Wednesday morning's train was delayed at the Newberg station for more than an hour on account of an accident in switching. The front trucks of a car loaded with lumber jumped the track.

Granville Everest received a telegram from Newport Beach, California, last Monday giving information of the death of Mrs. Everest's father, Fred G. Groff. The deceased was well known here, he having lived in Newberg and vicinity for a number of years.

The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of A. R. Moomaw & Son which appears in this issue. The season is at hand when farmers are on the lookout for new implements, buggies and wagons and this firm will be pleased to quote prices to intending purchasers.

A telegram was received here last Monday giving information of the death of O. F. Farr who went to Los Angeles, California, a short time ago to visit his daughter Mrs. Levi D. Barr. Death came as a result from an attack of pneumonia. The remains are being brought here for burial.

Miss Arpa Cooke, aged twenty years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Cooke who live a half mile west of town, died Sunday night after a short illness. Funeral services were conducted at the home on Tuesday by Elder Geo. C. Carl. The remains were laid to rest in the Dundee cemetery.

C. D. Pool, who arrived home from Riverside, California the latter part of last week has been busy since getting back packing their household effects and preparing to leave for the above named place. He has secured a position as manager of a large mercantile establishment in Riverside, a city of ten thousand inhabitants, and will begin work on his arrival there. They will leave either Saturday or Monday.

John P. Jones, traveling passenger agent for the S. P. was in town Tuesday giving his friends the glad hand. He stated without hesitation that the new morning train out of Portland would be a sure go, but could not give the exact date that service would begin. It is likely that the train will be put on as soon as the laying of the heavy rails is completed and the track is put in passable condition. The time for reaching Newberg will probably be about nine o'clock in the morning.

George W. Briedwell who was down from Briedwells station Tuesday made a pleasant call at this office. Several years ago Mr. Briedwell held the office of county clerk and he was regarded as a very efficient and satisfactory official.

Since buying the Smith & Nicholson livery business, Claud Ferguson is arranging to give Newberg the best livery service the town has ever had. The old rigs will be sold off and good horses and first-class turnouts will take their places.

Since selling his interest in the livery business Milt Nicholson is figuring on building a large feed shed to meet the demands of the times. Feed yards with sheds are much in vogue throughout the country and nearly all the towns in the valley have them.

H. Cooper came over from Estacada the first of the week and shipped their household goods. On his return Mrs. Cooper went with him. They intend to return to Newberg as soon as they can make satisfactory disposal of some real estate at Estacada which they traded for.

Jesse Edwards is preparing to make some very pronounced changes about his home. The house is to be moved several feet to the east, allowing room for the opening of the street through to Fifth street. It will be rebuilt and put in good condition to rent, and a new residence will be erected on the west side of the street in the orchard.

A Carload of Land Plaster.

BOTH OREGON AND UTAH.

To those who have used land plaster nothing need be said, as you know the great benefit you derived from its use. To those who have not used it we would say, investigate the subject, talk with those who have and be convinced of the immense profit it will yield you.

As there is quite a difference between buying in ton lots and car lots, we have purchased a carload and shall give you all the benefit of carload rates.

As we shall not get another car this season, it will be to your interest to call soon and leave your order. Believing in the motto of "Live and Let Live," we invite you to give us a call when in need of anything in our line of Feed, Seed, Farming Implements, Wagons, Carriages, etc.
