friend named Shannon. Both young gentlemen are lately from Minnesota.

While playing with Master Roy Cooper Saturday afternoon, the second little daughter of H.
R. Satchwell received a wound in the head from a pointed stick, which necessitated some stitches by the doctor.

Dr. A. Mills, who has been holding down a claim during the winter at Fisher, south of Yaquina bay, has decided to return home and cultivate his orchard on the hill above Dundee. He will probably arrive home within the next week.

Alva Macy was down from Dayton Sunday attending an executive committee meeting of the Yamhill County Sunday School Association. With him came his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Macy, who visited with Henry Mills and wife.

While playing on the school ground Monday, little Walter Butler was run over and knocked down by some big boys, who were said to be encroaching on the little fellows' playground, and sustained some severe injuries. His shoulder was thrown out of place and his collar bone broken squarely in two.

Thos. Morris and son, Lewis, departed Tuesday morning for Spokane, Washington, where they will visit relatives, after which it is probable that they will return to Minnesota. The former has certainly found the Oregon climate to be sufficiently salubrious, as he is said to have put on some forty pounds of flesh since his arrival here two years ago, now tipping the scales at two hundred and sixty odd pounds.

Clarence Edwards and Seth Mills drove over to North Yamhill on Saturday and in the afternoon met with the citizens of that place to advise and consult with them relative to putting in a mutual telephone system. At the meeting there were also four or five representatives of the McMinnville home company, likewise the ubiquitous representative of the Bell people, to see what he could see. What he saw was evidently not very inspiring, for, contrary to custom, he withdrew without having offered any suggestions. The North Yamhill people seemed to take up with the home mutual plan enthusiastically, and appointed the necessary committees preparatory to organizing this week.

Word came to Mrs. L. M.
Parker the latter part of last week, telling of the death of her father, whom she so recently visited at his home in Indiana.

Perry H. Bradley, who is severely afflicted with throat trouble, left Monday morning for Williams, Arizona, to try the effect of the southern climate.
His friends sincerely hope for his recovery.

Asa Morse, of Lockport, Illinois, nephew of Prof. R. W. Kelsey, who has been attending college here for two years, discontinued his school work recently on account of poor health and left Monday morning for his Illinois home.

Mrs. Asa Kelsey, of Western Springs, Illinois, who has been making a visit of several weeks in Colorado, arrived here last Thursday and is visiting with her son, Prof. R. W. Kelsey, and wife. The latter met her on her arrival in Portland.

The rain god went on a vacation Easter Sunday, and we won't have to be looking forward to the proverbial "seven Sundays of moisture, especially those of us who are as firmly grounded in the tradition as the man who declared that he knew rain on Easter was a sure sign, as he had noticed it a hundred times.

Aubrey Kramien will represent Pacific College in the state prohibition oratorical contest which takes place at Dallas on May 1, and in which the most of the principal institutions of the state will participate. He was a close second to Miss Lucy Gause in the recent primary oratorical, and Newberg will be very ably represented.
Pacific College won the first state prohibition contest last year, and its supporters are confident that Kramien will make the ditto sign at Dallas next month.

On Friday afternoon Principal Kirk enlisted a band of thirty or forty of his school boys in some very practical civic improvement work. Under his direction they fairly buzzed around town, cleaning a vacant lot of debris here, leaving a bonfire there to consume old boards and rubbish left to lay around, and thus accomplished a good deal in a very short time, and likewise set a good example to those by whom the work should already have been done. Prof. Kirk has hit upon a valuable expedient for conserving the waste energy of the school boy.

Floyd and Russell Parker gave a boys' party at their home Monday evening for their friends, Ralph and Harry Coffin, who moved with their folks to Dayton Wednesday evening. About twenty were present.

A bonfire made of some of the unsightly piles of trash about some of the shops in town would add greatly to the appearance of things. Let the proprietors have a little celebration of their own and see how easy the transformation can be made.

The Misses Fanny Cobb, Daisy Thomas, Lulu Giles, Anna Craven and Herbert Coffin and Rev. H.
Gould attended the district Epworth League convention at Salem Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Miss Lena Stilwell of Webfoot, one of the teachers in the Newberg public school, was elected first vice-president of the league for the ensuing year.

Newberg loses the Coffin family this week. J. W. Coffin has gone to Eugene, near where he will serve as engineer in one of the Booth-Kelly sawmills. As Herbert has taken his old position in R. L. Harris' drug store at Dayton, the family move back there, where they own property.
They are reluctant to leave New-berg, and their friends are sorry to see them go.

A very pleasant event occurred at Crestvue, the country home of Mr. D. H. Turner, last Sunday afternoon, when Mr. Harry B.
Powell and Miss Lena L. Meyer were married by Rev. Geo. Greer in the presence of relatives and a very few friends. The house was most tastefully decorated with Oregon grape and ferns. After the ceremony a bountiful dinner was served. A large number of beautiful and useful presents were received from their many friends.
In the evening a number of young people from Dundee went out to call upon them. Mr. and Mrs. Powell will reside at Crest-vue.
