mal.

her house, recently purchased, and located just east of the armory hall building, re-painted and fixed up to look more homelike generally.

E. L. Evans and wife attended grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. in Portland this week, Eli being the delegate from the local lodge.
Mrs. W. E. Howard attended the Degree of Honor conclave in like capacity.

Mr. and B. C. Miles received a large company of friends at their pleasant home Friday evening in honor of Albert Tebbetts and wife, who have been visiting here for a few months. Mr. and Mrs. Tebbetts left Monday morning for their home at Pasadena, California.

Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Kelsey and the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. H. Binford, of Westland, Indiana, left last Friday for an outing at Newport. Herr Kelsey started out with one strenuous idea—that of a hunt in the mountains and the bringing down of a bear.

Rev. Levi D. Barr preached to large audiences in the Friends church Sunday, the theme of the morning discourse being "Elements of Greatness," with Moses as an example, and the subject of the evening being "Bad Bargains." Rev. Barr left Monday morning to resume his work at Los Angeles, leaving his wife and little daughter here to continue their visit.

Next Sunday will close the pastoral service here of Miss Alice A. Mendenhall, pastor of the Friends church, and on that day she will appear in the pulpit here for the last time. Nothing preventing, in the morning the sermon will be from the same text used one year ago, "And they shall call his name Immanuel, which is, being interpreted, God with us." In the evening, at 8 o'clock, she will speak from the subject, "At the parting of the way." During Miss Mendenhall's year here the church has had excellent teaching, under which it has been spiritually strengthened. If the "hearers of the Word" as she has preached it will also be doers of it accordingly, the results of her work will be far reaching. Miss Mendenhall expects to leave the first of the week for the East.

A. R. Moomaw is having a barn built on his lots in the west end of town, after the completion of which he will erect a neat cottage.

Claude Stater resumed his work in business college in Portland the first of the week, after having been out for some time on account of trouble with his eyes.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hutchinson left Tuesday morning for a visit with her sons. After seeing her son, the doctor, in Portland, she goes to Colorado Springs, thence to Des Moines, Iowa, and from there up into Canada. She will probably be gone three or four months.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Edwards entertained a company of young people at their home on Thursday evening of last week in honor of the Misses Lena and May Payne of Salem, who were here visiting. Aside from those mentioned, the guests of the evening were the Misses Ada Farquhar, Nerva Wright, May-bell Edwards and Carrie Turner, and Drs. H. A. Littlefield, George Larkin, L. B. Ferguson and Messrs. M. O. Pickett, A. C.
Seely and W. C. Woodward.

L. M. Parker, C. F. Moore, C.
D. Pool, E. H. Woodward and their families, also the families of M. McDonald and Ernest Hill, and Mrs. N. C. Maris and son Homer, Mrs. F. A. Elliott and the Misses Ella Macy, Margaret Ingles, Ione Hill and some others enjoyed an "onion" picnic under the oak trees at the college boarding hall Monday evening.
It is safe to say that some thirty-seven stoutly-scented breaths put all treacherous microbes out of business in Newberg for once.

A good story, and well authenticated, on one of Newberg's ben-edicts is wafted down from the county seat. The young man, naturally a little timorous as he entered the clerk's office to secure the necessary document, was thrown into ungovernable dismay when the deputy clerk, one of those disconcerting, sweet girl graduates, undertook to supply, from a legal standpoint, his long-felt want. The groom not only forgot the first name of his fair one and could give only the vague information that she was the daughter of Sd and So, but his own name, with which he has been more or less familiar for over a quarter of a century, is said to have left him so completely that it had to be supplied by an acquaintance in the court house. And his name isn't the most uncommon one that could be imagined, either.

When going home from the lawn party at Parker's Tuesday evening, J. H. Dailey stepped off the sidewalk into a ditch, badly wrenching one knee. Evidently the drinks which the young ladies served were too much for one of his strong "prohibitory" tendencies.

The civic improvement committee of the Lewis and Clark Club has had a number of commodious boxes made and neatly painted, which are to be placed about town to take the place of the streets and sidewalks as receptacles of waste paper. A progressive move.

Hervey and Cecil Hoskins were down visiting from McMinnville the latter part of last week.
Hervey says the 1905 fair is evidently well advertised in the Mississippi valley, and that if half the people come out there who are now planning a trip to Oregon in that year, the state will be fairly overrun. That's what we want. Let 'em come.

The young ladies of the Friends church gave a most enjoyable lawn party and open air musical Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker.
Light refreshments were served in an enchanted bower on the lawn, and the informal affair was enjoyed by all. A free will offering of nearly fifteen dollars was tendered the young ladies.

WATCH REPAIRING.

If you have a fine watch, be very careful to whom you give it to be repaired. Often there's nothing much the matter. Maybe the hair spring is caught; a touch may relieve it.
If cleaning is necessary, the work is carefully done. Not infrequently rust has to be removed—as hard to see how rust comes to the protected works as to see how dust gets in; yet both do, especially dust. Can't tell all the ways a watch gets ailing. If yours don't run well, something is wrong. All machinery requires attention at times.
Bring it in for examination.
Charges are reasonable. We have correct time ticking here.
Make use of it, or we will regulate your watch, free of charge.
