It makes an admirer of good horses mad to see a good team, poorly managed and overloaded, whipped, belabored and cussed by an ignorant and passionate driver. An instance was noted in town not many days since, when the driver gave evidence of the want of some of the "horse sense" of the team he was jerking around.

While smoking a pipe dream of some description the proof reader overlooked the fact that last week's Graphic placed the coming election on the date of June 11, in place of January 11. Notwithstanding the announcement the city officials have consented to have the election take place at the regularly appointed time which will be next Monday afternoon from one to six o'clock.

The Baptists held their annual roll call and business meeting at their church on January 1, and partook of a picnic dinner and good fellowship together. Their meeting was profitable as well as pleasant for they raised enough money, in the neighborhood of one hundred dollars, to finish paying for the extensive improvements which they have recently made in their church building.

The annual meeting of the members of the Oregon Fire Relief Association will be held at McMinnville on Tuesday, January 12, at 10 o'clock a. m. at Burns Hall, for the purpose of electing three trustees and the transaction of such other business as may be brought before it.

As usual, the new year was ushered in with the ringing of bells, and amid the general clangor was heard the ringing of the city fire bell, which aroused some of the members of the fire companies. The young enthusiast, whoever he was, made a serious mistake in tampering with the city's bell, even for the glad purpose of ringing in the new year. The story of "wolf wolf" is not so old that its lesson should be forgotten.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jessup and two children, of Los Angeles, California, are visiting relatives here for a few days. Mr. Jessup is a son of Dr. Elias Jessup, who was well known to many in this vicinity, and is a brother of Mrs. N. L. Wiley of Rex, and of Prof. J. J. Jessup, once a popular instructor in the college here. Mr. Jessup is a railroad man of long experience, being engineer of maintenance of the road running from Los Angeles to Salt Lake.

Postmaster Z. J. Imus of Dundee was in town Saturday morning and reported that the postoffice there had been broken into and robbed the night before. As he has no safe, he never leaves any postoffice funds in the office however, and all the robbers got was two or three dollars of private funds. Stamps were scattered about freely on the floor, but few or none were taken. The burglars got into the office by prying open the front door. From the tracks about the building, Mr. Imus thinks they were on horseback and that there were two of them.

On Saturday evening some of the neighbors and friends of C. F. Moore and family gave them a house warming party, their new home having been completed. It was wholly an informal affair and the best kind of a time was enjoyed by all. Lively games and many excellent selections on a new graphophone made the time fairly fly and it was close to the midnight hour before the guests made their getaway.

The Graphic this week gives a pretty comprehensive idea of Newberg, its people, and conditions generally, and it is a good issue to send away to friends. Call at the office for extra copies. Six copies for a quarter is a whole lot easier than writing that many long letters giving the same amount of information relative to the town. We have been asked lately as to rates on yearly subscriptions for papers to send away. Beginning with this year we will give two yearly subscriptions for one dollar and a half, or three yearly subscriptions for two dollars, the papers to be sent away from Newberg. This is an opportunity for effective missionary work on the part of those who have friends and relatives at a distance whom they wish to interest in Newberg.
