

Local Events.

Attorneys M. O. Pickett and C. A. Butt attended court at the county seat this week. The criminal action against C. E. Nelson and L. M. Smith was dismissed on their motion, the important action to come off in the equity court three weeks hence. Lon Hadley, Chance Grames, M. Nicholson, Chas. Henry and C. F. Moore served the court as jurors from Newberg.

Several Newberg prohibitionists, including G. M. Bales, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Newlin, Rev. Thos. Armstrong, Rev. H. Gould, Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Harford, Rev. S. W. Potter, Henry Miles, J. A. Hughes, W. R. Scott, N. C. Christenson, E. S. Craven and son Will and John Illig, attended the State Prohibition convention in Portland the fore part of the week. Rev. T. L. Eliot, D. D. of Portland will give a free public lecture in the Friends church next Friday evening, April 8th, upon his recent visit to Japan. He will tell of the little brown people as they live and move and have their being to-day, and as Japan is attracting especial attention at present, the lecture will be of much more than ordinary interest. Dr. Eliot is a forcible speaker to hear whom will be a pleasure. Everybody cordially invited.

Paul Brunzel and son, dealers in fat cattle, mutton, pork, veal etc., have moved from the old McCollum place north of Newberg to town and are preparing to carry on an aggressive business in their line. They have opened a store and butcher shop on Main street, four doors north of the Glen hotel, and are preparing to put up a slaughter house on the Ramsey place, back of the Newberg Flour Mill. They are establishing a good shipping trade with Portland and advertise to pay cash at their store for eggs, chickens and general butchers' produce.

Common Sense.

"Three doctors, attending a child with diphtheria, saw it growing steadily weaker, although they were giving it medicine which should have cured. When it had been ill six weeks, and was at the last gasp, they called in a distinguished specialist. They went up stairs with him, and one of them opened the door of the sick room. He paused. 'Move the child to another room,' said he. 'Then I'll look at it.'"

"The instant the patient ceased to breathe that germ-saturated air it began to revive. The specialist could only approve the medicines the other doctors were prescribing and go away. All he had brought to that house of sickness was a little common sense."—American Medical Monthly.

Progress.

A young lady refused to marry a most devoted lover, until he had amassed a fortune of $10,000. After some expostulation he accepted the decree and went to work. About three months after this, the avaricious young lady, meeting her lover, asked: "Well, Charley, how are you getting along?"

"Oh, very well, indeed," Charley returned cheerfully. "I've eighteen dollars saved." The young lady blushed, and looked down at the toes of her walking-boots, and stabbed the inoffensive earth with the point of her parasol. "I guess," she said faintly—"I guess, Charley, that's about near enough."—Philadelphia Ledger.
