

Lost Hair

"My hair came out by the hand, and the gray hairs began to creep in. I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor, and it stopped the hair from coming out and restored the color."—Mrs. M. D. Gray, No. Salem, Mass.

There's a pleasure in offering such a preparation as Ayer's Hair Vigor. It gives to all who use it such satisfaction. The hair becomes thicker, longer, softer, and more glossy. And you feel so secure in using such an old and reliable preparation.

NOTED CANADIAN MISSIONARY.

Retires After 54 Years Spent Among Indians of the Northwest.

After fifty-four years of constant and arduous labors Rev. Father Albert Lacombe, of the Oblate order, a noted Catholic missionary among the Indians, recently retired to a peaceful retreat on Pinch creek in the Rocky Mountains of the Canadian Northwest, there to await in meditation and prayer the end which sooner or later comes to all men. He is now 77 years old.

Father Lacombe is well known throughout Canada. The work he has accomplished in the line of civilization and civilization of the Canadian Northwest is enormous and has made his name a household one in many parts of the Dominion. He was born in the province of Quebec and in 1849, on his ordination to the priesthood, was sent to do missionary work in the Red River region. In 1880 he was sent as a missionary to the Saskatchewan and a little later became vicar general of the diocese of St. Albert. In 1895 he obtained, from the Ottawa government a perpetual grant of land, 15,000 square miles in extent, as a reservation for the halfbreeds and Indians of the Canadian Northwest. Father Lacombe often appears dressed as a chief of the Blackfoot Indians, among whom for many years he has lived and labored.

chair is kept in motion. Beneath the chair will be seen the apparatus for pumping and storing the air, consisting of two pairs of bellows and an expansion reservoir. At each motion of the chair the bellows are alternately expanded and contracted, drawing the air from the room and passing it into the storage chamber. From here two or more tubes lead to the spray nozzles attached to the ends of the adjustable rods clamped to the chair back. As the pressure on the storage chamber is continuous, the flow of air through the tubes will be maintained as long as there is any air in storage, and only a slight motion of the chair is necessary to pump the air as fast as it is exhausted.

THE MEN AND WOMEN

Who Enjoy the Choicest Products of the World's Commerce.

Knowledge of What is Best More Important Than Wealth Without It.

It must be apparent to every one that qualities of the highest order are necessary to enable the best of the products of modern commerce to attain permanently to universal acceptance. However loudly heralded, they may not hope for world-wide preeminence unless they meet with the general approval, not of individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting, enjoying and learning the real worth of the choicest products. Their commendation, consequently, becomes important to others, since to meet the requirements of the well informed of all countries the method of manufacture must be of the most perfect order and the combination the most excellent of its kind. The above is true not of food products only, but is especially applicable to medicinal agents and after nearly a quarter of a century of growth and general use of the excellent remedy, Syrup of Figs, is everywhere accepted, throughout the world, as the best of family-laxatives. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants known to act most beneficially on the system and presented in the form of a pleasant and refreshing liquid, but also to the method of manufacture of the California Fig Syrup Co., which ensures that uniformity and purity essential in a remedy intended for family use. Ask any physician who is well informed and he will answer at once that it is an excellent laxative. If at all eminent in his profession and has made a special study of laxatives and their effects upon the system he will tell you that it is the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after-effects. Every well-informed druggist of reputable standing knows that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative and is glad to sell it, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, because it gives general satisfaction, but one should remember that in order to get the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs it is necessary to buy the genuine, which is sold in original packages only; the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs and also the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.
