Aubrey Kramien got home Monday evening after attending the Y. M. C. A. conference at Gearhart Park. He reports a good convention and a pleasant time.

Mrs. Etta Pier, daughter of Mrs. Lottie Decker, was married at Salem Sunday to R. R. Robinson. They will make their home near Dundee on the groom's fruit ranch.

Mrs. A. T. Hill and children, of La Grande, came down the latter part of last week, preparatory to attending her brother Ore's wedding in Portland next Wednesday.

Bert Terry is taking a rest from close confinement in the barber shop, and has turned his chair over to a Portland barber for a time while he gets a little fresh ozone.

Dr. A. Mills and family leave the latter part of this week for their ranch out in Lincoln county, where they will make their home. Mrs. Mills intends to teach the school out there this fall.

Albany College won the inter-collegiate field meet at McMinnville, Friday, in a walk, while Newberg trailed in third with a few seconds and thirds won by Dwight Coulson in the hurdles, Worth Coulson in the mile and Owen Maris in the 50-yard dash. The attendance was small and little enthusiasm was manifested.

The Misses Ella Crawford, Lena Stilwell and Jessie Britt gave their lady friends a picnic Friday evening in the way of a hay wagon ride out to the Crawford home on the Yamhill river. Aside from the "coachman," Howard Williams, two other Gentiles interloped, and "leavened the whole lump." All report a glorious time.

The annual school meeting will be held Monday afternoon at the public school building at 2 o'clock, when a director and a clerk are to be elected. J. W. Forsyth is the director whose term expires. An encouraging amount of interest has been taken in school matters of late, and it is not expected that General Apathy will be present at the meeting Monday.

At the Friends church Sunday morning will take place the children's day exercises at 11 o'clock, the hour of the regular morning service. A feature of the program will be the boys' choir, which will lead the congregational singing in place of the regular choir. It will be "rose" day with the children. All are cordially invited to be present at the exercises and enjoy the children's service. The pastor, Miss Mendenhall, will give a short talk upon "The Blue Bell's Secret."

On Thursday of each week Miss Flora Bell of Portland will have on sale at Ehret Bros' store, the latest styles in spring millinery.

The pupils of Mrs. Walter Reed gave a music recital in Portland Monday afternoon, in which Miss Mabel Edwards took part.

H. E. Follet has greatly added to the appearance and comfort of his store building, occupied by Parker & Pool, by putting up a large, new canvas awning.

County School Superintendent of Polk county, C. L. Starr, and Miss Bergitta Nelson of McMinnville, visited in Newberg Sunday with Miss Mabel Edwards.

Prof. W. A. Ginn, a former resident of Willamette valley, but now of Iowa, has been visiting in town this week with his sister, Mrs. Agnes Ginn Gould, and family.

Roy Mershon of Troutdale, who was in school here last year, visited college friends in Newberg a few days ago. He hopes to enroll as a student again next year.

For a short trip of rest and recreation, John Dunstan left Tuesday morning for Hood River to join his wife and parents, who are picking Hood River strawberries.

Milton Hampton came up from Logan, Clackamas county, last week, and is looking after the interests of his Dundee place. He is preparing to enlarge his fruit dryer to take care of the big prune crop he has in prospect.

An interesting service was held at the Methodist church Sunday evening, when the mortgage on the church which has recently been paid off, was burned. Appropriate speeches were made by different members, relative to the history Methodism in Newberg, and the work of raising the debt.

A subscriber and property owner suggests that it would not be a bad idea for the council to adopt the same measure toward keeping the sidewalks in repair as that in vogue in a few other towns in the state. Where property owners are dilatory in keeping their walks in shape, the council has the work done and charges it to the delinquents.

Every indication says that the valley will be full of prunes this year, and accordingly the prune growers wear that self-satisfied expression which bespeaks peace with the world. The prune is the subject of many a joke by the funny paragrapher, but there is no joke about it in these parts. This much-abused fruit means business and prosperity for all of us, and we exclaim, "All hail to the Oregon prune! We're full of green prunes. We're glad of it, and we don't care who knows it."
