Tom Hester came up from Portland on business last Friday and remained over Sunday.
He took his first examination in the medical college last week and now has a vacation of several months.

Alfred Wheeler came up from Grants Pass Tuesday with a view of putting in a tinning and plumb-ing shop. After looking over the field carefully, he returned to Grants Pass where he has decided to locate.—Gold Hill News.

R. W. Kirk and wife drove up to McMinnville Saturday to attend the local teachers institute.
The next institute will be held in about a month at Newberg, and it is expected that state Superintendent J. H. Ackerman will be present.

"Aristo," which means "the best," is the trade mark of a photographic paper house which furnishes nearly all the paper used by first class photographers.
Its permanency is guaranteed.
The Douglas Studio is the only place in town which uses "Aristo."

John and Ira Carland and Ira Moomaw, who have been attending college here this year, left for Coos county last Friday morning. The Carl brothers will work in a cheese factory operated by an older brother, while young Moomaw will assist his brother in running a steamboat. All three are bright young men who will be missed at college.

At the republican primaries held Saturday, delegates were elected to the county convention, which takes place next Saturday, as follows: North Newberg —Clarence Butt, R. B. Linville, J. C. Hodson, J. H. Rees, John Mc-Cleery, H. R. Morris, J. D. Shearer, R. J. Cooper, C. H. Eggers, E. R.
Horton, W. C. Woodward, M. J.
Jones, M. O. Pickett, C. A. Hodson, VanLeavitt. South Newberg

Edwards, Wm. Stratton, A.
Hodgson, D. H. Turner, O. K.
Edwards.

The Kaak Development Company, lately organized here, is offered as follows: A. R. Mills, president; S. R. Moon, vice-president; S. A. Mills, secretary and treasurer; J. H. Smith, general manager. The first industry to be started by the company is a fish saltery, in the vicinity of Kaak, Alaska, and the Smith brothers, J. H. and Herman, left for Alaska this week to begin work on the new enterprise.
They will put up the necessary buildings, procure boat etc., and make all preparations for business. The company will depend largely upon the Indians to do its fishing.

Miss Anna Terrell went down to Portland Tuesday for a visit with her brother Cliff.

Prof. R. W. Kelsey expects his mother to arrive next week from Western Springs, Illinois, to make a visit.

L. M. Carey and A. P. Wallen have together purchased the Drew Hagey place in the Springbrook neighborhood.

Jo Bashaw a relative of Peter Bashaw, and a gentleman named Fleshour arrived Monday evening from Wisconsin.

On Thursday of each week Miss Flora Bell of Portland will have on sale at Ehret Bros' store, the latest styles in spring millinery.

Mrs. Joseph Hoberg of Mc-Minnville came down Tuesday morning to see her daughter Mrs. W. W. Nelson who has been sick.

Jas. Buckley and Will Bond left the first of the week for Eastern Oregon with a lot dairy cows which they will put on the market.

S. Hitchen and family who have spent a year or more in Oregon, left Monday morning for their old home in Minnesota.
Their departure was rather reluctant.

A good delegation of Newberg ladies went down to Portland Saturday and joined the army of shoppers which made a run on Lipman & Wolfe. Depend on a little fire to make hot sales for a Jew.

By an error in last week's Graphic the word "Aristo" was made to read "Artisto." The typo evidently was thinking of the artistic effect which Mr.
Douglas can produce by using "Aristo Platino" paper.

MARRIED—At the residence of the bride's father, M. Pitman, near Dewey, Sunday, March 29th, Miss Verta Pitman was married to Chas. S. Palmer, Rev. L. H.
Little, officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

A gentleman of the colored persuasion has been up from Portland several times of late buying chickens for the Portland markets, paying from twelve to thirteen cents per pound. The man who is inveigled into purchasing a "good fat hen" for Sunday dinner these days, reflects seriously of embarking in the poultry business.

W. H. Galland having sold his bakery and candy kitchen in the west end of town to a gentleman from Tillamook county, named Messinger, will soon move out to his ranch in the above mentioned county if in the meantime he does not make other arrangements concerning it. In either case Mr. and Mrs. Galland hope to make Newberg their home ultimately.

Delano Estle and family of Noblesville, Indiana, who were out here last year, arrived at Newberg again Saturday evening. Mr. Estle has evidently been doing some effective missionary work among the Hoosiers, for he brought back five young men with him, four of whom came on to Newberg. The names of those here are Dalton Chance, Clarence Jessup, Jay Pruitt and Walter Inman.

few days with rather a serious gathering in the ear, but is able to be out again.

Roy Heater left the first of the week for Forest Grove to begin work as trainer of the Pacific University track team.

Wm. Clemmens of Salem is down visiting his son Henry.
The new administration at Salem has left Mr. Clemmens minus his job at the state asylum and he is preparing to move to New-berg.

Rev. Martin Burlingame, a Methodist minister of Woodlawn, has located at Newberg with his wife, having purchased property near the depot. They have a son, Walter Burlingame, living in West Chehalis.

Herman Ellison, cousin of Mrs.
Clarence Butt, and lately from Illinois, who had been working for Mrs. Nancy Crawford, above Dayton, returned the latter part of last week, having received a severe cut in the foot which put him on the shelf for a time.

The machinery of the Star Furniture Factory arrived this week from Ft. Wayne, Indiana, the second order having been made as the first consignment was completely lost in transit.

Work will be begun at once on a modest scale, it being the intention of the company to branch out later. While this is not the big factory of which we heard so much for a while, the old saw about mighty oaks and little acorns must be kept in mind, with the hope that the industry will thrive and enlarge.

Five new instruments for the Newberg band arrive this week at a cost of three hundred dollars. They are C. G. Conn instruments, the best made, manufactured at Elkhart, Indiana, and consist of two cornets, to be played by F. C. Horton and Harry Gardner, two clarinets, for the use of Orland Heacock and Granville Everest, and a tuba bass to be at the service of Everett Heacock. The leader, F. C. Horton, says Newberg is going to have the best amateur band in the state before long. The boys intend to give another concert about May 1.
