

Distress After Eating

Nausea between meals, belching, vomiting, flatulence, fits of nervous headache, pain in the stomach, are all symptoms of dyspepsia, and the longer it is neglected the harder it is to cure it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Radically and permanently cure it—strengthen and tone the stomach and other digestive organs for the natural performance of their functions.

Accept no substitute for Hood's. "I had dyspepsia twenty-five years and took different medicines but got no help until I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. Have taken four bottles of this medicine and can now eat almost anything, sleep well, have no cramps in my stomach, no burning and no distress." Mrs. WILLIAM G. BARNER, 14 Olney St., Providence, R. I. Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

A Discriminating Dog.
"Yes, the neighbors complain about my dog."

"Does he bite?"
"No, he's too affectionate." He has the reputation of being a judge of beauty, and every time a pretty woman passes along the street he frisks about extravagantly.

"I should think the women would like that."

"Yes, but there are only two pretty women on the street—the others complain."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Last Touch of Realism.

The photograph and moving pictures have been combined, say the Chicago Tribune, thus making it possible to give the last touch of realism to prize fight views.

STATE OF OHIO, CITY OF TOLEDO, Lucas County.

Cream Custard Pie.

Beat one egg, add two-thirds cupful of sugar and turn in one and one-half cupfuls of good cream. Mix well, add a pinch of salt. Line a pie plate with paste, pour in the cream mixture and grate a little nutmeg over the top. Bake slowly and serve just cooled. —Detroit Free Press.

Wild Animals in Captivity.

Captivity changes animals' nature. A lion captured when it is full grown will always be treacherous, but lions, tigers, leopards and other carnivorous animals that have been born in captivity can be tamed till they are quite as gentle and affectionate as poodle dogs.

Chronic Sores Eating Ulcers, A Constant Drain Upon the System.

Nothing is a source of so much trouble as an old sore or ulcer, particularly when located upon the lower extremities where the circulation is weak and sluggish. A gangrenous eating ulcer upon the leg is a frightful sight, and as the poison burrows deeper and deeper into the tissue beneath and the sore continues to spread, one can almost see the flesh melting away and feel the strength going out with the sickening discharges. Great running sores and deep offensive ulcers often develop from a simple boil, swollen gland, bruise or pimple, and are a threatening danger always, because, while all such sores are not cancerous, a great many are, and this should make you suspicious of all chronic, slow-healing ulcers and sores, particularly if cancer runs in your family. Face sores are common and cause the greatest annoyance because they are so persistent and unsightly and detract so much from one's personal appearance.

Middle aged and old people and those whose blood is contaminated and tainted with the germs and poison of malaria or some previous sickness, are the chief sufferers from chronic sores and ulcers. While the blood remains in an unhealthy, polluted condition healing is impossible, and the sore will continue to grow and spread in spite of washes and salves or any superficial or surface treatment, for the sore is but the outward sign of some constitutional disorder, a bad condition of the blood and system which local remedies cannot cure. A blood purifier and tonic is what you need. Something to cleanse the blood, restore its lost properties, quicken the circulation and invigorate the constitution, and S. S. S. is just such a remedy. S. S. S. reaches these old chronic sores through the blood. It goes to the very root of the trouble and counteracts and removes from the blood all the impurities and poisons, and gradually builds up the entire system and strengthens the sluggish circulation, and when the blood has been purified and the system purged of all morbid, unhealthy matter the healing process begins, and the ulcer or sore is soon entirely gone. S. S. S. contains no mineral or poisonous drugs of any description, but is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy, a blood purifier and tonic combined and a safe and permanent cure for chronic sores and ulcers. If you have a slow-healing sore of any kind, external or internal, write us about it, and our physicians will advise you without charge. Book on "The Blood and Its Diseases" free.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA.

He Would Know in Due Time.

Edyth—Is it true that you are engaged to Jack?
Mayme—Yes, but you are not to mention it. I'm not quite sure that Jack knows it as yet. —Stray Stories.

One From the Growler.
Bumley—How did "The Drunkard's Dream" strike you?
Freezer—As the work of bad whiskey and a worse artist.

One Pleasure Gone.
"I suppose, Miss Rambo," said the caller, "that your father feels much happier now that he has been cured of his rheumatism?"

"Well," explained the young lady, "he feels better when he realizes that he does not have to suffer any more; but he feels pretty bad when he remembers how exactly he used to be able to foretell the weather." —Judge.

Way Up.
"And now, young man," said the old parson, solemnly, "let your daily motto be 'On high!'"

"No, that's my nightly motto," chuckled the sporty youth in the Panama. "I spend my evenings on the roof garden." —Chicago Daily News.

His Business.
"What's your prospective non-in-law's business?" asked the old friend.
"Love-making, principally," growled the old man. "At least, I don't see how he finds time for much of anything else." —Chicago Post.

Precept and Practice.
Cobwigger—Several millionaires have written their opinions as to how to make a fortune.

Meritt—I read that article. The funny thing is that not one of them advised following the plan by which he got rich himself. —Judge.

A Lesson in Gravity.
"Archimedes," reads the pupil, leaped from his bath shouting 'Eureka! Eureka!'"

"One moment, James," said the teacher, "what is the meaning of Eureka?"

"Eureka means I have found it."

"Very well. What had Archimedes found?"
James hesitates for a moment, then ventures hopefully: "The soap, mum." —Judge.

No Widowhood Yet.

"Ah!" sighed the poetess of passion, in a tense tone, "have you never prayed and hoped for death?"

"Many and many a time," replied the petulant young beauty, "but it doesn't seem to be any use. My husband is seventy-five now and he looks to be good for ten years more at least." —Philadelphia Press.

Sympathetic.

Young Wife (rather nervously)—Oh, cook, I must really speak to you. Your master is always complaining. One day it is the soup, the second day it is the fish, the third day it is the joint—in fact, it's always something or other.
Cook (with feeling)—Well, mum, I'm truly sorry for you. It must be quite awful to live with a gentleman of that sort. —Punch.

SORES ON BOTH ANKLES.

Gentlemen: About ten years ago a small sore came on each of my ankles. Dew got into the places and they became large, eating ulcers, and I suffered intensely for nearly ten years. I had spent more than $500.00 trying to get well when I chanced to see S. S. S. advertised in a Memphis paper. I began to take it and was cured. My limbs have never been sore or given me any pain at all since. I have recommended S. S. S. to a great many people, and am now giving it to my nine-year-old son for Rosetta. During my long sickness I was living near Memphis, Tenn., but have since removed to Kansas City, and am now residing at No. 614 East Sixteenth Street.

WHAT'S THE USE?

I.
What's the use o' growin' up?
You can't paddle with your toes
In a puddle; you can't yell
When you're feelin' extra well.
Why, every feller knows
A grown-up can't let loose.
I don't want to be no older—
What's the use?

II.
What's the use o' growin' up?
When I'm big I don't suppose
Explorin' would be right
In a neighbor's field at night—
I don't like to get my clo'es
All watermelon juice.
I don't want to be no older—
What's the use?

III.
What's the use o' growin' up?
You couldn't ride the cow.
An' the rabbits an' the pig
Don't like you 'cause you're big.
I'm comfortablist now.
Pr'aps I am a goose;
I don't want to be no older—
What's the use?

IV.
What's the use o' growin' up?
When yer growed, why, every day
You just have to be one thing.
I'm a pirate, or a king,
Er a cowboy—I can play
That I'm anything I choose.
I don't want to be no older—
What's the use?

FATTEST GIRL IN THE WORLD.

Meda Wilhoite Is Only 10 but Weighs Over 250 Pounds.

Probably the largest child for her age in the world is Meda Wilhoite, of Lebanon, Ky., who at the age of 10 weighs upward of 250 pounds. Notwithstanding her great size, she is as active as any other girl of her years.

and takes part in all the games of her companions. Mentally, too, she is as bright as other children of her age. She was born in Oldham County, near La Grange, in 1893. At the age of 3 she weighed 99 pounds, and at 7 her weight was 175 pounds. Meda has a sister and a brother who are very small. Her mother weighs 170 pounds and her father 141.

"There She Blows!"

The plumber is so prosperous and useful a member of the community that he can afford to smile at jokes made at his expense. The latest, from the Chicago News, represents the rich plumber as being on his way to Europe.

On the voyage a school of whales was sighted, and the millionaire plumber rubbed his hands in ecstasy.

"Why is he so happy?" asked a passenger.

"Because," whispered the captain, "he imagines each spout is a bursted water-pipe, to be repaired at regular rates."

Promoters of Courage.

Spartacus—Women are a great incentive to manly courage.

Smarticus—That's right. Since I've been married and had a few tilts with my wife the prospect of a scrap with the meanest man on earth seems like mere child's play to me. —Baltimore American.

Between Friends.

Vivian—Do you like her new hat?

Viola—No; it's perfectly lovely!

—Judge.

When a man doesn't grumble at his dinner, his wife feels that her cooking has been paid a compliment.

Gray?

"My hair was falling out and turning gray very fast. But your Hair Vigor stopped the falling and restored the natural color." —Mrs. E. Z. Benomme, Cohoes, N. Y.

It's impossible for you not to look old, with the color of seventy years in your hair! Perhaps you are seventy, and you like your gray hair! If not, use Ayer's Hair Vigor. In less than a month your gray hair will have all the dark, rich color of youth.

Birds and Floods.

Many birds have an instinctive pre-sence of floods, and will change the positions of their nests or make other provisions for safety just before a heavy rainfall results in a flood which sweeps away their former homes.

Mothers will find Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup the best remedy to use for their children's teething season.

One of Many.

Meyer—Did you ever see a man-eating shark?

Gyer—No; but I once saw a man eating catfish.

Meyer—Indeed! Where?

Gyer—In a restaurant. —Chicago Daily News.
