To a Good Book.

Come, friend, and sit with me;
We two are company
Who, in our calm retreat,
Need nothing from the street,
Nor opera, nor play, nor dance,
Nor club, nor dinner, to enhance
The pleasure that is to be
Each in the other's company.
You give me everything, while I
I give you nothing, and I sigh
Because—what do you say?
I love you, and no other pay.
You ask for your alluring cheer?
Is that enough? It is so easy, dear,
I love you that it seems to me
I give you nothing for your company.
—William J. Lampton, in the Reader.

According to the Los Angeles Herald: "Harbors are said to be the hobby of Binger Hermann, the new congressman from Oregon. That is a good hobby to harbor."

Newspapers are busily discussing the question as to whether women talk too much. We should say it depends altogether on the woman—speaking from experience more or less personal.

An exchange says: A new game called "Christianity" is being played in certain parts of the city. The girls get on one side and are Christians. The boys get on the other side and are the heathens. Then the heathens embrace Christianity.

Grover Cleveland is the father of a bouncing baby boy, and as a reward of merit gets his picture in all the city papers. But the public has seen Grover's picture before. If the twentieth century journals would be strictly enterprising, why didn't they present a picture of the baby?

"She flies with her own wings" are the significant words which appear in the state of Oregon emblem. The spirit of the Board of Trade meeting Monday evening, and the expressions there voiced, would indicate that the same motto would be a fitting one for the town of Newberg. A sturdy spirit of energy and independence is the best advertisement a town can have.

It's no wonder the Church of Rome was so solicitous of the welfare of the old man on the Tiber and anxious for his preservation, when one considers or sizes up his "probable successors" as reproduced in newspaper cuts. Any one of them would appear much better adapted to the work of a city ward healer of the second order than to the high calling of the Vicar of Christ on earth.

Pope Leo XIII, the venerable head of the great Catholic church, after having displayed remarkable vitality for one of his years, finally passed away Thursday afternoon at the age of ninety-three years. Besides having been a great and progressive religious leader, he has been a master hand at diplomacy with temporal rulers, and the aged pontiff goes to the tomb revered by the entire world, irrespective of religion or nationality.

A funeral at Grand Rapids last week was delayed at the church until a fight was ended between union and non-union drivers. The latter were in charge of the carriages, by a chance for which the mourners were not responsible, and were attacked by the others. The son of the woman whose funeral was being held was so outraged by the affair that he declares his purpose of suing the union and its officers. The Indianapolis, Ind., Journal remarks that at a time when labor unions need all the friends they can get, it looks as if a perverse fate led them to acts that can only create prejudice against them.

For Your Scrapbook.

The following poem was read by Rev. L. D. Barr before the Christian Endeavor Society of the Friends church a couple of Sundays ago, and is certainly worthy of a larger audience than heard it on that occasion. The poem is from the pen of Commissioner of Pensions Eugene F. Ware, whose nom de plume is Ironquill. Though a well seasoned politician, who frequented Rev. Barr's father's house in Kansas, it is said that it was his literary work that first caught the attention of President Roosevelt:

THE WASHERWOMAN'S SONG.

In a very humble cot,
In a rather quiet spot,
In the suds and in the soap,
Worked a woman full of hope;
Working, singing, all alone,
In a sort of undertone:
"With the Savior for a friend,
He will keep me to the end."

Sometimes happening along,
I had heard the semi-song,
And I often used to smile,
More in sympathy than glee;
But I never said a word
In regard to what I heard,
As she sang about her friend
Who would keep her to the end.

Not in sorrow nor in glee
Working all day long was she,
As her children, three or four,
Played around her on the floor;
But in monotones the song
She was humming all day long:
"With the Savior for a friend,
He will keep me to the end."

It's a song I do not sing,
For I scarce believe a thing
Of the stories that are told
Of the miracles of old:
But I know that her belief
Is the anodyne of grief,
And will always be a friend
Who will keep her to the end.

Just a trifle lonesome she,
Just as poor as poor can be;
But her spirits always rose,
Like the bubbles in the clothes,
And, though widowed and alone,
Cheered her with the monotone,
Of a Savior and a friend
Who would keep her to the end.

I have seen her rub and scrub,
On the washboard in the tub,
While the baby sopped in suds,
Rolled and tumbled in the suds,
Or was paddling in the pools,
With old scissors stuck in spoons;
She still humming of her friend
Who would keep her to the end.

Human hopes and human creeds
Have their root in human needs;
And I should not wish to strip
From that washerwoman's lip
Any song that she can sing,
Any hope that songs can bring;
For the woman has a friend
Who will keep her to the end.

Reduced Excursion Rates to the Seaside and Mountain Resorts for the Summer.

The Southern Pacific Company has placed on sale at very low rates round trip tickets to the various resorts along its lines, and also, in connection with the Corvallis and Eastern Railroad, to Detroit and the seaside at Yaquina Bay, latter tickets good for return until October 10th.

Three-day tickets to Yaquina Bay, good going Saturdays, returning Mondays, are on sale at greatly reduced rates from all points Eugene and north on both East and West Side lines, enabling people to spend Sunday at the seaside. Very low round trip rates are also made between Portland and same points on the Southern Pacific, good going Saturdays, returning Sunday or Monday, allowing Portland people to spend Sunday in the country and the out-of-town people to have the day in Portland.

Tickets from Portland to Yaquina Bay good for return via Albany and East Side, or Corvallis and West Side, at option of passenger. Baggage checked through to Newport. A new feature at Newport this year will be an up-to-date kindergarten, in charge of an experienced Chicago teacher.

A beautifully illustrated booklet, describing the seaside resorts on Yaquina Bay, has been published by the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern railroads, and can be secured from any of their agents or by addressing W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or Edwin Stone, Manager C. & E. R. R., Albany, Oregon.

PIANO BARGAINS.

If you have no piano, don't delay buying any longer.

No matter what your want is, we can supply it. We have everything from a second-hand square piano to the latest designs and finish in grands, concert grand, baby grand, upright and upright grand pianos, aeolian and aeolian orchestrelles, pianolas, church, parlor, pipe and folding organs, also electric pianos.

Special Bargains in Second-hand Instruments.

Pianos, organs and piano players. All of them thoroughly repaired and many as good as new. We have a very large number of them which we have taken in exchange for our three great leaders, the Weber piano of New York, the Chickering of Boston, and the equally famous and immensely popular piano, the Kimball of Chicago, besides others of our very fine makes. The accumulation of these instruments has become so great that we are more than glad to get them off our hands, and are accordingly offering them at popular prices. As little as $8 down and $4 a month will make many of these very excellent instruments yours. They are all good makes and infinitely better than the new instruments which are being sold as "bargains," but which always prove expensive in the end.

Write us for description and prices, or call in and make your selection. Either way, you will find your purchase perfectly safe and satisfactory. Every instrument sold by us has our written guarantee, and "money back should instrument fail to satisfy" our motto. Eilers Piano House, the largest, leading and lowest price piano concern on the coast. Large stores at Washington street, corner Park, Portland, Oregon. Also San Francisco and Sacramento, California, and Spokane, Washington.

Free to Evening Telegram Subscribers.

One-half dozen 8-ounce, gold-rimmed Lewis and Clark souvenir table tumblers will be furnished free to all subscribers (old or new) who pay the regular subscription price ($2.50) for the Evening Telegram six months in advance. Express charges on tumblers to out-of-town subscribers not prepaid.

The tumblers are large size, gold-rimmed, with pictures of Lewis and Clark building etched on the glass, and will be useful and ornamental on any table or sideboard. Sent to Eastern friends, these handsome souvenirs will be most acceptable gifts and do much to advertise the exposition. Leave subscriptions with the agent, at the post-office.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Price, 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at F. H. Caldwell & Co.'s drug store.

A Surgical Operation

Is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by F. S. Caldwell & Co.
