VOL. XV.

NEWBERG, YAMHILL COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1903.

NO. 40.

Local Events.

Mrs. J. T. Osborn and daughter, Miss Bertha Cox, are spending a few days out at Newport.

Say, did you try Moore's corn cure? It does the work. Now is the time to transplant your corns.

Miss Dorothea Pike returned home Tuesday evening from a two weeks' visit at Vancouver, Washington.

Mrs. W. A. Campbell, formerly of Springfield, Illinois, has rented the Newberg hotel and took possession of the same the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Kirk, daughter Elizabeth and Bernice Woodward, J. C. Hodson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Seth Mills, Henry and Alpheus Mills, Mrs. Elizabeth Miles, and W. V. Culver and two sisters drove over to Scotts Mills and attended Friends quarterly meeting Saturday and Sunday. The Culvers remained for a week.

From the way in which the white paint is going on the houses about here, Newberg will soon present the cheery, inviting appearance of a clean and prosperous little city nestling on the banks of "Beautiful Willamette," surrounded by verdant, fir-clad hills. Dr. H. B. Clough is repainting his residence white, J. C. Nelson and E. R. Horton are announced to follow suit, while Crater's hall, located in the same quarter, has already been done in white. Others are doing likewise. Let the cheery mantle of the white fall upon and beautify our town.

After giving the machines a two weeks' trial, Drs. Littlefield and Larkin sent their automobiles back to Portland on Tuesday, to "revert to the original owners." They found that on the dusty and comparatively rough roads of this section the machines were not practicable. All the rest of us who were expecting soon to be rolling around in automobiles will profit by the experience which the doctors have paid for, and in the meantime we will all be found zealously contending for better highways.

At the sightly home of Will Parrett, on Parrett Mountain, there was held Sunday a family reunion and picnic, which is said to have been the cap sheaf of all such occasions since picnics have been held in this neck of the woods. From the lofty place of rendezvous the eye was greeted with a vision of grandeur which beggars all description—undulating valleys and towering forests, guarded by Cascades' snow-capped sentinels. Guests, seventy-five in number, began to arrive at 10 o'clock, and were greeted with sweet strains of music by the Union cornet band. The picnic dinner was one that doubtless made the shades of the old Epicureans sigh that they were not still in the flesh and able to partake of the bounties laid out on groaning tables. After dinner music was furnished by the Parrett orchestra, the bass viol used having been made by a member of the family one hundred and fifty years ago. A watermelon feast closed the gastronomic pleasures of the day.

For Your Scrapbook.

The following selections are representative of Eugene Field's poems in dialect.

OUR TWO OPINIONS

'Us two wuz boys when we fell out—
Nigh to the age uv my youngest now;
Don't rec'lect what 't wuz about,
Some small doef'rance, I'll allow.
Lived next neighbors twenty years,
A-hatin' each other, me 'nd Jim—
He havin' his opinyin uv me,
'Nd I havin' my opinyin uv him.

Grow up together 'nd wouldn't speak,
Courtin' sisters, 'nd marr'd 'em, too;
'Tended same meetin'-house onct a week,
A hatin' each other through 'nd through!
But when Abe Linkern asked the West
Fr soldiers, we answered—me 'nd Jim—
He havin' his opinyin uv me,
'Nd I havin' my opinyin uv him.

But down in Tennessee one night
The'r wuz sound uv firin' fur away,
'Nd the sergeant allowed there'd be a fight
With the Joannie Rebs some time nex' day;
'Nd as I wuz thinkin' uv Lizzie 'nd home
Jim stood before me, long 'nd allin'—
He havin' his opinyin uv me,
'Nd I havin' my opinyin uv him.

Seemed like we knew there wuz goin, to be
Serious trouble fr me 'nd him;
'Us two shook hands, Jim did 'nd me,
But never a word from me or Jip!
He went his way 'nd I went mine,
'Nd into the battle's roar went we—
I havin' my opinyin uv Jim,
'Nd he havin' his opinyin uv me.

Jim never come back from the war again,
But I hain't forgot that last, last night
When, waitin' fr orders, us two men
Made up 'nd shook hands, afore the fight.
'Nd after it all, it's soothin' to know
That here I be 'nd yonder's Jim—
He havin' his opinyin uv me,
'Nd I havin' my opinyin uv him.

LIZZIE AND THE BABY

I wonder of all wimmin 'ar
Like Lizzie is when we go out
To theaters an' concerts where
Is things the papers talk about.
Do other wimmin fret an' stew
Like they wuz betin' crucified—
Frettin' a show or concert through,
With wonderin' of the baby cried!

Now Lizzie knows that gran' ma's there
To see that everything is right,
Yet Lizzie thinks that gran' ma's care
Ain't good enuff fr baby, quite;
Yet what am I to answer when
She kind uv fidgets at my side,
An' asks me every now an' then:
"I wonder of the baby cried?"

Seems like she seen two little eyes
A-pinin' fr their mother's smile—
Seems like she heern the pleadin' cries
Uv one she thinks uv all the while;
An' so she's sorry that she come,
An' though she allus tries to hide
The truth, she'd ruther stay at hum
Than wonder of the baby cried.

Yes, wimmin folks is all alike—
By Lizzie you can judge the rest;
There never wuz a little tyke,
But that his mother loved him best.
And nex' to bein' what I be—
The husband uv my gentle bride—
I'd wiah I wuz that croodlin' wee,
With Lizzie wonderin' of I cried.

LOCK THE LIPS.

Every true American will appreciate and applaud the sterling address made by President Roosevelt to a Catholic society at Oyster Bay. Decency of speech and conduct are attributes of every good citizen. In no uncertain words the President gave a scathing denunciation of the man who uses foul language, says the Portland Telegram. Let us hope that the speech is read by every man in the United States. Nothing is more common than loose talk. Profanity splutters from the lips of altogether too many. It is heard on the streets, in the cars, and, in fact, in all public places. This disgusting practice is indulged in by boys as well as men, and shows a lack of proper parental prudence.

Portland is no exception to the rule. Streaks of foul language pollute the air on every corner, and it is almost impossible for a woman to walk a block in the business district without having her ears assailed with some of the most detestable words in the English vocabulary. Here is a grand opportunity for a genuine and wholesome reform. President Roosevelt has covered the situation completely when he says "foul language fouls the man." Here is a phrase worth of thought. It is pregnant with truth. If man would only remember it occasionally, what a preventative of profanity it would be. The only regret, however, is that the men most addicted to cursing are the ones who will not read the president's remarks.

Suicide Prevented.

The startling announcement that a preventive of suicide had been discovered will interest many. A run-down system of despondency invariably precedes suicide, and something has been found that will prevent that condition which makes suicide likely. At the first thought of self-destruction take Electric Bitters. It being a great tonic and nerve, will strengthen the nerves and build up the system. It's also a great stomach, liver and kidney regulator. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co., druggists.

Marriage Licenses.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung," writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking, and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co.'s drug store. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottles free.

"You are absolutely certain about your statement?" asked the lawyer.

"Absolutely certain," answered the witness.

"You swear that it is true?"

"I do."

"Would you bet on it?"

"Er—well—yes, if I got the right odds."

DeWitt is the Name.

When you go to buy Witch Hazel Salve, look for the name, DEWITT, on every box. The pure, unadulterated witch hazel is used in making DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which is the best salve in the world for cuts, burns, bruises, boils, eczema and piles. The popularity of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, due to its many cures, has caused numerous worthless counterfeits to be placed on the market. The genuine bears the name of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The beautiful girl stood weeping. Her sweetheart from Boston was going home.

"Tears!" she sobbed, b—"bitter tears!"

Her cultured and learned lover gazed down reprovingly.

"Not bitter tears," he said, sharply; "any schoolboy knows that tears are composed of chloride of sodium and water. Study your chemistry." And with a scornful laugh he vanished.

Dysentery Cured Without the Aid of a Doctor.

"I am just up from a hard spell of the flux" (dysentery), says Mr. T. A. Pinner, a well known merchant of Drummond, Tenn. "I used one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and was cured without having a doctor. I consider it the best cholera medicine in the world." There is no need of employing a doctor when this remedy is used, for no doctor can prescribe a better medicine for bowel complaint in any form, either for children or adults. It never fails and is pleasant to take. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central street, Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Kodol digests what you eat and makes the stomach sweet. Sold by Caldwell & Co.

A Philadelphia parent wrote to a school teacher in that city: "Miss Brown: You must stop teaching my Lizzie fysical torture shee needs yet readin' and figors mit sumps more as dat, if I want her to do jumpin I kin make her jump."
