FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1903.

If Seattle knows it, Portland will not attain any undue notoriety, even from her merry carnival of hold-ups. No sooner has attention been attracted to criminal conditions in our metropolis, than reports from the Windy City loom up in a way that indicates that there is also something doing up that way. A good brand of Seattle enterprise.

The periodical man-shot-for-a-deer story comes in, from Curry county this time, with the usual embellishments. This story is rivalling in frequency the sad didn't-know-it-was-loaded affairs. Accessions to angel ranks from such untoward and useless accidents are being made with such regularity that an addition to the penal code would appear not to be altogether out of order.

"Don't attempt to ask the editor to write up or rebuke every evil in the town or community," says an exchange. "But when once convinced that such duties need attending to, write an article for your paper and sign your name for publication. The man who is too big a coward to thus express an opinion is the man who will stand on the street corner and talk about the cowardice of the editor."

A dog hitched to a lawn mower stopped pulling to bark at a passer-by. The boy who was guiding the mower said: "Don't mind the dog; he is just barking for an excuse to rest. It is easier to bark than pull the machine." It is easier to be critical than correct, easier to bark than work, easier to burn a house than to build one, easier to hinder than to be helpful, easier to destroy a reputation than to construct a character. Fault-finding is as dangerous as it is easy. Anybody can grumble, criticise or censure.—Ex.

Morgan Versus Roosevelt.

The most interesting fact in American politics just now in the dead set that Pierpont Morgan is making against President Roosevelt. When the Harper publishing house failed, Morgan put a million into it and made George Harvey secretary. Harvey is the editor of Harpers Weekly. And each number of the Weekly contains most caustic, but usually unfair and ineffective criticism of the president. Roosevelt's nomination in 1904 is conceded, but Morgan's Weekly seems to cling to the hope that the democrats will nominate a man who can beat him. The choice of Morgan's Weekly is Grover Cleveland, whom it characterizes as "safe," or a man of the Cleveland stamp. All that was needed to insure Roosevelt's election was the hot opposition of Wall Street. The gods certainly are good to Teddy. One National reader—a democrat—wants to know why I like Roosevelt so well. I never saw the man. I never "shook the hand that shook the hand," as we used to say of John L. But I have seen Theodore Roosevelt make good three times out of three since he entered the White House: First, when most of the bigwigs North and South were amicably agreeing that the negro had failed as a citizen and should hereafter be submerged, I saw Roosevelt take Booker Washington to his table and declare his purpose to treat the decent, educated black citizen as a man, strictly on his personal merits; second, I saw him tackle the lawless Northern Pacific merger gang without asking their leave; third, I saw him pound sand into the mule brained coal operators and get the coal strike settled. I like Roosevelt because he has brains and a backbone.—From the "Note and Comment," by Frank Putnam, in August National Magazine.

La Fayette Items.

Mrs. Ada Burt and Mary have gone on a visit to relatives at Scappoose.

Mrs. Edwards of Sherwood has bought the Mrs. Travilla place on Piety Hill.

Wesley Tustin and wife of Oregon City are visiting at W. W. Keffer's in this city.

Improvements at Fair Grounds.

The State Board of Agriculture are making a number of needed improvements at the state fair grounds this year. A new water system costing $5000 is being put in which will add much comfort to the exhibitors and campers. More new stalls are being built to better accommodate the large number of exhibitors that are preparing to come to the fair. A large amphitheater is being built, where visitors can be seated and witness the live stock judging under cover. Many minor improvements are being made on the grounds, and everything is being done to make a visit to the fair a pleasant event and a joy forever.

Reduced Excursion Rates to the Seaside and Mountain Resorts for the Summer.

The Southern Pacific Company has placed on sale at very low rates round trip tickets to the various resorts along its lines, and also, in connection with the Corvallis and Eastern Railroad, to Detroit and the seaside at Yaquina Bay, latter tickets good for return until October 10th.

Three-day tickets to Yaquina Bay, good going Saturdays, returning Mondays, are on sale at greatly reduced rates from all points Eugene and north on both East and West Side lines, enabling people to spend Sunday at the seaside. Very low round trip rates are also made between Portland and same points on the Southern Pacific, good going Saturdays, returning Sunday or Monday, allowing Portland people to spend Sunday in the country and the out-of-town people to have the day in Portland.

Tickets from Portland to Yaquina Bay good for return via Albany and East Side, or Corvallis and West Side, at option of passenger. Baggage checked through to Newport. A new feature at Newport this year will be an up-to-date kindergarten, in charge of an experienced Chicago teacher.

A beautifully illustrated booklet, describing the seaside resorts on Yaquina Bay, has been published by the Southern Pacific and Corvallis & Eastern railroads, and can be secured from any of their agents or by addressing W. E. Coman, G. P. A., S. P. Co., Portland, or Edwin Stone, Manager C. & E. R. R., Albany, Oregon.

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure coughs, colds, la grippe, bronchitis and all throat and lung trouble. Price, 50c and $1. Trial bottles free at F. H. Caldwell & Co. drug store.

Free to Evening Telegram Subscribers.

One-half dozen 8-ounce, gold-rimmed Lewis and Clark souvenir table tumblers will be furnished free to all subscribers (old or new) who pay the regular subscription price ($2.50) for the Evening Telegram six months in advance. Express charges on tumblers to out-of-town subscribers not prepaid.

The tumblers are large size, gold-rimmed, with pictures of Lewis and Clark building etched on the glass, and will be useful and ornamental on any table or sideboard. Sent to Eastern friends, these handsome souvenirs will be most acceptable gifts and do much to advertise the exposition. Leave subscriptions with the agent, at the post-office.

A Surgical Operation

Is always dangerous—do not submit to the surgeon's knife until you have tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It will cure when everything else fails—it has done this in thousands of cases. Here is one of them: I suffered from bleeding and protruding piles for twenty years. Was treated by different specialists and used many remedies, but obtained no relief until I used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes of this salve cured me eighteen months ago and I have not had a touch of the piles since.—H. A. Tisdale, Summerton, S. C. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles no remedy equals DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Sold by F. S. Caldwell & Co.
