An extra freight train was wrecked on the trestle opposite the Springbrook fruit evaporator Monday afternoon and the evening passenger and mail train did not get through until Tuesday morning. Two cars loaded with lumber caused the smashup.

Thos. D. Snodgrass now farming the Dr. Calbreath farm in West Chehalem was in town Monday. He is farming on a large scale, having in two hundred and thirty-five acres of oats and wheat and other crops in like proportion, all of which he says are in a splendid condition.

Dr. H. B. Clough is arranging his affairs with a view of going to Chicago in a very short time to take up special work in a medical college, and will be gone several months. This is a step which all up-to-date physicians take sooner or later and the doctor's many friends are glad to know that he has decided to carry out his long cherished plans at this early date.

In an unguarded moment the Graphic said Prof. Kelsey was going to do some work for the Anti-Saloon League when it should have stated it was for the prohibition party. The mistake has caused Prof. K. great loss of time in having to stop and square himself with the faithful of the party, for it seems they have held him up on every corner for an explanation. "Mollie come drive the cows home" and pass this as the first offense please.

For Sale—Two good building lots. H. J. Minthorn. 10

Rev. Daniel Drew who went to Dayton a few days ago to assist Enos Ellis in a job of ditching was refused board and lodging at the hotel in that village on account of his color. In the best homes in Newberg the latch string is always out for Rev. Daniel Drew, where he is welcomed as heartily as the average white man, but it is barely possible that we are not so blue blooded down this way as they are up on the Yamhill. The Graphic asserts, however, without fear of successful contradiction that the Dayton hotel, unless it is conducted very differently from the average of its kind, houses those every week, who, while they have a white skin are more likely to "contaminate" the sacred surroundings than this man Drew with a dark skin would be.
