ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1903.

Since Wednesday it is Governor Chamberlain. The inaugural ceremony took place in the Representative hall of the state house, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The new executive was sworn in by Chief Justice F. A. Moore, of the Oregon Supreme Court.

It has been long years since so great a catastrophe has befallen the state as that found in the sudden death of Congressman Tongue at Washington last Sunday afternoon. It is conceded on all hands that he was rapidly becoming a conspicuous figure in politics, because of the great work he has been doing for the state. It is the general opinion that Oregon will try many men before another such representative is found. Mr. Tongue's life furnishes an ideal toward which the young man should ever strive. When a boy he literally grubbed his way through college and won his way upward by hard and courageous work. As a public man he was as honest and clean as he was capable.

Speculation is rife as to who shall succeed Representative Tongue at Washington. A special election will be called by the governor to fill the vacancy and many are willing to be the elect. In one way the death of Mr. Tongue clears the senatorial situation slightly, but it also mixes the situation in general. Candidates for senator may drop out and enter the congressional race. They may form alliances offensive and defensive, with other senatorial candidates. In fact they may do lots of things. Some personages mentioned in this game are Geer, Hermann, Hewitt, Gatch and Ford. Now that such a popular man as Mr. Tongue is out of the way the democrats of the First District are reviving flickering hopes, and intend to make a hard fight for the vacant seat. For the next few weeks there will be enough politics in Oregon to suit most anybody.

The state legislature was organized the first of the week with Geo. C. Brownell of Oregon City, as president of the senate and L. T. Harris of Eugene as speaker of the house. This sounds easy but the above result was accomplished only after one of the stiffest fights which has taken place for years. However it seems not to have been a bitter one, and Dr. A. C. Smith and Representatives Eddy and Davey, candidates for speaker—have yielded gracefully. The Brownell-Harris victory is counted score one for Fulton in his race for the senatorship, though the Oregonian thinks the members are displaying unusual independence in their attitude. It is to be hoped that this view is correct. Our own representative, B. C. Miles, is faring better than he would were he not the only republican representative from Yamhill. As the republicans are in full control he is strictly "it" when Yamhill is to be recognized.

Class Oraticals.

Oratory is booming over at the college. The way the young people have been letting loose eloquence of late indicates that Pacific College is going to do something in the state contest this year. Since our last issue the class contests have been held, and the speakers chosen for the primary contest which comes off Feburary 13th. As will be seen below there was plenty of competition in each case, and we venture the assertion that no other institution in the state has so many active candidates, thirty-six, from which to select an orator. In fact the college contest gives promise of being as good as a state contest and it is being anticipated accordingly.

The Freshmen entered the contest nearly twenty strong, and their papers had been judged with an idea of selecting ten speakers. They contested as follows: May Hall, "Daniel Webster, the Orator;" Lillian Nicholson, "Masters of the Situation;" Walter Miles, "The Spirit of Nathan Hale;" Asa Morse, "James A. Garfield;" Verda Crozer, "The Spirit of the Swiss Hero;" Mable Newby, "The Mission of Jenny Lind:" Lewis Saunders, "Progress—What is it?" Russel Comer, "Arbitration;" Ralph Rees, "The Philippine Question;" Myrtle Gause, "David Livingstone." Judges, Rev. F. C. Stanard, Miss Alice A. Mendenhall and Mrs. J. T Smith. Decision, Walter Miles, first, Lewis Saunders, second and Myrtle Gause, third.

On Monday afternoon the Sophomores and Juniors held their try out, the speakers of the former being, Omer Moore, "Work—and the Winner;" Worth Coulson, "Abraham Lincoln;" Chas. Morris, "Chas Sumner;" Clem Niswonger, "The Black Art." The Junior orators were Chas. Clark, "Immigration;" Aubrey Karmien, "The Black Emancipator and the Emancipator of the Blacks;" Carl Nelson, "The Power of an Idea," Bertha Nicholson, "Louis Kossuth." Judges, on both contests, Rev. F. C. Stanard, Miss Mendenhall, Rev. Gould, Mrs. J. C. Hodson and W. C. Woodward. Decision, Sophomores, Omer Moore, first; Clem Niswonger, second. Juniors, Bertha Nicholson, first; Aubrey Kramien, second.

The Seniors contested Monday evening and displayed their talents by being the whole show, as is customary. A lively class day will be expected at their hands next June. Their program follows.

There was a ripple of excitement in this quiet little burg on Saturday last, caused by a school meeting, called to hear charges against the principal of the school, and take action thereon by the school board. The County School Superintendent was present to hear the charges. After hearing the charges made, and a prolonged discussion, the Superintendent and School Board decided that there was not sufficient evidence to sustain the charges against the principal, or cause his discharge as petitioned.—Dayton Herald.

Dislocated her Shoulder.

Mrs. Johanna Soderholm, of Fergus Falls, Minn., fell and dislocated her shoulder. She had a surgeon get it back in place as soon as possible, but it was quite sore and pained her very much. Her son mentioned that he had seen Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised for sprains and soreness, and she asked him to buy her a bottle of it, and he did. It enabled her to sleep which she had not done for several days. The son was so much pleased with the relief it gave his mother that he has since recommended it to many others. For sale by C. F.
