H. C. Barclay, who is now employed in the freight department of the O. R. & N. Company at Portland, was in Newberg over Sunday.

Five Minnesota men who are taking a trip through the west visited the first of the week with their old friend, L. M. Metcalf, and family.

Arthur Kirk, who has been spending the winter in Medford, arrived home on Thursday evening of last week. He found Southern Oregon beneficial to his health.

J. C. Kirk left Newberg Saturday morning. After a visit of a week or so with his son, Walter, in Spokane, Washington, he will return to Iowa, where he will make his home indefinitely.

The "Tennessee Troubadours," in the persons of four colored gentlemen, gave an entertainment in Crater's hall Monday night, which was pretty well attended by those partial to light entertainment.

C. J. Edwards and C. F. Moore went over to Champoeg Saturday and assisted in organizing another mutual telephone company. The line will connect with Newberg, and it is the intention to run it on down to Butteville.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and Jim Rees came in from Newport Saturday morning, where they have been mining on the beach. They found the gold in good quantity—the perplexing question arising as to whether they can find a sufficiently inexpensive method of extracting it from the sands.

J. R. Hunt, who has long been in poor health, died of consumption Monday evening at his home, north of town, Short funeral services, conducted by Rev. John Shires, were held at the house Tuesday afternoon, after which the remains were interred in the Newberg cemetery beside those of four daughters, victims of the same disease. The sympathy of the community goes out to the widow and only son who remain.

Mrs. Wm. Galloway of Oregon City will, on next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, address the ladies of Newberg in the college chapel in the interests of the Lewis and Clark Centennial. She is making a tour of the valley towns, organizing clubs among the ladies to further the success of the 1905 fair, and it is her purpose to effect an organization at this place. It is to be hoped that Mrs. Galloway will be greeted by a good audience Monday evening.

Now is the time to get your kodak and be learning how to work it. You will find a fine line at Moore's Pharmacy.

On Thursday of each week Miss Flora Bell of Portland will have on sale at Ehret Bros'. store, the latest styles in spring millinery.

Mrs. Trowbridge, who has been visiting for some time with her brother, Rev. H. Gould, left Monday morning for her home at Neligh, Nebraska.

The college Y. W. C. A. girls will serve a 25-cent dinner in the library Saturday, and thus accommodate visiting pedagogues and others who want a square meal.

N. F. Byers, who has been working for some time in the Portland lumber mills, is holding down the position of sawyer in the sawmill here, previously held by Webb Coffin.

Rev. Brouillette has been transferred to Crawfordsville, Linn county, by the Presbytery, and may accept the charge offered. He will go to Crawfordsville this week to look the field over.

L. W. Harger has sold his West Chehalem farm to W. A. Greer, a recent arrival from the middle west, for the sum of nine thousand dollars. Mr. Harger is said to be contemplating a trip back to Massachusetts to visit his aged mother. Later—It is reported that there is a hitch in the above-mentioned trade.

On Thursday of last week a promising son was born to Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Terrell of Portland. Cliff is in the government employ, and evidently having taken President Roosevelt's admonition seriously, is now prepared to grasp the hand of his chief next month with a conscience void of offense.

The local horse market has been active this week. Dr. Harry Littlefield purchased Lon Hadley's bay driving mare for $175 and sold the animal he has been driving to S. M. Calkins for $150. Smith & Durham have bought the well known white livery team of Grames Bros. for the low stipulation of $80. Andrew Pickett has sold his team of blacks to Howard Williams for $275.

Ornduff Bros., on Chehalem Mountain, lost a valuable ox recently, and as they could not determine the seat of the trouble, held a post mortem examination, which revealed a good sized piece of baling wire gouging into the very heart of the animal. As no baled hay had been fed since last fall, the wire had evidently been several months in working its way to the vitals of the beast.

A teachers' local institute will be held in Newberg on Saturday. President E. D. Ressler, of the Oregon State Normal, will be present and give two addresses. Addresses will also be given by Miss Alice A. Mendenhall and President McGrew, also short "shoppy" talks by different local teachers. "The Bible—God's Revelation to Man" will be the theme considered by Pastor Stanard at the Baptist church next Sunday morning. The subject for the evening is "Evidence That Silences Criticism:" Acts 4:14. Preaching at the hall in Chehalem Valley at 3 p. m. All are invited to these services.

J. L. Hoskins says the influx of settlers, and the many changes in property ownership resulting, makes a very busy place of the recorder's office. The business of last month amounted to more than that of any other month in the history of the office. By working at night, however, they manage to keep up with the work.

Luther Charles, who was the second available man for carrier on rural route No. 2, has received the appointment through the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ervin Scott. He has written from Gold Hill, where he and his brother, Woodard, are running the Gold Hill News, that he accepts and that he expects to be on hand in a few days.

The rivalry between the mutual telephone lines and the Bell company is becoming so strong that the latter is endeavoring to secure yearly contracts from its business patrons. This is to offset the inroads the mutual is making on their business..... Judge J. C. Moreland of Portland has accepted the invitation to deliver the address at the annual meeting of the Yamhill County Pioneer Association, to be held in this city on the first Wednesday in June.—Telephone-Register.
