Company, after which he will take up his work as professor of mathematics in Pacific College.

A subscription, paper was circulated in Newberg the latter part of last week for the relief of the flood-stricken people of Morrow county, and the sum of one hundred dollars was raised. As most of the relief from over the state had been going to Heppner, the funds were sent to Lexington, where there were destitute in need.

Prof. C. E. Lewis, of Paonia, Colorado, who will be acting president of Pacific College next year, got here Friday night to attend the exercises of Commencement week and met a hearty welcome from former friends. He went on to Berkeley, California, the middle of this week, where he will take university work this summer.

flood.

A June Wedding.

At a little after six o'clock on Tuesday evening, at the Hollingsworth home, Miss Frances L.
Hollingsworth was married to Alfred C. Martin, President Edwin McGrew officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of a few relatives and friends, and took place in the bay windows of the parlor, the young couple standing under a large and tastefully arranged bridal bell. The date of the wedding had a special significance, it being the twenty fourth wedding anniversary of the bride's parents and the fifty-ninth anniversary of her grandparents' wedding.

After the congratulations, the company was ushered into the dining room where a sumptuous wedding supper was served, the ability to enjoy which was limited only by the capacity of the guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin are a worthy young couple in every way, who are deserving of all the happiness and prosperity through life which their friends wish them. They will be at home to their friends at their home on River street after July 1.
