PACIFIC COAST EXPOSITION

Lewis and Clark Centennial at Portland, Oregon, Next Year.

International scope is assured to the Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition to be held at Portland, Oregon, from June 1st. to October 15th, 1905, by President Roosevelt's approval of the act of Congress making an appropriation for the Exposition, and his invitation to foreign countries to participate. Portland's Exposition will represent a total outlay of over $5,000,000. Though covering 405 acres of land and natural lake, it will be compact in form, and the average person will be able to see and comprehend it all in a few days at moderate cost. The cream of the foreign and domestic exhibits to be made at St. Louis this year will be transferred to Portland at the close of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The United States exhibit will be moved entire to Portland and installed in buildings to be specially erected. This exhibit will be worth $800,000. In addition, Portland will have many features which will not be seen at St. Louis, such as exhibits demonstrating the life, customs and industries of China, Japan, Hawaii, Siberia, Russia, Alaska, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines and India.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial will be the first international exposition under Government patronage ever held on the Pacific Coast. It will be in every way a Western Exposition. The railroads will make low rates from Missouri and Mississippi River points to Portland, and exceptionally low rates will be in effect between Portland and the Rocky Mountain region.

Annual Music Recital.

The chapel could scarcely accommodate the large audience which gathered last Friday evening to hear the college musicians. They acquitted themselves well, especially considering the fact that several appeared in public for the first time. No attempt was made to "popularize" the entertainment, the productions being indicative of the careful, consistent work which is being done in this department of the college. Mrs. Albertson has been very successful in the management of the music department. Following is the program:

Tax on Business.

The recent levy of a special tax on some lines of business in Newberg has been the subject of some comment. There are reasons why a part of the running expenses of the city government should be raised in this way, not by a tax on a few lines of business, but on every business in the city. First, any city is primarily a place in which to do business, and a well managed city government resulting in an attractive city, results in more financial advantage to the business men as business men than to those who make the city only a place of residence.

Second, it is possible for the business element of the city by enterprise and energy to increase the amount of business done in the town by making a larger scope of country tributary to the city.

Third, every legitimate business that deals with the actual needs of the community is directly interested in keeping out of the community schemes that drain the community of money that otherwise would go to support legitimate lines of business, and for this reason the legitimate business of the city ought to prefer to be taxed to help support the city government rather than have other avenues opened to drain the town and vicinity of money and give nothing in return and also impair the wealth producing capacity of the community. The one hundred men in Newberg that are engaged in doing business can much better afford to pay ten dollars each per year toward the support of the city government than to allow the introduction of new and unnecessary schemes for draining the community of money that now goes to support legitimate and necessary business.

It is a common thing for city governments to license a variety of schemes for getting the people's money for the sake of the license fee which it is claimed is needed for the support of the city government. In order that the city government of Newberg should get an income of one thousand dollars per year enough such places would have to be licensed to do a business of ten thousand dollars and they would damage the community every year much more than that. Instead of this, let the people engaged in legitimate business pay the city one thousand dollars per year for the exclusive right to do business and let the city protect them against all schemes for getting money from the community and giving nothing in return.

Notice to Voters.

Six years ago there were two circuit judges to elect, and the republican candidates were Geo. H. Burnett and H. H. Hewitt. Many voters did not understand that they were to vote for TWO, and in consequence of the mistake Judge Hewitt was defeated. Again this year there are two judges to elect, and the republican nominees are George H. Burnett and B. L. Eddy. Vote for BOTH.

Opening of St. Louis Fair Finds Oregon Ready for Company.

Oregon had every reason to feel proud when the Louisiana Purchase Exposition was opened to the world with auspicious ceremony Saturday. Every part of the state's exhibit was in place and the state building was completed, which is a distinction that many of the states do not enjoy.

In consequence of this promptness Oregon is allowed a ten per cent premium on all awards, which gives exhibitors a wide advantage over those who were tardy with their contribution to the Exposition.

To this end the State Commission has been working hard for months past. It was realized that the ten per cent advantage was not to be scoffed at and that, furthermore, promptness in arranging the exhibits would give a good impression. Several times during the past three months it appeared as if the state could not possibly be ready in time, but a detachment of workers was sent on to St. Louis with orders to push things along without the loss of a minute's time. These methods succeeded.

While complete, the state building is not to be dedicated until June 15. That will be Oregon day at the fair, and the State Commission intends to arrange for festivities on that date which will impress Easterners with the fact that Oregon is on the map.

A large delegation of prominent citizens and officials will go from the state by special train to be in attendance on the occasion. Governor Chamberlain has already announced his intention of going and he and Senator Fulton will deliver the addresses of welcome.

McCain of Yamhill.

Capital Journal: Jim McCain, of McMinnville, is out in a card saying he was defeated for the nomination for circuit judge "as a result of political combinations." Well, that is the way a man is generally beaten for a nomination. The ticket in this district was a compromise. There was a large faction that wanted to retire Judge Burnett. Burnett beat him out in the convention, and then this faction got in and nominated Eddy of Tillamook as the other candidate. So both sides will have a man upon the bench, and to get them elected both sides will have to support both sides. Both Burnett and Eddy are able men of the highest integrity. Eddy will not be quite as strict as Burnett in some respects. He will once in a while overlook it if a farmer brings his dog into the courtroom, and lets him lie down quietly near the stove. So Jim McCain had better get down his linen duster and help elect the ticket, and everybody will be happy.

T. B. Cummings & Company keep furniture, windows, shades, curtain poles, portiers, carpets, matting, rugs, and in fact everything kept in a first class and strictly up-to-date furniture store. An Open Letter.

From the Chapin, S. C. News: Early in the spring my wife and I were taken with diarrhoea and so severe were the pains that we called a physician who prescribed for us, but his medicines failed to give any relief. A friend who had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand gave each of us a dose and we at once felt the effects. I procured a bottle and before using the entire contents we were entirely cured. It is a wonderful remedy and should be found in every household. H. C. Bailly, Editor. This remedy is for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.
