lic School" and the latter on "A Lesson in Oregon History."

Isaac Follett died of La Grip late Thursday night of last week, at the home of his son H. E. Follett in West Chehalem. The funeral was held in the Friends church Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev.
Martin Cook who was a friend and neighbor of the deceased in Iowa years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Pinney of Spokane, Washington, arrived here the latter part of last week and visited over Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Clough and other relatives, Mrs. Pinney being formerly Miss Nellie Judd of this place.
Mr. Pinney is a mining engineer by occupation and they left the first of the week for California where Mr. Pinney has mining interests. They were accompan-

It takes but little riding across country these days to impress upon one the rapid spread of the rural mail delivery system. In a jaunt between Newberg and Forest Grove the other day the writer traversed the territory of at least four different mail routes.

Mrs. Bennett, wife of Dr. C. C.
Bennett left here on Wednesday for Los Angeles, California where she will spend about two months are residents of that city. The doctor went with her as far as Portland.

On last Monday evening a meeting of the citizens of Dundee was held for the purpose of organizing a telephone company, which proved unexpectedly interesting. The Bell people learned of the meeting and Mr.
Thatcher in Portland was telephoned from here to send a man out or run the risk of losing the Dundee business. The man was on hand. In the meantime the mutual people learned of the Bell company's plan to capture the meeting, and accordingly C.
J. Edwards and John Larkin drove up to present the advantages of the mutual telephone system, and to prevent a stampede to the old company. The representatives of the two companies "had it out" before the Dundee people and then retired, after which the question as to the choice between the two systems was put to vote. By a vote of 10 to 2 it was decided to organize under the home mutual system and operations will be begun at once with that end in view.
