.
 Lovers of choice chocolate creams can find them at Moore's.
 Fresh bread at A. B. Cooper's, first door east Hollingsworths furniture store.
 Turkeys, geese, ducks, chickens and fresh eastern oysters for Christmas at Wilson's.
 Henry Morris sold his home property
 to Jo Prue who runs the Gearin ferry below here.
 Miss Grace Christenson is visiting
 Oregon City this week with her sister Mrs. Frank Ducas.
 The Graphic and the popular National Magazine may still be had together for the low rate of $1.00.
 J. F. Phipps and wife of Portland visited with L. S. Otis east of town for several days last week.
 A drop in undertaking goods at T. B.
 Cummings & Co. Call and get prices
 before buying elsewhere.
 Dan Gilbert is harvesting a crop of mistletoe on his place and is arranging to market it in Portland.
 Al Cornell of Grants Pass came up to Newberg Saturday and visited with relatives and friends for a few days.
 We invite you to look over our stock of Christmas goods before buying. F. H.
 Caldwell & Co. prescription druggists.
 Mrs. T. Bronfelle left last Friday morning for San Francisco, to attend her daughter Mrs. W. H. Whitten who is sick.
 All sizes of window glass at the New-berg Sash & Door Factory near the depot. Take your window there to be filled.
 For sale, fifteen head of two and three year old cows; will be fresh in February. See T. D. Snodgrass on Blubber
 Smith place.
 That doll on display in the show window of Porter & Larkin's store is as sweet as a peach, so the girls big and little all say.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ducas returned to Oregon City Monday. While in town they invested in a couple of lots and will probably build in the spring.
 Louis Halley and sister Miss Libbie came down from Dayton Saturday, to attend the party in honor of Oint Newhouse, and remained over Sunday.
 $1.00 discount on every Guitar, Banjo and Violin in stock during Christmas week. These are bargains for some one.
 J. M. Shaw, opposite Cottage Hotel.
 Advertisements remain in the postoffice for J. E. James, Miss Minnie Stihler, G. W. Barlow, N. Oregon, Eli
 Perkins, E. H. Woodward, P. M.
 Dr. Woods Hutchinson of Portland is now acting as managing editor of "The Medical Sentinel," the official organ of the medical societies of the Northwest.
 J. G. Eckman of the Yamhill Reporter accompanied by his eldest son was down from McMinnville on business last Saturday and made the Graphic a fraternal
 call.
 Chris Smith, eldest son of C. C. Smith
 left Monday morning for Montland, Sherman county, with Fred Granbois
 and will work on the latter's cattle ranch.
 Sam and Robert Harland of Oklahoma, the latter directly from Colorado, however, arrived last Saturday. Their father and younger brothers are expected a little later.
 Mrs. L. S. Hill and young daughter Esther came down from Eugene Tuesday and will remain here visiting until after Christmas. Lon will be on hand for Christmas dinner.
 Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stevens visited at Dayton and Lafayette Monday and Tuesday. W. R. Derby of the latter place returned with them Wednesday
 for a short visit.
 Mrs. W. K. Allen and daughter, Mrs.
 Edna Metcalf arrived here this week
 from Boise, Idaho, and Elberton, Washington, respectively, where they have been for some time.
 When reaching to turn on the electric light in the Baptist Church Sunday evening, the second little daughter of Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Stansard fell and broke a collar bone.
 Benjamin Bates and wife are here
 from Iowa visiting relatives, Mrs. Bates being a sister to Hinchman Cooper.
 They came up from California where they have been for some time.
 Mr. and Mrs. William White of Enterprise, Wallawa county, who were on their way to California, stopped off here last Friday and made a short visit with Mrs. White's uncle Jonathan Votaw.
 A most remarkable coincidence is noted today of a mercantile establishment actually having in stock what they advertise—no "Fake"—no "Humbog"—
 we refer to Parker & Pool. The place to buy your holiday goods.
 The stock of holiday goods on display in Newberg is the largest ever seen in town and merchants say that trade in the best it ever has been. One firm closed out its entire stock of dolls and immediately ordered more.
 E. C. Armstrong has rented a dairy farm two miles west of Salem of which he will at once take possession, the family to move the latter part of this week.
 The farm is well located, fairly well improved and well stocked with good dairy cattle, and situated in a good community and Elmer thinks he will have a good opportunity to make things go.

 The farm is owned by a resident of Salem.
 Miss Nina Hawley of this place who has been attending the Adventist College at Walla Walla, Washington, died at the latter place of typhoid fever
 Wednesday.
 A game of football is scheduled for Saturday, beginning at two o'clock in the afternoon on the college campus, to take place between the town boys, captained
 by Tommy Cummings and the McMinnville High School team. Admission 15 cents, ladies free.
 Mrs. Mahel H. Douglas entertained the young ladies of the college at her home last Friday evening. The guests were costumed to impersonate most any thing and everything including Toppy,
 fuzzy eyed Jonathan, Minnie, Priscilla, Elizabeth Fry and on down again to Bridget. A hilarious time is reported.
 Monday afternoon while several men were standing on the bridge watching drift wood floating down the stream
 they were somewhat surprised to see a full grown beaver come out of the water and crawl behind some planking at the upper end of Gaff's saloon. It has been said that beaver were extirpated in this part of the state but seeing this one disproves the claim.—Sheridan Sun.
 The Masonic lodge elected officers
 Saturday evening. Officers: Clarence Butt, W. P.; J. E. Moore, S. W.; John
 Larkin, J. W.; H. A. Graf, Sec.; J. S.
 Larkin, Treas. On Thursday evening the following Eastern Star officers were elected: Mrs. J. E. Moore, W. M.; J. E.
 Caldwell, W. P.; Mrs. J. E. Moore, A.
 M.; Edith Moore, Sec.; J. S. Larkin,
 Treas.; Maggie Lippincott, Con.; Mrs.
 F. H. Caldwell, Ass't. Con.
 H. C. Paulsen, one of the most enterprising and successful farmers of Cheta-leum valley, surprised his friends the latter part of last week by buying the Edgerton general merchandise store of Dundas. Mr. Paulsen says that he is no longer able to do the hard work necessary to manage a farm successfully, for which reason he decided to go into business. Though his best years have been spent on the farm, he was brought up behind the counter, and will not be altogether new to the mercantile business. It is his intention to take charge of his new property at the first of the year. He has posters out announcing a public sale of stock, vehicles, farming implements, etc. to be held at his farm north of town, Tuesday Dec. 30, beginning promptly at ten o'clock. Free lunch will be served at noon.
Fight with the Blues.
 Those who will persist in closing their ears against the recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with their troubles, if not ended earlier by fatal termination. Read what
 T. R. Beal, of Beal, Miss. has to say:
 "Last fall my wife had every symptom of consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her." Guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co., druggists.
Farm for Sale.
 112 1/2 acres, 32 acres in cultivation—suitable for growing grains, fruits and hops; balance in second growth timber good for cord wood. Plenty of running water on the place. This farm is situated one half mile west of Newberg, Yamhill Co., Oregon, in a community where there are a number of good schools and churches.
 For further particulars enquire of
 D. M. Ramsey,
 Newberg, Oregon.
Better Than Plaster.
 A piece of damped plaster in Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on the affected part, is better than a plaster for a lame back and for pains in the side or chest. Pain Balm has no superior as a liniment for the relief of deep seated, muscular and rheumatic pains. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
A Costly Mistake.
 Blunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong
 if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills
 for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headaches, Liver and Bowel troubles. They gently yet thorough. 25c, at F. H.
 Caldwell & Co.'s drug store.
If you feel ill and need a pill
Why not purchase the best?
DeWitt's Early Risers
Are little surprises.
Take one—they do the rest.
 W. H. Hewell, Houston, Tex., writes
 "I have used Little Early Risers Pills in my family for constipation, sick headaches, etc. To their use I am indebted for the health of my family. Caldwell &
 Co."
A Frightful Horse.
 Ranning like mad down the street
 dumping its occupants, or a hundred other accidents, are every day occurances. It behooves everybody to have a reliable salve handy and there's none
 as good as Bucklen's Arnica Salve.
 Burns, Cuts, Sores, Eczema and Piles disappear quickly under its soothing effect. 25c, at F. H. Caldwell & Co.'s drug store.
Revolution Immature.
 A sure sign of approaching revolt and serious trouble in your system is nervousness, sleeplessness, or stomach up-sets. Electric Bitters will quickly dis-member the troublesome causes. It never fails to tone the stomach, Regulate the Kidneys and Bowels, stimulate the Liver and clarify the blood. Run down systems benefit particularly and all the usual attending aches vanish under its searching and thorough effectiveness. Electric Bitters only cost 50c, and is returned if it doesn't give perfect satisfaction. Guaranteed by F. H.
 Caldwell & Co., druggists.
Kidney Dyspepsia Cure.
 Digests all classes of food, tones and strengthens the stomach and digestive organs. Cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Stomach troubles, and makes rich red blood, health and strength. Kidney pills without nausea, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G.
 W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: I have used a number of bottles of Kidney and found it to be very effective and indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends. Caldwell & Co.
