The Wedding Bells Continue to Ring About Newberg.

WALLACE-LAWRENCE.

On Thursday evening, June 25th, occurred one of the prettiest weddings of the season, when Miss Nina Lawrence, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Lawrence, of Chehalis Center, was united in marriage with Mr. J. M. Wallace, of the company, McKenzie & Wallace, contractors of Portland. They were married in the presence of a large number of guests by Dr. E. P. Hill, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Portland, in their beautiful Sunnyside home, which is handsomely furnished, and was tastefully decorated for the occasion with choice cut flowers. The impressive ring ceremony was the one used. After congratulations light refreshments were served, and the evening was pleasantly passed with songs, recitations and games.

The bride looked handsome in a dainty gown of white lawn, tastefully trimmed with lace medallions, lace and insertion, and wore a wide satin sash. Her flowers were bride roses and maiden-hair fern. The bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Lawrence, wore a handsome gown of pale gray cassimere, with a lace yoke. The groom and best man, Mr. James Cormack, wore the conventional black.

The happy pair received many presents, including a $25 check, Morris chair, handsome landscape painting, many pieces of cut glass, fine china and silverware galore.

The guests departed at a late hour, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wallace a long life in which to enjoy their new home.

A GUEST:

ATKINSON-MULHERON.

At the home of the bride in Portland, at high noon, Miss Lizzie Mulheron was married to Samuel W. Atkinson, of this place, on Tuesday, June 30, in the presence of relatives. The couple came up on the train the same evening, and will be found by their friends at the A. M. Hoskins cottage on River street. Sammy attempted to keep his friends in the dark as to what was on hand, but his evident effort to appear indifferent, and the mellow smile which had been illuminating his face for several days, was prima facie evidence that there was something doing.

The bride, a sister of Mrs. H. C. Paulsen, is a lady of culture and refinement, and the groom is too well known as the junior member of the firm, Atkinson Bros., to need an introduction. May they "live happily ever after."

LAPP-BROUILLETTE.

The home of Rev. and Mrs. T. Brouillette was the scene of a very pretty wedding Wednesday evening when their daughter Sadie was united in marriage to Charles Lapp. At 8.30 the bridal party entered the parlor, where in the presence of about thirty relatives and friends the impressive ring ceremony was performed by the bride's father. Miss Cecilia Brouillette, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Wampole of Hubbard was best man. Little May Whitten, niece of the bride, acted as ring bearer. The bride was faintly attired in white with veil and orange blossoms. After congratulations, a sumptuous repast was served in the dining room and library. With the best wishes of their many friends, Mr. and Mrs. Lapp left the next morning to spend a few days in Portland.

The Chautauqua at Gladstone Park.

The Willamette Valley Chautauqua Association has issued its tenth annual program. From the very small beginning in the way of a session in 1894, the Chautauqua has grown until it covers a period of thirteen days and draws talent for its platform from all parts of the country. From an examination of the present program, it would seem from the rich array of talent there scheduled to appear, that the 1903 session bids fair to eclipse any of its predecessors. Notwithstanding the length of the Chautauqua for this year, hardly a day passes without the appearance of some star attraction.

Among the speakers of prominence will be found Senator Jonathan P. Dolliver, the big Iowa senator, who lectures on the first evening, July 14th, on the patriotic theme, "A Poor Man's Government and a Poor Boy's Country," and will be introduced by Senator John H. Mitchell. On the next afternoon Senator Dolliver delivers his second great lecture on "The Working Man of Nazareth."

The famous author, humorist, lecturer, Bob Burdette, and his hardly less attractive wife, Mrs. Clara B. Burdette, who will both appear on the program. Burdette will deliver his world-famous lecture, "The Rise and Fall of the Mustache," on the evening of July 16th; lecturing the second time on the next day, July 17th, in the afternoon, "Rainbow Chasers," and "Good Medicine" on the afternoon of July 22nd.

On Friday and Saturday, July 24th and 25th, the Chautauqua have Hon. Champ Clark, the great congressman from Missouri, as a stellar attraction. He is a splendid orator and has a national reputation as a wit and humorist.

The management is expecting a large number of campers this year, and certainly an aggregation of talent such as is represented tonight and will be liberally patronized.

Reduced Excursion Rates to the Seaside and Mountain Resorts for the Summer.

The Southern Pacific Company has placed on sale at very low rates round trip tickets to the various resorts along its lines, and also, in connection with the Corvallis and Eastern Railroad, to Detroit and the seaside at Yaquina Bay, latter tickets good for return until October 10th.

Three-day tickets to Yaquina Bay, good going Saturdays, returning Mondays, are on sale at greatly reduced rates from all points Eugene and north on both East and West Side lines, enabling people to spend Sunday at the seaside. Very low found trip rates are also made between Portland and same points on the Southern Pacific, good going Saturdays, returning Sunday or Monday, allowing Portland people to spend Sunday in the country and the out-of-town people to have the day in Portland.

Tickets from Portland to Yaquina Bay good for return via Albany and East Side, or Corvallis and West Side at option of passenger. Baggage checked through to Newport. A new feature at Newport this year will be an up-to-date kindergarten, in charge of an experienced Chicago teacher.

A beautifully illustrated booklet, describing the seaside resorts on Yaquina Bay, has been published by the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern railroads, and can be secured from any of their agents or by addressing W. B. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or Edwin Stone, Manager C. & E. R. R., Albany, Oregon.

POPULAR NORTH BEACH.

Excursion Steamer T. J. Potter Goes into Service June 27.

Those who are planning their vacation this year will be interested in knowing that the popular excursion steamer T. J. Potter—queen of river boats—goes into service June 27, and that she will leave Portland during the season, every day from Tuesday until Saturday inclusive. To see the beauties of the picturesque and mighty Columbia from the decks of the Potter is a treat never to be forgotten. For speed and grace nothing in river and lake service in the entire West equals this side wheeled beauty. Five hours from Portland and one from Astoria, through the famous fishing waters of the Columbia; past scores of salmon traps and nets and as many white-winged fish boats, lands the passengers at Illwaco, where close connection is made for beach points with trains of the Illwaco & Navigation Company, whose cars stand on the

Good Chains

Are hard to get. A mite of gold will make a brass chain look like, but it soon rubs off. A good filled chain that will wear well can't be bought for a dollar; but for $3.66, $3.58 and $4.50 you can get a good chain that can be depended upon for ten, fifteen and twenty years.

I sell only standard made chains, and you can feel assured that whatever you pay you can get nothing better elsewhere for the same money.

wharf awaiting the steamer. The beach is twenty-seven miles long two hundred yards wide at lowest tide; and so hard that carriage wheels scarcely leave a mark. It is an ideal place for driving, riding, wheeling or walking, and the surf bathing is unsurpassable. The excellent hotels and boarding houses provide good accommodations at prices ranging from one to three dollars per day.

The round trip rate from Portland to Astoria is $2.50; to Ocean Beach points $4.00, good until October 15th. On Saturdays, during July and August, round trip tickets are sold to beach points at $2.50, good for return leaving the beach the following Sunday evening.

The Oregon Railroad & Navigation Company has just issued a new summer book (free for the asking) which tells all about the delightful resorts of the valley of the Columbia river. This can be obtained from any agent of the O. P. & Co., or by writing A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent, Portland, Oregon.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea.

"About six years ago, for the first time in my life, I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," writes Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again; and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
