A Parting Shot.

"After all," remarked the rejected suitor, as he prepared to go, "I suppose a man of 25 would soon tire of a wife who hovered around the 32 mark."

"How very ungracious of you to insinuate that I am 32," said the woman in the case.

"Well, perhaps you are not," he replied, "but it struck me that you were somewhere near the freezing point."

An Insinuation.

Miss Elderleigh—I suppose smokeless powder will reveal the horrors of war.

Miss Alice Bailey, of Atlanta, Ga., escaped the surgeon's knife, by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wish to express my gratitude for the restored health and happiness Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought into my life.

"I had suffered for three years with terrible pains at the time of menstruation, and did not know what the trouble was until the doctor pronounced it inflammation of the ovaries, and proposed an operation.

"I felt so weak and sick that I felt sure that I could not survive the ordeal, and so I told him that I would not undergo it. The following week I read an advertisement in the paper of your Vegetable Compound in such an emergency, and so I decided to try it. Great was my joy to find that I actually improved after taking two bottles, so I kept taking it for ten weeks, and at the end of that time I was cured. I had gained eighteen pounds and was in excellent health, and am now.

"You surely deserve great success, and you have my very best wishes."—MISS ALICE BAILEY, 50 North Boulevard, Atlanta, Ga.—$5000 forfeit if original of above letter proving genuineness cannot be produced.

All sick women would be wise if they would take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and be well.

An Egg Opener.

The opening of an egg is a simple enough matter, but the operation is not and cannot always be performed in a tidy and economical manner. This may seem a most insignificant matter to those who have never had the task of making pies and puddings and pastries, and those other palatable dishes which delight the taste at the table, but which perplex the maker and the baker in the kitchen.

A Connecticut genius rises to his feet to present mankind, and more particularly womankind, with an egg-opener that fills the bill. The little affair is placed surrounding the egg, the tiny spear points are forced through the shell, a slight twist is given the apparatus, and you have your egg neatly and nicely divided. None of the contents is split, and none of the shell falls into the egg.

Veal Cutlets and Macaroni.

Trim and season the cutlets, flatten so that they are rather thin, and dip into egg beaten up with a teaspoonful of butter. Arrange the cutlets side by side in a stewpan with three or four ounces of clarified butter. Set over a very slow fire; let the cutlets cook for ten minutes; then turn each, and allow the same time for the other side. Arrange on a long dish. Pour over a very little butter from the pan, and garnish with macaroni, which has been boiled or stewed in a savory tomato sauce. On each cutlet, the moment before serving, put a small, thin rasher of bacon.

German Coffee Cake.

To two cupfuls of soft bread sponge that has been allowed to rise add one-half cupful of warm milk, a little salt, a quarter-cupful of melted shortening, two eggs beaten light with three-quarters of a cup of sugar. Add half a grated nutmeg, some raisins or currants and as much warmed flour as can be worked in with a spoon. Put into a greased pan and set to rise. When very light moisten the top with milk, sprinkle with sugar and cinnamon and bake in a slow oven forty minutes. Cover with paper for the first fifteen minutes of baking.

Apple Fritters.

Beat the yolks and whites of five eggs separately and stir into the thickened yolks three cupfuls of milk, a pinch of salt and three teaspoons of flour that has been twice sifted with two teaspoonfuls of baking powder. Beat hard, then add the stiffened whites and a cup of peeled and thinly sliced apples. Drop by the spoonful in deep, boiling fat. Transfer when done to a hot dish and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Orangeade.

Mix together the juice of six oranges and two lemons. Boil three cups of water with one cup of sugar for ten minutes; take from the fire and add the fruit juice when the syrup cools. Put it where it will get very cold and serve in glasses of crushed ice.

Ham Sandwiches.

Chop lean ham fine and mix it with a very little French mustard and if you wish enough mayonnaise to make a paste of the meat. Spread on slices of crustless bread.

Short Suggestions.

A damp pantry and warm cupboard are both bad places in which to keep bread.

A piece of bread tied in a bit of muslin and dropped into the water in which greens are boiling will absorb the unpleasant odor.

It is a good idea to put a little shot in the bottom of tall vases. Then they are not so liable to be knocked over by careless hands.

Before cleaning out a fireplace sprinkle a good handful of tea leaves among the ashes. This makes the ashes lift more easily and prevents the dust from flying about the room.

When lighting a gas stove it will often give a slight explosion and light wrong, thus giving no heat. Turn the gas off very quickly and on again. It will then light properly without any further trouble.

It is not generally known that eggs covered with boiling water and allowed to stand for five minutes are more nourishing and easier digested than eggs placed in boiling water and allowed to boil furiously for three and a half minutes.

"We appreciate Peruna very much. It certainly does good work with catarrh and also with colds and la grippe. We have faith in Peruna and have inspired many others with same. We do not like to be without it. It has certainly kept us from being very sick. It did a world of good last winter for our little ones. Dr. Hartman receives many letters from Catholic Sisters from all over the United States. A recommend recently received from a Catholic institution in Detroit, Mich., reads as follows:

Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:

Dear Sir—"The young girl who used the Peruna was suffering from laryngitis, and loss of voice. The result of the treatment was most satisfactory. She found great relief, and after farther use of the medicine we hope to be able to say she is entirely cured." Sisters of Charity.

This young girl was under the care of the Sisters of Charity and used Peruna for catarrh of the throat, with good results as the above letter testifies.

From a Catholic institution in Central Ohio comes the following recommend from the Sister Superior:

"Some years ago a friend of our institution recommended to us Dr. Hartman's Peruna as an excellent remedy for the influenza of which we then had several cases which threatened to be of a serious character.

"We began to use it and experienced such wonderful results that since then Peruna has become our favorite medicine for influenza, catarrh, cold, cough and bronchitis."

Another recommend from a Catholic institution of one of the Central States written by the Sister Superior reads as follows:

"A number of years ago our attention was called to Dr. Hartman's Peruna, and since then we have used it with wonderful results for grip, coughs, colds and catarrhal diseases of the head and stomach.

"For grip and winter catarrh especially it has been of great service to the inmates of this institution."
