O. K. Edwards has had the excavation work done for the basement of the new house he is to erect on South College street.

Mr. Glass who moved here recently from Dayton has bought the old Armory hall building and is having it fitted up for a hotel.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn was noticed diligently exercising an undisciplined bicycle in a backwoods pasture one day the first of the week.

Mrs. Paul Brunzel and little daughter have gone to their former home, Centralia, Washington, for a visit and to spend Decoration day there.

L. R. Hamilton, a young man recently arrived from Iowa where he has had several years' experience railroading, has been employed by the Spaulding Logging Company to run their engine on the switch.

E. C. Bronaugh of Portland, will speak in Newberg next Wednesday evening in behalf of local option. Mr. Bronaugh is one of the most prominent lawyers in the state and is the framer of the local option measure.

Miss Gussie Crawford of Dayton visited in town Wednesday with Miss Carrie Turner, and on the following morning went down to Portland and entered the Good Samaritan hospital, it being her intention to become a trained nurse.

Rev. T. Brouillette went over across the river Sunday and held a successful local option meeting in the church near Yergen's, Beulah Spaulding, Erma Heacock, Hazel Littlefield and Minerva Brouillette accompanied him and assisted by singing and reciting.

Hon. J. M. Glass the eloquent platform orator of California, who is touring the state will be in Newberg, Thursday, June 2nd, to address the public on the political issues of the day from a moral standpoint. Everybody should hear him. In Crater's hall Thursday evening.

The inter-state prohibition oratorical contest of the Pacific Coast, in which Walter Miles of this college represents Oregon, takes place this Friday evening in Portland. A special excursion train will be run from Newberg, to leave here at 4 o'clock, and Mr. Miles will be cheered by an enthusiastic crowd of supporters. The excursionists return on the regular Saturday evening train. Better join the crowd.

The late frosts and the cool weather have held back the roses, but many are now coming into bloom. Much enquiry has been made for the name of an early-blooming, climbing rose, a very fine showing of which may be seen at the cottage over toward the college, best known as the John Wright place. The name of this magnificent rose is Fortune's Yellow, or The Beauty of Glazen Wood. It blooms but once during the season, but a well-grown bush in full bloom is simply a bower of beauty well worth going a long distance to see, and all lovers of roses should have one in their collection.

Says the Rural Spirit: "J. A. Jones has brought his stallion, Capt. Jones, home from California and has placed him in H. M. Helman's stable, Irvington Park, where he will make a stud season. Capt. Jones worked miles in 2:23 1/4 this year at Los Angeles, and after the season will be put in training for a record. Capt. Jones is one of the best sires in Oregon and his return here should be welcomed by the breeders." Capt. Jones will be at Newberg Saturday of each week, where he can be seen at Ferguson's stable.
