G. P. Skelton arrived home Saturday evening from Pilot Rock, Umatilla county.

Miss Maud Dorrance of Woodburn is visiting in town with her friend Miss Jessie Britt.

Oilmeal, linseed dairy food, clover hay, for sale by Andrew Pickett at City feed store.

Books, latest and best, all styles and prices, from a linen A B C to leather bound, at Moore's.

J. A. Hughes has purchased of Jesse Edwards the building occupied as an office by Dr. H. J. Minthorn.

Prof. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis, assisted by Prof. and Mrs. O. C. Albertson, entertained the Seniors at six o'clock tea Saturday evening.

Mr. G. W. Cutts, station agent at Shedd's, has a vacation of several days and is spending it here with his wife and daughter Louise.

A mammoth cluster of mistletoe, doubtless the largest ever brought into town, has been attracting a good deal of attention in Caldwell & Company's show window.

Mrs. N. Newall arrived the first of the week from Southern California with two children which she will send to school here. Her old home is in England.

Miss Cora Dunham, a student of the college, left Tuesday morning for her home at Berkeley, California, on account of poor health. The students of the boarding hall gave a party in her honor Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wilson came back from Sheridan Wednesday morning, C. B. having closed out his stock of merchandise there the first of the week. Charlie brought back with him a couple of blue blooded English setter pups from which he expects great things.

Harrison Crater is preparing to put up another business building on First street, just west of Heacock & Heacock's jewelry store. It is to be a two story building and will be used as a millinery store by Miss Minnie Hutchens of McMinnville, who visited here the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Trullinger.

Though a veteran of scores of hard-fought football battles, it remained for Prof. F. K. Jones to suffer his first serious injury last Friday evening in a little practice game with the college boys. When in the bottom of a scrimmage some one planted a heel on his face, which resulted in a broken cheek bone. Dr. Minthorn attended to the wound, and though it gave the professor a good deal of pain for a time, he was able to appear at school Monday morning.

Calvin Blair represented Pacific College at Monmouth Friday evening in an executive committee meeting of the college Debating League. The question decided upon for the coming debates is in effect as follows: "Resolved, That those institutions, of which the Standard Oil Company and the steel trust are a type, are economic evils." Pacific College will debate this question with the State Normal and has the affirmative side of the proposition. The debate comes off on Friday, March 4, and will doubtless be held here, as the last debate between Newberg and the State Normal took place at Monmouth.

Miss Inez Thompson of Coquille is visiting in town with the family of Wm. Rich.

Guilford Terry is building a house on Sheridan street just east of the Armory hall building.

F. E. Vestal is embarking in the grocery business and will occupy one side of Henry Ehret's store with his stock.

Elder G. C. Carl announces that there will be services at the Brethren church on Christmas day at eleven o'clock.

Raspberry tips, for sale, also some cherry seedlings and strawberry plants. For particulars address Springbrook Canning & Preserving Co.

Atkinson Bros. shipped three fine Poland China hogs to the Weber stock farm at Mabton, Eastern Washington, Wednesday morning.

Allen Smith is beginning the erection of a residence on his lots northeast of the public school building. This part of town is becoming a popular residence section.

If your cow goes dry it's your place to get milk from me and not your customers, and I'll charge only 10c per qt. to supply your customers with milk. I'm of age and will attend to my own affairs. G. Everest.

Mrs. Joyce Hoskins Leaming died at her home in Gold Hill of consumption Tuesday afternoon. The body will be brought to Newberg for burial, the funeral service to be held this Friday morning at the Friends church at 10 o'clock. Prof. C. E. Lewis will have charge of the service.

The management of the Newberg Steam Laundry, has again partially changed, Mr. Sykes having sold out to his partner, Mr. Frazier, who will continue the business. Mr. Sykes still retains the ownership of the dwelling and lot and says he will move the house farther west and fix it up.

Representative B. C. Miles left Saturday morning for Salem by way of Portland, to be in attendance at the special session of the legislature which convened the first of the week. Miss Myrtle McDaniel who was a clerk during the last session, also went up to the capital to see if her services were in demand.

Miss Ella Culver, who in company with her mother, two sisters and two brothers, left here Friday for their old home in Kansas, died enroute Sunday afternoon at Modesta, California, of consumption. Friends here had expressed fears that she would not live through the journey. The remains were shipped on to Kansas.

A tail-less calf was received by Stanley & Bond at their meat market Monday from Wm. Buuck who lives in the Chehalem Center neighborhood. "Not like other calves" would be a fitting epitaph for the little brute for it never switched its tail when guzzling the lacteal fluid. Fortunate for his calfship that the butcher found it before fly season came.

Miss Emma Phillips, who has many friends in Newberg, having once taught school here, was married recently at Gibara, Cuba, to Juan Francisco Martinez, with whom she became acquainted while engaged in mission work at Matamoras, Mexico. She has been serving for three years as a missionary in Cuba, and with her husband will enter work at a new location, Puerto Padre.

F. H. Caldwell & Co. have added a line of books. All the best authors. Look them over.

The directors of the Newberg public school have issued a call for a school meeting to be held Tuesday afternoon December 29, at 2 o'clock for the purpose of voting a tax for next year's expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. John Dunstan arrived home the first of the week from their trip to Southern California, and glad to get back to a little refreshing moisture. They were not very well impressed with what they saw of the golden state and say that all the Oregonians they encountered have their eyes turned longingly in this direction.

"Political bees are beginning to breathe the warm ozone of the approaching season, and a faint flapping of the little wings and a gentle buzz now and then presages strenuous activity as soon as the sun comes out and the weather will permit 'good whittling.' As yet the prospective candidates are modest and exceedingly shy. But people will talk, and as talk this early in the fight is cheap, every one can afford to talk a little, as it is now little more than two months until time to begin calling primaries and conventions." With the above as a little prelude, the Yamhill Reporter proceeds to forecast the personnel of the county tickets, but, as usual, without taking Newberg into account. But possibly Newberg candidates are unusually shy and hard to locate.
