A. M. Bray came up from Portland Monday evening to do some work on his fruit dryer and get in readiness for the prune harvest.

Wm. Clemmens has set a swift pace for other property owners by laying a cement walk in front of his lots. He should be elected an honorary member of the village improvement club.

When at work applying the paint brush on his woodshed last Thursday, Joseph Wilson came heavily to the ground with a falling ladder, the latter falling on his left foot and ankle and causing a wound which has proved severe.

W. C. Kruger and family arrived home Monday from their overland trip to the extreme part of Southern Oregon, having been gone about two months.
They found most of the Southern part of the state too dry and rough for a pleasurable outing trip.

C. C. Wilson, representing the harvest edition of the Daily Oregon Statesman of Salem was in town the latter part of last week. Newberg will be represented by a half page in the special edition which will be given wide circulation in the East by the Harriman lines.

President and Mrs. Edwin Mc-Grew attended Friends quarterly meeting in Portland Saturday and Sunday and left there the first of the week for the East.
After visiting relatives in Iowa, the President will go on East and after becoming suitably located, will send for his family.

The unusual sight of the waters of Chehalem creek creeping up toward the brick factory last Friday afternoon caused much concern for a while.
Investigation proved that three pairs of feminine feet all wading in the creek at one time caused the sudden displacement of the water.

It was a very pleasant event—the public reception given to President and Mrs. Edwin Mc-Grew on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Miles, last Thursday evening. The lawn was well lighted by electricity, aided by a few Chinese lanterns hanging from stately oaks, and the evening was enlivened by the music discoursed by the band.
The guests were regaled with iced tea and wafers. At the close of the evening J. C. Hodson spoke a few words of farewell to Pres. and Mrs. McGrew to which both made fitting response.

Now is the time to get your kodak and be learning how to work it. You will find a fine line at Moore's Pharmacy.

M. F. Messinger, having very quickly made his stake in the west end bakery, has sold out to Jim Conlee and moved his family back to Laurel.

E. C. Clement, inspector of rural mail delivery, has been here this week inspecting the routes going out from Newberg relative to some proposed changes.

J. L. Hoskins and son Cecil drove down from McMinnville Tuesday evening to see Miss Mary Bernice Jones and parents, just returned from their California trip.

C. F. Moore has moved his house to his new building site, just west of its former location, and has the foundation in for a very substantial addition which is to be erected at once.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hanson went down to Portland Saturday, attended Friends quarterly meeting and visited relatives for a few days. Lewis says the Sunday ball game was out of sight.

Jasper Smith of Tillamook county, father of Mrs. J. C. Porter, has purchased the one-hundred and sixty-six acre West Chehalem farm belonging to C.
F. Jensen, and will move to it in the near future. H. R. Morris made the sale.

Among those from Newberg attending Friends quarterly meeting in Portland over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Seth Mills, Mr. and Mrs. John Hodson, J. C. Hodson and family, James Vestal and wife, Mrs. J.
K. Blair, Mrs. Jonathan Votaw and Mrs. Milton Newlin.

E. L. Evans has purchased the Roy Gardner blacksmith shop west of the postoffice and has assumed active control of the same. The firm, Nash & Prather, which had the shop rented, has been dissolved, Mr.
Prather remaining in the employ of the new proprietor.

Prof. F. K. Jones and family returned from California by water for variety, and got a good brand of the desired article.
The passage was said to be the roughest of the season, the steamer getting in twenty-four hours late, and Prof. says it took all the poetry out of being "rocked in the cradle of the deep."

age property for a home.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Parker and son, Curt, got home from their Newport outing this week, Lin declaring that he felt almost as well as he did when he left here. Nora remained for a longer stay, with Miss Eila Macy.

From a commercial standpoint the La Fayette locks have not proven a success, but the premises are kept up in such shape that Yamhill county can boast of a miniature national park.
Of course as a pleasure resort it has cost a good deal, but who cares for expenses? Uncle Sam is liberal with funds for such apparently useless enterprises, and 'tis well and proper that Old Yamhill should profit thereby.

A very pleasant social affair took place Saturday evening at the splendid home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Crosby out at Dundee, Miss Pauline Benham being the hostess. The fine moonlight evening made the spacious verandas especially attractive, while the high order of musical talent present made the evening all that could be desired. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Schwab of Portland, Mrs. E. Rowley and daughters, Lois and Dawn, of Lewiston, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Crawford, J. M.
Crawford, the Misses Danneman of Corvallis, the Misses Jennie Miller, Jennie Sears, Jennie, Ella and Gussie Crawford, Mabel Edwards, Carrie Turner and Messrs.
Seeley, Ferguson, Larkin, Parker, Walker, Froling and Woodward.

livery. A. N. PRESSNALL, Prop.

Have You Old Jewelry?

Look in those safe "places" in which you have placed some trinkets that have been almost forgotten. Bring them to me and have them cleaned and made over. Nearly every one has some. One suggestion: The bottom of the old earring makes pretty pins.
Look up your old jewelry and you will think of lots of new things that you can have for a small sum.
