

THE NEWBERG GRAPHIC.

E. H. WOODWARD, EDITOR & PUBLISHER. W. C. WOODWARD, ASSOCIATE EDITOR.

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Newberg, Oregon.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1903.

Says the Albany Democrat: "There is one thing the coming state legislature should by all means do, and that is bring Salem's suburbs into the actual city limits and stop all this boasting about the suburbs being twice as large as the city itself."

The senatorial situation bids fair to develop into an old-fashioned Oregon deadlock. Fulton with thirty odd votes and Geer with a little under twenty, are the leading candidates, but the longer the election hangs fire the wider will become the breach between the followers of these two men, and the greater is the probability of a dark horse winning the stakes.

Some narrow little newspapers, more properly termed "organs," not being satisfied with a persistent and malicious persecution of Governor Geer throughout his administration, could not forbear taking a parting shot at him as he laid down the responsibilities of his office.

A Malheur county representative has introduced a bill in the legislature asking for a $100,000 appropriation for a high school at Burns, Harney county. What's the matter with the gentleman from Malheur? He is a statesman, he is, and his constituents should be proud of his foresight.

In Memoriam. In memory of comrade Charles S. Culver, a former member of Post No. 456 G. A. R., Department of Kansas.

We will meet with our comrade no more 'neath the blaze of the camp fire bright; For his time of enlistment has ended, We salute the old comrade—good night.

But still in our hearts we will cherish Thy value, as comrade and friend, While marching from station to station, Until our enlistment shall end.

All eyes to our Captain will turn; "Stack arms faithful soldiers," be orders "The war's over—the victory's won."

By the Chaplain of Bushkin Post No. 456, G. A. R., Department of Kansas.
