Amos Graves and Miss Maud Warner were united in marriage last week, which recalls to mind that some years ago Amos favored the Graphic periodically with contributions on the matrimonial relation which he viewed with suspicion and even cynicism. The passing of the years has evidently softened his attitude on the important question.

On Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock at the bride's home at Boring, near Portland, a quiet wedding took place, Miss Eda L. Townsend being married to Roy Woods of Newberg, Rev. James P. Two gentlemen, named Gray and Bennett, of La Center, Clarke county, Washington, are in Newberg investigating conditions relative to putting in a big shingle mill. They say that if they establish a factory here they will employ regularly twenty-five or thirty men and will install a plant the capacity of which will make possible the employment of seventy-five or a hundred men. May they find conditions favorable and meet with the encouragement which will lead them to locate here.

A pert paragrapher on the editorial staff of the Evening Telegram who never loses an opportunity to make the country publisher the subject of his witticisms, finds great sport in calling attention to the patent medicine advertisements to be found in the columns of the country newspapers. If these ads are so uproariously amusing to him, we would suggest that he can add greatly to his stock of hilarity by looking over the pages of the Evening Telegram, where he will find columns of type shouting the praises of lost manhood restorers, female remedies, electric belts and pennyroyal pills, and exploiting the skill of palmists, astrologers, soothsayers, pile doctors, and the great Mongolian specialists who cure all ailments to which the flesh is heir by the use of their Chinese roots, bark and "yarbs." Whenever he tires of the comparatively tame advertisements of sarsaparillas and rheumatic cures in the country exchanges, he can find in his own paper abundant inspiration for funny paragraphs without number.—Polk County Observer.

The Men Who Don't Advertise.

There are active, would-be business men who don't believe in advertising, and turn down the newspaper solicitors with contempt.

Such men overlook the fact that the newspaper to live must be in touch with the living, vital mass of the community.

It is themselves who, in their all-wise contempt for the newspapers are getting out of touch with the general public.

Probably all their original success was due to the fact that they, by some hook or crook, were well advertised.

Having succeeded by this very means they make the mistake of despising and kicking from under their feet the ladder by which they climbed to success.

We have observed many such persons in twenty-five years of newspaper work, and they all end with as great a failure as their beginning was marked by success.—Capital Journal.

What's in a Name?

Everything is in the name when it comes to witch hazel salve. E. C. DeWitt & Co. of Chicago discovered some years ago how to make a salve from witch hazel that is a specific for piles. For blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, eczema, cuts, burns, bruises and all skin diseases DeWitt's salve has no equal. This has given rise to numerous worthless counterfeits. Ask for DeWitt's—the genuine. Sold by F. H. Caldwell & Co.

Cured After Suffering 10 Years

B. F. Hare, Supt. Miama Cycle & Mfg. Co. Middletown, O. suffered for ten years with dyspepsia. He spent hundreds of dollars for medicine and with doctors without receiving any permanent benefit. He says, one night while feeling exceptionally bad I was about to throw down the evening paper when I saw an item in the paper regarding the merits of Kodol dyspepsia cure. I concluded to try it and while I had no faith in it I felt better after the second dose. After using two bottles I am stronger and better than I have been in years, and I recommend Kodol dyspepsia cure to my friends and acquaintances suffering from stomach trouble. Sold by F. H. Caldwell & Co.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullum, editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulation to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's cough remedy as follows: Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croupy spells and we would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's cough remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you on the success of your remedy. For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
