EASTER SERVICES.

Newberg Churches Fittingly Commemorate Resurrection Morn.

Seemingly in deference to the day and to fair possessors of new Easter millinery, Jupiter Pluvius and Mr. Sol declared a truce Sunday—rather unlooked-for consideration. The day was conducive to light hearts and happy faces, in keeping with the glad anniversary, and in the morning church services over town the theme was one and the same.

Rev. Thos. Armstrong of the Friends church preached from the text ending, "Who was delivered up for our trespasses and was raised for our justification." He declared the resurrection to be the greatest event in history and emphasized the necessity, through its agency, of personal resurrection. The choir rendered the selection, "Christ is Risen," and a beautiful solo, "Resurrection Song," was sung by Miss Lucy Gause. The exultant singing of the canaries and the effective decorations gave a gladsome air to the service.

The sermon at the Baptist church by Rev. Stanard was from the words, "Raised in Glory." The church was very prettily decorated. An excellent musical program was given, some features being an anthem; offertory, "Pastorale" by Miss Horton; solo, "The Bells of Easter Peal," by Mrs. H. G. Miller; duet, "Springtime of the Soul," by Rev. and Mrs. Stanard.

At the Presbyterian church the Sunday School and church services were combined for the Easter exercises. After the usual Sunday School exercises, the Easter thought was beautifully illustrated by the resurrection plant. The pastor then gave a short address, followed by two selections from the choir. At the close of the service, the children and friends of the Sunday School were made happy by a generous distribution of Easter eggs, cards and booklets.

An Easter sermon was preached at the Brethren church by Elder G. C. Carl, his text being, "I am the resurrection. He that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live."

Appropriate services were also held at the Methodist church, but two or three attempts to secure a report of them proved ineffectual.

Get Ready for the 1905 Fair.

A meeting was held at McMinnville on March 26th for the purpose of organizing a board of managers for the Yamhill county exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair. The object of the organization is to arrange an exhibit of the products and resources of the county, to appoint agents and attendants to arrange and care for the exhibit and to make rules and regulations for guidance of same.

The second meeting will be held at the city hall, McMinnville, at 1 o'clock, April 16. Every locality in Yamhill county should be represented by as many as can attend. Our county should lead in this great fair, as our resources are equal to any and we are near the ground, and our exhibit can be placed with little expense.

INDIAN ENTERTAINMENT.

Ladies of the Lewis and Clark Club Have Something Good in Store for Newberg.

It will be something novel and unique. This is the opinion arrived at after talking with some of the ladies of the Lewis and Clark Club in regard to the Sacajawea entertainment which they are preparing to give in the near future, the date of which will be announced soon.

The inspiration of their efforts is a very worthy one, which should enlist the support of all. The proceeds of the entertainment go to the Sacajawea Statue Association, which was organized for the purpose of erecting a monument to the Bird-woman, the Pocahontas of the West, who made success possible to Lewis and Clark in their western explorations. Who was Sacajawea? Every student of United States history should know, especially in the Northwest, but for fear such is not the case, a little of her history is recounted.

Sacajawea, the Bird-woman, belonged to the Shoshone, or Snake Indians, a mountain tribe which, in the days of Lewis and Clark, was in danger of extermination at the hands of the Minnetarees, or Blackfeet. She had been taken captive when a child by these foes. When Lewis and Clark, coming up the Missouri, reached in their first winter the Mandans and Minnetarees, Sacajawea, a girl of 16, had shortly before become the slave and wife of Chabonneau, a French voyageur, who, like many a waif of his race, had sunk far towards savagery and was living with the wild men. Perhaps the best strike the captives made in preparing for their work was in engaging Chabonneau and Sacajawea to join the expedition, for the latter proved an invaluable aid at every hand.

Here are ten reasons why a monument should be erected in honor of the Indian heroine:

Sacajawea was the only woman to accompany the Lewis and Clark expedition.

She was their guide and interpreter.

She protected them when threatened by hostile Indians.

She procured for them both food and horses when destitute of both.

She saved their journals and valuable papers at the risk of her own life.

She was the only one of the party who received no pecuniary compensation for her services.

While enduring hardships and suffering, she administered to the necessities of others.

She welcomed with intelligent appreciation the civilization of the white race.

Over a million dollars will be spent in honoring the memory of the heroes of the Lewis and Clark party, and not a cent of it has been appropriated to the only heroine.

She was the first pioneer mother to cross the Rocky mountains and carry her baby into the Oregon country.

"Madonna of her race, she had led the way to a new time. To the hands of this girl, not yet eighteen, had been entrusted the key that unlocked the road to Asia. Across North America, a Shoshone Indian princess touched hands with Jefferson opening her country."—Mrs. Dye in "The Conquest."

YAMHILL COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A Profitable Session—Interesting Papers Read and Live Topics Discussed.

The Yamhill County Sunday School Association held its twenty-first annual session in Newberg, Thursday, March 31, and Friday, April 1. The convention was hardly as large as it has been in previous years, but interest was not lacking. Perhaps the two schools best represented according to their size were the Methodist school at Webfoot and the Friends school at Springbrook. It was also encouraging to see the number of students from Pacific College who attended the afternoon sessions. Interesting subjects were treated by prepared papers and extemporaneous discussion. One subject which it would be well for every Sunday School worker to consider in his own mind is, "Do the Sunday Schools Meet the Needs of our Communities in Regard to Bible Study?" If the Sunday Schools do not meet the needs, how may they be met? Should there be any change in the course of study? Much stress was laid upon the Sunday School being the church's opportunity. The same thought prevailed in the convention which is recognized in the world, that whatever is desirable to appear in the future of society must be implanted in the child.

On Thursday morning many vital subjects were given attention. J. L. Whirry, Baptist colporteur, told why young men leave the Sunday School. The active, energetic young man of today must find that in the school which will repay him for his attendance. The qualifications of a good superintendent were considered by a paper by Hervey Hoskins of McMinnville. Prof. Albertson considered some change in the international system of lessons desirable. The question above referred to relative to Bible study in the community was very ably handled by Mrs. Hammer of Springbrook; also by Rev. Stanard.

In the evening a devotional and song service was led by Rev. Stanard and Mrs. Albertson. A selection was given by a mixed quartette—Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Stanard and Messrs. Wright and Stanard. Rev. Mr. Lellick of Portland gave a most excellent address upon the various departments of Sunday School work. He laid particular stress upon the Cradle Roll, the Home Department and the Teachers' Training Class. At the close of the address Mr. Lellick delighted his audience with a vocal solo. A male quartet, "Nearer, My God, to Thee," was given by Professors Lewis, Albertson and Kirk and W. C. Woodward.

At the first session of the following morning, Alva Macy of Dayton discussed the use of the blackboard in the Sunday School. Short talks on the inter-relations of superintendent, teacher and pastor in school work followed.

In the afternoon, the subject, "The Sunday School, the Church's Opportunity," was ably handled by Rev. Whirry. B. F. Hevlund had in charge the "round table." Miss Jessie Britt gave some interesting glimpses of the world's Sunday School convention, soon to be held in Jerusalem. The convention reaped much benefit from the presence of Mr. Pugh, secretary of the state association.

Officers of the county association for the coming year were elected as follows: President, J. F. Taylor, Newberg; vice president, Mr. McIntire, La Fayette; secretary, Mrs. L. A. T. Hodson, Newberg; statistical secretary, Rev. Post, Dayton.

Are You a Dyspeptic?

If you are a dyspeptic you owe it to yourself and your friends to get well. Dyspepsia annoys the dyspeptic's friends because his disease sours his disposition as well as his stomach. Good for Children.

The pleasant to take and harmless One Minute Dough Cure gives immediate relief in all cases of cough, croup and lagrippe because it does not pass into the stomach, but takes effect right at the seat of the trouble. It draws out the inflammation, heals and soothes and cures permanently by enabling the lungs to contribute pure life-giving and life-sustaining oxygen to the blood and tissues. One Minute Cough Cure is pleasant to take and it is good alike for young and old. Sold by F. H. Caldwell & Co., druggists.

A Muskogee young man told a girl that he intended to kiss her upon leaving her home. She commanded him to leave at once.

A Great Sensation.

There was a big sensation in Leesville, Ind., when W. H. Brown of that place, who was expected to die, had his life saved by Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. He writes: "I endured insufferable agonies from asthma, but your New Discovery gave me immediate relief and soon thereafter effected a complete cure." Similar cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis and grip are numerous. It's the peerless remedy for all throat and lung troubles. Price 50c and $1. Guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co., druggists. Trial bottles free.

Perhaps the reason why the dude pays so much attention to his head is because it is his chief weakness.
