For sale, two thoroughbred Scotch Collie puppies, C. H. Narins stock. N. P. Nelson.

Mrs. Bell will show millinery every Thursday at Pressnall Brothers' store. 20-tt

George D. Goodhue of Salem, spent a day or two in town last week looking up the sale of creamery supplies.

Mrs. A. W. Rees of Portland and daughter Miss Georgie came up Saturday for a few days visit with friends and relatives.

Ab Parker, who joined his family here some days ago, has rented what is known as the Eli Evans property on East First street.

Come and buy your cakes, pies, bread, etc. at the window sale on Saturday, April 2, held in the store of J. A. Hughes, by the ladies of the M. E. church.

Rev. H. B. Hartzler of the United Evangelical church has been compelled to cancel all appointments on account of delays en route. He will be here later when announcements will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hall moved to Portland Wednesday morning. Mr. Hall is going to embark in the dog industry and will open kennels and a canine boarding house somewhere in the suburbs.

Miss Clara Vaughan, a graduate of Pacific College, who has been teaching this year at Marshfield, moved recently to San Francisco with her grandmother, where she is making her home with an aunt.

Word comes from North Yakima, Washington, that Otis Snodgrass, a former Newberg boy, was recently married at that place, and that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Snodgrass have removed to California.

The ladies of the Lewis and Clark club announce that they will hold a reception this coming Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to which not only the members but all ladies of Newberg and vicinity are cordially invited.

Rev. Thomas Atkinson, pastor of the M. E. church at Fossil, Wheeler county, was down a few days last week visiting with his brothers, Joe and Sam Atkinson. He grew up in this community but has been away so long he found himself among strangers on his return.

A gentleman from Portland has been in Newberg this week endeavoring to organize another fraternal lodge! Ye shades! But then it is semi-occasionally averred that there is always room for one more, and the organizer will doubtless convince some that his order is indispensable. Next!

Dr. H. B. Clough has sold his residence property on First street to L. W. Harger, possession to be given the first of May, when the doctor arrives home from Chicago, where he is taking a special course in medicine. Mrs. Clough says they will probably buy other property and build a new home.

Notwithstanding the fact that airy, fairy springtime with its scented and gently wafted zephyrs, when a young man's fancy etc., is coyly holding aloof, it is persistently rumored that the sweet June bride will be numerous in this vicinity. Young Mr. Cupid is too sly a rascal to suspend operations until the breaking up of Oregon winter, and has evidently been making a little hay despite the lack of the tender, softening influence of the sun's rays.

Lewis and Clark envelopes for sale at the postoffice.

Milk cows, for sale at old fair ground. W. E. White.

A fine display of hats is to be seen at Mrs. Horton's, with prices right.

You don't pay any more for your goods with chairs than you did without them at Porter & Larkin's.

Married—Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl—Mr. Frank Shook and Miss Florence Whitmore, both of West Chehalam, Rev. Geo. C. Carl officiating.

W. B. Clark, who came up from Glendora, California, last fall has been compelled to return as the sale of his Glendora property fell through. He hopes to return to Oregon at no distant day.

A social was given in the association room at the college Friday night for the Y. W. C. A. In place of the ordinary shirt waist girl were young ladies in costumes of every description. Little Red Riding Hood was there with her cake for the grandmother, also Miss Angelina Cleopatra Goddyomy with her country cousins, Jehosaphat and Susanna Cloverblossom, and the milk maid. The dusky Indian maiden with her buckskin attire, the newspaper girl, the Old-fashioned Girl, the Queen of the Fairies, Vanity Fair, Xanthippe, and the house maid were all present. Miss Goddyomy and her country cousins furnished most of the entertainment for the evening. The refreshments which were sandwiches and onions left a lasting remembrance of the evening's enjoyment.

The illustrated moving picture concert given by Messrs. Steele and Freeland at the Taylor street church last evening was a pronounced success. For the third time during the past year this entertainment has packed the church to the doors, and as on both former occasions the expressions of appreciation were many and enthusiastic. The moving pictures were even better and more realistic than on the former occasions. "The Trip to the Moon," and the "New York Fire Department in Action" received especial praise. A particularly noticeable feature of the moving pictures was the entire absence of the glimmering and hazy appearance so common with other moving picture machines. The colored stereopticon views of California, Florida and Columbia river scenery, as well as the views of the cities and cathedrals of Europe were especially pleasing and equal to many months of sight seeing and travel. The vocal solos and duets by C. F. Freeland and F. D. Confer, illustrated by many views, met the approval of the large audience.—Oregonian, Feb. 23. At Crater's Hall, Newberg, Monday and Tuesday, April 4 and 5. Reserved seats 35 cents, for sale at both drug stores.
