Machine-made bread at Rittenhouse's.

A reunion of the Graham clan took place at the Newberg hotel the latter part of last week.

All kinds of candies and good things too numerous to mention. Call and see them. J. M. Rittenhouse.

The Misses Lottie and Florence Collwell of Portland are making a two weeks' visit with Mrs. M. H. Bowerman.

Handsome moquette rugs given away with cash purchases at Parker & Pool's. Call and get a purchase ticket and see samples.

Go to T. B. Cummings & Co. for paints, oils, wall paper and window shades. A full line of undertaking goods kept in stock.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rittenhouse left Monday evening to make a visit with Will Thomas and family out in Tillamook county.

Mrs. N. C. Maris and son Homer, who have been visiting here for several weeks, left Saturday to join the men folks of the family at Hot Lake.

Miss Elizabeth Trueblood of Portland is on a vacation from her work in the office of the Marshall, Wells Hardware Company, and is spending the week in Newberg visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Clara Trotter of Grand Haven, Michigan, and Mrs. A. E. Wheeler and daughter, of Tillamook, are spending part of the summer with R. L. Goughnour and family and other friends east of town.

Until further notice, the W. C. T. U. will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. G. W. Cutts. The regular meeting will be held next Wednesday, August 12th, at 2:30 p. m. All members are urged to be present. Visitors are welcome.

On Saturday evening, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Al Versteeg, Miss Mary Cook was married to George Nichols, Elder Geo. C. Carl officiating. The ceremony was performed in the presence of relatives and a few friends. The couple left the first of the week for the groom's home at Frances, Washington.

Somebody broke into the Chehalem Valley Mills building last Thursday night and secured eighteen dollars and a half from the cash drawer. A sack of flour was tossed out at the window and burst on striking the ground, but no more flour was missed. Entrance was effected by prying the staple off the rear door. The theft was evidently committed by some local pilferer, well acquainted with the surroundings.

On Thursday evening of last week a crowd of young people went on a hay wagon party up to the La Fayette locks, ate a sumptuous picnic supper on the bluff overlooking the falls and rode home by the light of the moon. The ladies were comely to look upon in their sun bonnets and aprons, while the gentlemen were anything else, arrayed in a haphazard manner that would have made the "raggedy man" ashamed of himself. Those making up the party were the Misses Myrtle Votaw, May Lamb, Ione Hill, Sibyl Woodward, Olive Stratton, Pearl Cummings, Nerva Wright, Jessie Britt, Cora Comer, Stella Smith, Mrs. F. A. Elliott, Prof. and Mrs. Kelsey and Messrs. Pickett, Parker, Ferguson, Inman, Hodson, Walker, Sykes, Seeley and Woodward.

Cucumbers for pickling. Home phone. Enos Ellis. 37-2t

Curt Parker and sister Nora joined their parents at Newport the first of the week.

Rev. Daniel Drew of Portland will occupy the pulpit in the Friends church Sunday.

Door and window screens in stock or made to order at the Newberg Sash and Door Factory.

Oscar Durham returned home the latter part of last week from a trip to North Yakima, Washington.

Call and examine our new stock of artists' materials. F. H. Caldwell & Co., Prescription Druggists.

The Misses Hadley and Snell of Dayton were guests of Miss Bella Newhouse at Chehalem Center last week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morris, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Powell of Portland, left Tuesday evening on an outing at Newport.

Dalton Chance of Westfield, Indiana, who has spent several months in this vicinity, left the first of the week for his home by way of Seattle.

Heacock & Heacock have moved their jewelry business into their new store room, built to order, and which is a model of neatness and convenience.

The Bank of Newberg management is preparing to lay new cement curb and walks around the bank building. The building will also be cemented and painted.

Tom Snodgrass, who has been spending several months up in the Alberta country, arrived home Thursday evening. He liked what he saw and hopes eventually to change location.

Volney B. Cushing, a prohibition speaker from Maine, spoke before a fair audience in Crater's hall Monday evening. Mr. Cushing is a good speaker and conservative in his statements.

M. J. Jones left with his family last week for Boise, Idaho, near where he will be occupied as he was last season, carpentering for the Allen Evaporating Company. If the climate there proves beneficial to Mrs. Jones' health, they will probably remain indefinitely.

For the present, and until further arrangements can be made, J. W. Forsyth will take the place of Eli Seese as manager of the lumber business of the Spaulding Logging Company at McMinnville. The saw mill here has shut down for a few weeks on account of lack of timber.

The members of Prof. Kelsey's male quartet are expected to arrive here the latter part of this week and begin work at once towards getting in readiness for public appearance. Prof. Kelsey expects to start out on the road with them about the first of September, though he contemplates giving an entertainment at Newport about the middle of this month while the summer school is in session.

Joseph Half handed us a "sample copy" of a magnificent new plum Tuesday which is known as Burbank's Climax. James Lewelling sent to California for the scions, and Mr. Half says that so far as he knows, his crop of about fifteen prunes, is the first fruit borne from them. The plum is early in ripening, is very large, is a rich red in color and presents much the appearance of a ruddy June apple.

Miss Jessie Britt has been secured to have charge of the department of physical culture in Pacific College for another year. The management is fortunate in retaining her.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. H. Binford, parents of Mrs. R. W. Kelsey, left Tuesday for their home at Westland, Indiana, after having visited here for several weeks. Prof. and Mrs. Kelsey accompanied them to Portland.

The Misses Miller and Sears entertained a company of friends at their home, Wildwood farm, Monday evening, in honor of the Misses Deneman of Corvallis. Aside from those above mentioned, those present were the Misses Pauline Benham, Mabel Edwards, Carrie Turner, and Drs. Littlefield, Larkin, O'Connor and Messrs. Seeley, Ferguson and Parker.

No longer need any Newberger hang his head for shame when abroad. We can now look the world squarely in the face and say, Newberg has an automobile. Yes, two of them, with a third in transit and a prospect of one or two more. We may have been a little slow in getting them, but we wanted to be sure we were right before going straight ahead, and now we boast of more automobiles than any town in the state twice our size. Drs. Littlefield and Larkin are the possessors of the new machines, which were driven up from Portland Tuesday. R. C. Crosby has also made a purchase, which is due any day. The doctors began taking lessons at once in handling their machines, and by evening were chug-chugging around town in a way which spread consternation among staid and conservative driving animals. It will now be in order for Newbergers to learn how to pronounce the word "chaffeur."
