Speaking of hats—talk to the Hutchens Sisters on the subject. J. A. Clemenson and family of Portland visited Newberg relatives over Sunday.

Goats to sell, or trade for horses or cows. Fred Werth, two miles southeast of Newberg. 2t

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Gaunt and son Walter, of McMinnville, visited with D. H. Turner and family Sunday.

For the sweet girl graduate, what could be daintier than one of those white hats at Hortons? And the prices are so reasonable.

C. B. Wilson has purchased J. A. Hughes' confectionery store and bakery of which he has taken charge. He is having ice cream parlors fitted up in the rear of the store room.

F. E. Vestal has sold out his groceries to Henry Ehret and having purchased R. M. McKern's barber shop will resume work at his old trade. R. M. says he will go to Eastern Oregon.

In making too short a turn at the depot Friday morning, Chance Grame's dray team got excited and took a short run which resulted in the blacksmith getting a good job of repair work on the vehicle.

H. F. Ong, a graduate of Pacific College who for the past three years has been located at Wendling as physician for the Booth Kelly Lumber Company, has this week opened up offices in Portland for practice.

Geo. Allen is putting up a cottage at the corner of Fourth and Meridian streets on the site of the old evaporator, and on Monday his friends gathered and joined with him in an old fashioned house-raising.

A jolly big crowd of young people gave Miss Nervia Wright an informal surprise party at her home east of town Friday evening. There was plenty of fun and a good time for everybody with cake and ice cream thrown in.

From all reports Saturday was a big day at the county seat. In the first place the circus was in town. Then there was an Indian fair, the republican candidates rendezvoused there at that time and there was a meeting of the Yamhill County Board of Exhibit for the Lewis and Clark fair.

Agent Satchwell sold sixteen tickets on last Sunday's excursion from Newberg to Portland. Conductor Crocker says that the excursions from the other side were heavier, but that all excursions so far this year have dropped off heavily from former years on account of higher transportation rates.

Mr. J. B. Miles, a cousin of B. C. Miles and Mrs. Minthorn, who at present is superintendent of the Iowa Industrial school at Eldora, Iowa, has been promoted to the superintendency of the reform school of the District of Columbia. The Oregon State Reform School was established at Salem under the management of Mr. Miles.

On account of Hon. Binger Hermann's address here on Thursday night, the regular meeting of the Prohibition Alliance has been postponed to Friday night of this week. The public is earnestly requested to be present as this meeting will be of special interest to all. Mr. F. L. Harford who has had a large experience in the temperance work will be the speaker of the evening. At 8 o'clock in the Baptist Church.

Do you fancy bead work? If so, ask to see those bead purses at Hortons.

For sale, farm wagon and set single harness. M. P. Elliott, one mile east of town.

Sweeping reduction on all hats for ten days commencing Friday May 27, at Hutchens Sisters.

Mrs. Ellen Robbins of Willamina returned home Wednesday evening after visiting a few days with Newberg relatives.

The members of the Friends church, with many others who attend the services of the church, held a very pleasant social Tuesday evening.

On last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Craven entertained at their pleasant home north of town the Senior class of the college, some of the Seniors' friends and a few members of the faculty.

Mrs. S. L. Hanson went down to Portland Saturday for a visit with her sister Mrs. Jay Cook and family. Mr. Cook has gone over into Crook county and Mrs. Cook and daughters are preparing to follow.

One day last week, L. S. Heacock felled a tree on the David Martin place which he says is the biggest in this vicinity. It measured six feet in diameter inside the bark and he says he will get twenty-five cords of wood out of it.

Charley Soper was riding home horseback from town last Thursday afternoon and stopped at the Westfall place and was talking, sitting carelessly on the pony the while. Without any warning the animal plunged and threw the rider, the result being a fractured shoulder, which Dr. Minthorn looked after.

Noah Lapp who recently sold his residence over near the railroad is building a new cottage on Second street west of the Forsyth property, which is well under way. His son Charles has bought an adjoining lot where he will build a cottage during the season. Wm. Meats is also arranging to build on the same street a little farther west.

Colon Eberhard of McMinnville who has been managing the News for the past year, came down Monday morning, and after a visit with J. C. McCrea's, the next day went over into Marion county to make a visit with his aged grand parents. He is preparing to leave in a week or so for Valparaiso, Indiana, where he will enter upon the study of law.

Mrs. H. N. Sheets of Sacramento, California, who for several weeks has been visiting in West Chehalem with her daughter Mrs. T. D. Snodgrass, started home Monday, accompanied by the latter as far as Portland. She declares that, though having traveled about a good deal, she has never found a place that for beautiful surroundings and prosperous conditions, pleases her as does this.

General Gideon Joubert, veteran of the Boar war, gave a very interesting lecture in the Friends church Saturday night, relative to the history of his people in South Africa, their struggle for liberty, and gave a dramatic portrayal of some of the battles of the late war in which he was engaged. He makes no secret of the fact that he expects yet to see the day when the Boers will secure their independence. On Sunday evening General Joubert spoke to a large audience in the church on the social, religious and industrial conditions in South Africa.

Miss Margaret Inglis has had a building site staked off on her lot on North River street, work to be commenced on the cottage next week.

Tom Scroggin of Sheridan is the man to elect for county sheriff. He is capable, and in a republican county there is no reason why he should not be elected.

Ice is now made in Newberg. Milk and cream are plenty. Salt is cheap. Homemade ice cream is clean and delicious. J. M. Shaw has a new stock of freezers—family sizes. Better get one.

A fire alarm brought out the hose and hook and ladder companies in short order Monday afternoon, but the fire, which was located in the roof of the steam laundry, was put out before they could arrive on the scene.

John Minchin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Minchin of Dundee, died on Wednesday of last week at the state insane asylum. His body was brought home for burial, the funeral services being conducted at the Minchin home on Friday afternoon by Rev. Martin Cook. The deceased was twenty-four years of age. About six or eight years ago he was the victim of a sad accident which affected his brain, since which time he has been an inmate of the asylum.

After several months of suffering, Mrs. Ida Everest Hagey died at her home in Dundee, Oregon, May 21, at 6 p. m. Her grandfather Richard Everest, a pioneer of 1847, was identified with Yamhill county for many years. She was born Sept. 21, 1867 and was married to Jacob Hagey of Dundee Dec. 25, 1888. Mrs. Hagey was a woman of lovely character, devoting herself to her husband and children constantly. She loved the beautiful and spared no pains to make her home attractive. Her loss will be felt, not only by the husband and two daughters who survive her, but by a large circle of friends.
