I have seed corn of my own raising for sale. E. S. Craven.
Special sale on all hats Friday and Saturday at The Misses Hutchens.

The Newberg Meat Company made a killin' of eleven veals one day last week.

Lumber is now being sawed by the Spaulding Logging Company for the big new sawmill.

Miss Zella Haworth of Portland visited in Newberg Sunday with Miss Mabel Vantress.

Miss Nervia Wright who has been with Mrs. Walter Reed in Portland for the past six months, returned home Saturday evening.

A game of ball played at St. Paul Sunday between the second nines of that place and Newberg resulted in a victory for the latter, the score being 22 to 11.

Mrs. H. B. Clough is visiting at Middleton, Idaho, with her sister Elma, and will probably remain six weeks or more until the Doctor returns from Chicago.

Mrs. H. F. Allen of Portland is visiting in Newberg this week. She is expecting her sister Miss Jennie McGregor to come down from Vancouver, B. C., on a visit before long.

The enterprising people of Rex concluded that they wanted a bell for their schoolhouse and gave an entertainment and supper Saturday night which netted nearly thirty-five dollars toward the worthy cause.

The New Royal Sewing Machine; drop head, ball bearing, ten year guarantee. The most perfect machine that money can buy. Artistic, convenient, durable and low priced. See sample at J. M. Shaw's.

The ninth grade of the public school, the next graduating class, surprised Principal Kirk and wife Friday evening by coming in on them at their home and making merry with them. Lively games were enjoyed after which refreshments were served.

J. J. Woods left Wednesday morning for Marion, Indiana, where he will visit for six weeks or two months with a brother who has been in poor health for a year or more. In his absence George Sykes will wear the city marshal's badge of authority and frown upon evil doers.

Mrs. S. G. Perry, who has been lying at the point of death for several days, was taken down to a Portland hospital by Mr. Perry Friday morning. Later—Mrs. Perry died Sunday, the body being brought up here for burial Monday evening. The funeral services were conducted Tuesday morning by Rev. John Glen of Dayton.

F. B. Hawk, brakeman on the local passenger train, was killed instantly in an accident Friday morning shortly after the train got into the city. The train was doing some switching, and in trying to couple some cars, Hawk stooped over too far, his head being caught between the platforms and crushed. The unfortunate young man, who is highly spoken of, leaves a wife and little child.

At the meeting of the ladies Lewis and Clark club held Saturday afternoon officers for the year were elected as here indicated: President, Mrs. Maggie L. Littlefield; first vice president, Mrs. L. M. Parker; second vice president, Miss Jennie D. Miller; secretary, Mrs. Van Leavitt; treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Mount. The club decided to send the sum of twenty-five dollars to the Sacajawea monument fund.

W. C. Rowe, who is at present living at Dundee, is building a cottage back of the depot.

Miss Minnie Hutchens made a business trip to McMinnville Monday evening, returning Wednesday morning.

For Sale—Five acres of land, with good new house. Inquire of L. J. Butterfield, east of the sawmill. Come any day except Saturday. 26-tf

Wm. Clemmens and B. F. Hevland have begun work on their new ax-handle manufacturing plant just south of the new ice manufactory and cold storage plant.

It will be noticed by the real estate transfers that Milton Hampton has sold his Dundee farm to his son-in-law Dr. E. P. Dixon of Grants Pass for five thousand dollars.

Messrs. Fichtner and Bristow of Portland, wholesale furniture dealers, were in Newberg the first of the week and arranged to handle the output of the Newberg Furniture Company.

Mrs. F. C. Stanard, accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dunn, to Albany Tuesday, where they are locating. Mrs. Stanard went to see her sister Mrs. Montague, who was seriously sick.

E. H. Lee and family of Goldendale, Washington, came down on a visit and sight-seeing trip the latter part of last week, Mrs. Lee being a sister of Mrs. Everett White and Mrs. T. E. Wright.

The first order for congealed water came to Newberg's new ice manufactory one day last week. Considering the cool weather of the past few weeks, somebody is evidently taking time by the forelock.

The exercises attending the raising of the G. A. R. flag-pole will be held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock. Short addresses will be made and a program rendered, and the veterans invite the general public to attend.

One carpenter alone says he knows of ten dwelling houses to go up in Newberg soon, none of which have yet been begun, and that parties are coming to him every day or two to confer in regard to building. Watch us grow.

Mrs. Sarah Taylor, who has been keeping house for her son J. F. Taylor and son Douglas, left Wednesday morning for Centralia, Washington, to be accompanied from there by her son O. P. Taylor to her home at Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Spaulding Logging Company's engine, which is to operate on the free switch in pulling the product of the sawmill to the main line, rolled in Tuesday noon and began puffing up and down through town trying its new beat. The engine is a regular thirty-five ton passenger train engine, and to see it busily engaged on the switch looks good from a business standpoint. The company says it has hauled its last car-load of lumber to the railroad.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wilson and daughter Miss Lida, and Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Hoskins, who have been spending the winter down at Whittier, California, arrived home Friday. All seem to have profited more or less from their sojourn, and especially Ab, who is in much better health than when he went south, though he hasn't very many good words for California as compared with Oregon. All are glad to get back and note many changes in Newberg, which have been taking place during their absence.

The Juniors of the college, assisted by Miss Ella Macy, gave the Seniors a banquet at the boarding hall Saturday evening, which from all reports was quite a swell affair.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith came in from the logging camp out near Pedee Saturday morning for a few days visit. John says that Sunday was the first time he had been permitted to attend public divine services since the year 1902.

Noah Lapp has sold his place near the railroad to a gentleman named Cox. He and his son Charlie have bought two lots of J. C. McCrea near the J. W. Forsyth cottage back of the postoffice, and expect to put up a couple of cottages there in the near future.

May 15th comes on Sunday, and as a consequence Saturday is the last day of grace for those who have not yet registered. And this is the last opportunity you will have to register, not only before the June election, but also before the November presidential election. Registration books will be found with R. B. Linville and L. F. Hall.

The Misses Nellie Paulson and Bernice Woodward are on the way to Capitola, California, where they will represent Pacific College in the Pacific Coast Y. W. C. A. summer conference, which begins May 14th. They will probably make short visits while south at Berkeley, San Francisco, and one or two other points. The conference is in session about two weeks.
