Mrs. Nathan White is attending Chautauqua at Gladstone Park.

Tone up your system by taking Moore's Sarsaparilla, the best spring tonic. Try it.

Several Newbergers took in the Sunday steamboat excursion to Oregon City.

Mrs. G. E. Metcalf left Wednesday to join her husband at Walla Walla, Washington.

If you want a cool milk shake, soda water or lemonade—we serve them. J. M. Rittenhouse.

Mrs. M. Terrell went down to Portland Wednesday to see her son, L. W. Charles, of Gold Hill, who was in the city.

Harry Gardner gave up his job of driving the delivery wagon Saturday evening and has been working in D. C. Fletcher's blacksmith shop.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Votaw arrived home Tuesday from their visit at Tacoma, Washington. Their granddaughter, Miss Myrtle Votaw, returned with them and is visiting here.

Notwithstanding the amount of good hay in the neighborhood, would-be purchasers report a hard time securing any. The demand seems to be growing with the supply.

The Newberg Woodmen covered themselves with glory last week by winning the honors and the seventy-five dollar purse in the competitive drill at the big Woodman carnival in Portland.

D. H. Turner is going to have erected at once a residence on lots recently purchased just east of the Pool house, which the Turner family is now occupying. T. B. Cummings has the contract.

Mrs. Henry Adolf, of the German settlement east of town, who has been suffering from gangrene, suffered the amputation of a limb just below the knee the first of the week. Her recovery is considered doubtful.

Mrs. Irene Everest has purchased the old Evangelical church building, which will be moved to the corner of First and Main streets and fixed up for a storeroom, to be occupied by Patterson & Jones. The building now occupied has been moved onto the lot east of the corner, next to Cooper's meat shop.

Dr. H. A. Littlefield, assisted by Dr. Clough, performed a nice operation Monday upon B. F. Halliday of Springbrook, who lately came down from North Yakima, Washington. Something like a year ago a tree fell upon him, striking him upon the head and pressing in a portion of the skull, which was placed in position again Monday.

Beehives, beehives, at the Newberg Sash and Door Factory.

The Baptist church is receiving attention from the paint brush.

We handle Little's Sheep Dip. F. H. Caldwell & Co., Prescription Druggists.

Mrs. R. W. Kirk has been seriously ill the past week, but is somewhat improved.

Miss Eleanor Satchwell has purchased a latest improved Densmore type writer.

Seth Mills and Axum Newby, with their families, started out for the coast the middle of the week.

Say, did you try Moore's corn cure? It does the work. Now is the time to transplant your corns.

Dr. Walker of Portland came up the first of the week and is assisting Dr. Geo. Larkin in the dental office.

Members of the Circle are requested to meet at Crater's hall this (Friday) evening at 8:30 for the banquet.

Miss Cora Dunham has gone to Grants Pass to spend part of her vacation visiting with her grandmother.

Newberg Grange will hold an ice cream social on the lawn near the band stand Saturday evening next. All cordially invited.

The summer weather which we have had up to date makes an inning at the home fireside about as desirable as an outing at the beach.

A gentleman named Ullery, recently from South Bend, Indiana, has rented the Boothby property on North Meridian street and is looking about for a permanent location.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker and Floyd and Russell, Mrs. Jesse Edwards, Miss Ella Macy and Miss Margaret Inglis left Thursday morning for their summer outing at Newport.

A suit for one hundred dollars, brought by G. T. Hardwick against John Jones of Dayton for commission on sale of the latter's store, was compromised this week at fifty-five dollars.

WANTED—Two good milch cows for the keeping until April 1, 1904; best of care taken of them. Will also take horse and buggy for the use of same; light driving, best of pasture. Enquire at this office.

The amount of building now going on, together with that in view here, gives plenty of evidence that Newberg is a thriving, growing town, with a bright future in view. We are going to the front.

The committee appointed by the Board of Trade Monday evening, reports Mr. Edwards to be very reasonable in letting right of way for the desired switch, and that negotiations are proceeding smoothly.

Annual Reunion and Picnic.

The annual reunion, known to those who are fortunate enough to participate as Mrs. Crosby's picnic, was held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Greer, on the red hills, about two miles west of Dundee. By half-past ten the guests began to arrive, and by eleven all had been there long enough to exchange greetings, unload lunches, get the dust brushed from their shoulders and be seated in the yard under the gigantic maple tree planted by Mrs. Greer's mother almost half a century ago. A religious service followed, consisting of singing of hymns, reading of scripture, prayer and a short sermon by Mr. Greer. The very simplicity of the service made it the more impressive. Then followed the outdoor lunch, which was, after all, the picnic. The afternoon was spent by the young people in strolling along Otter brook and through the woods "getting near to Nature's heart," while the older people visited.

Those present were: Messrs. Geo. Greer, R. C. Crosby, Fred Crawford, John Crawford, D. H. Turner and families; Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Powell, Mr. and Mrs. Peters, Dr. and Mrs. Watson, of Portland; Mrs. Rowley and daughters, of Lewiston, Idaho; Mrs. Sanders; Misses Miller, Sears, Benham, Caldwell, Lillie Spencer; Messrs. John and Geo. Larkin, A. C. Seeley, W. S. Parker and Will Meyer.

Please Make Settlement.

Having sold my grocery, I earnestly request all those owing me on account to call and settle.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Cal., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from rheumatism and nothing relieved me, though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters, and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for liver and kidney tsoubles and general debility, Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co., druggists.

Cholera Infantum.

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. All that is necessary is to give Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and castor oil, as directed with each bottle, and a cure is certain. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

The Rule of Gossip.

"Of course, we needn't believe everything we hear about our friends."

"True. But, thank heaven, we can repeat it!"—Life.

Catarrh of the Stomach.

When the stomach is overloaded, when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves and causes the glands to secrete mucin, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach. For years I suffered with catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhea, Coppell, Tex. Sold by F. S. Caldwell & Co.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
