For sale, dry goods and groceries, at Ehret & Vestal's.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott visited in Portland the later part of last week.

Do you need any groceries today? If so leave orders at Ehret & Vestal's.

Mrs. Bell will show millinery every Thursday at Pressnell Brothers' store. 20-t

Mrs. Birrell and Miss Annie Holmes of Portland spent Sunday with the Misses Miller and Sears out at Wildwood farm.

Miss Lillie Heacock, who has been teaching in the western part of the county, came home Tuesday morning, her school having closed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Larkin are again settled on their farm northwest of town where Mr. Larkin is once more taking up the white man's burden.

John Dillon of Pennsylvania, an old neighbor of D. A. Wassam, arrived here a few days ago and has been looking about with a view to locating.

The Misses Elizabeth and Caroline Withycombe of Farmington, who are in college here, were visited by a brother and sister from home Sunday.

Rev. H. Gould started Thursday morning for Los Angeles, at present the Mecca of Methodists, where the big M. E. conference begins its sessions next Wednesday.

Mrs. Lura Bogard of McMinnville arrived Tuesday evening to take a place as clerk in Porter & Larkin's store. It was her husband, the express messenger on this division, who was accidentally killed over a year ago.

Dr. E. A. Romig, who arrived in Newberg again last week with his wife and two daughters from Big Rapids, Michigan, has moved into their new home, purchased of C. D. Pool. The young ladies entered college Monday morning.

W. F. Edwards of Portland who retired a few weeks ago from the firm Tims & Edwards, is with his wife and young son now visiting the Edwards families here. Walter sold out his business interests to advantage and is now engaged in buying, improving and selling city property.

According to R. B. Linville Newberg voters are slow in registering this year. It is time to hurry as the books will be closed on May 15th. Arrangements have been made for West Chehalem voters to register here. Registration books may be found either with Mr. Linville or L. F. Hall.

Clark Terrell, accompanied by his son Oliver, came up from Portland Saturday evening and visited over Sunday with his brother Matthew. Both father and son have been engaged for a few years at Grants Pass in the manufacture of excelsior from pine needles and intend to move within the near future to North Carolina where they think they can carry on their business to greater advantage.

C. L. Shephard of Corvallis, traveling college Y. M. C. A. secretary, came to Newberg Saturday evening and remained a few days visiting and conferring with the Pacific College boys. He is waking up interest in the young men's summer conference for the northwest to be held at Gearhart the latter part of next month, and encouraged several of the boys here to attend. Young Mr. Shephard occupied the pulpit of the Friends Church Sunday evening.

We want more eggs at Ehret & Vestal's.

You don't pay any more for your goods with chairs than you did without them at Porter & Larkin's.

W. L. Robertson expects to have an addition built to his house soon, and will make a neat cottage out of it.

Miss Ada Parry, who has been in poor health for some time started back to her Indiana home Wednesday morning.

For sale, a small farm two miles from town. Terms, part cash, balance on time to suit. This is a bargain. See D. R. Jackson.

There is some prospect that the annual meeting of the Yamhill County Pioneer Association, which takes place June first, will be held at Newberg.

The Rebekahs helped the Odd Fellows celebrate anniversary day Tuesday evening by joining with them in a pleasant social event, and serving light refreshments.

Miss Flossie Bass, having finished a six months' term of school in joint district No. 20, will spend the summer in Newberg with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Bass.

The republican primaries for electing delegates to the county nominating convention will be held next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock. North Newberg republicans will meet in Craters hall.

The music department of the college under the leadership of Mrs. Albertson, assisted by a male quartet, will give a recital this Friday evening in the college chapel. The public is cordially invited to attend.

N. C. Christenson and S. M. Calkins are swapping work. While the former is acting cashier of the Chehalem Valley Bank, Sherry has been visiting some of the west side points in the interests of the Chehalem Valley Mills.

Some school boys were badly excited Monday by finding back of the public school building a loaded revolver. The shooting iron is now in the possession of Marshal Woods, and the owner may secure it by making good for this notice.

The second town block north of the public school was traded Wednesday by W. C. Woodward to D. J. Ryan for one hundred and sixty acres of timber land lying eight miles west of North Yamhill. The former's horse and rubber tire buggy were included in the trade.

Gen. D. H. Turner arrived home Monday night from Roseburg, where he had been in company with Senior Vice Commander T. B. McDevitt on a tour of inspection of the soldiers home, and found everything in first-class condition. While there they had a consultation with Governor Chamberlain as to certain needed improvements, which the governor said would be attended to.

The town was sown with leaflets Tuesday night, the text of which was this: "If the local option law is not beaten at the coming June election, every saloon keeper in the state will have a prohibition election on his hands in his own precinct in November, 1904. If he should fail to beat this second election (which will be impossible to do in some precincts) he will have to close on January 1, 1905." Pretty good argument in behalf of the proposed measure. Vote for local option.

Mrs. Dorrance and granddaughter Miss Emma, who have been living at Centralia, Washington, have rented what is known as the Jack Wright property near the college.

Mrs. Maria Bowerman started east on an extended trip Tuesday morning, expecting to visit in the states of North Dakota, Nebraska and Iowa. She will be gone until September.

A mud-bespattered "red devil" came rolling into town from towards Portland Monday forenoon and hung up at the blacksmith shop for repairs. The road between here and Middleton is not exactly ideal at the present writing for automobilizing, and in roaming over some of the high places to escape mud holes the chaffeur run his machine onto a stump, a badly bent axle resulting.

The writer has received an invitation to attend the marriage of Miss Carolyn Andrews to David S. Binford, the ceremony to be solemnized next Monday evening in the Friends church at Whittier, California. Having at one time been connected with his father in business here, Dave has many Newberg friends who will read with interest this announcement. At present he is well established for himself as a jeweler and optician in Whittier. The Mrs. Binford to be is of one of the good substantial families of that place, and is withal a fine young lady. A fair exchange is no robbery, and to the young people the Graphic tenders hearty congratulations.
