Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ferguson of La Fayette visited in Newberg Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Edwards came up from Portland last Thursday evening, remaining until Monday.

Now is the time to buy your hat when you can get it cheap. Call on Mrs. Horton and see how pretty a hat you can get at a little expense.

Following the close of the college year Prof. O. C. Albertson has engaged for a couple of months work in C. F. Moore's drug store. Guy Heater has discontinued his work as apprentice in the store.

Mrs. W. W. Nelson and F. H. Caldwell attended the Oregon chapter, order of Eastern Star, in Portland Monday and Tuesday. L. B. Ferguson attended Masonic grand lodge in the city the latter part of the week.

The flag and hand ball drill at the college gymnasium Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock by the young ladies of the college will be well worth seeing. The gymnasium will seat two hundred and fifty people and you are invited to be one of the number.

Yamhill crawfish are fat and juicy, and Portland restaurants like to pay good money for them. Tuesday afternoon four crates, holding 255 dozen of the imitation lobsters were shipped to Portland by an enterprising crawfisher, the price being twenty cents a dozen, or $51 for the lot.—Reporter.

Mrs. C. J. Bright of Wasco was here over Sunday with her parents Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Larson, and left her little daughter Bernice for an extended visit. Mr. and Mrs. Bright are arranging to start with the excursion party of prohibitionists next week back to Indianapolis where the national convention will be held, also the national oratorical contest.

J. A. Hughes went down to Portland Wednesday to attend the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. Jane Abraham. On the death of her husband some years ago, Mrs. Abraham was left with some two hundred thousand dollars, nearly all of which she gave to a certain church in Portland. In her last days she was reduced to want and was cared for by the county, without a hand being raised in her behalf by the church she befriended, until within the last month when the newspapers took the matter up and the force of public opinion drove the church to her assistance. One need not read Shakespeare's "King Lear" to find a vivid portrayal of the sin of base ingratitude.

Special sale on all hats in our store, beginning June 17. Every hat reduced during the following week at Mrs. Horton's.

There will be no lecture at the college Friday evening of which notice was given in the Commencement announcement.

Our lady attendant has some fine muslin underwear to show to the ladies of Newberg when in the store of Porter & Larkin's.

A. B. Cornell came up from Grants Pass Tuesday, returning to-day, taking his mother, who lost her home by fire Monday morning, home with him to live.

A breakdown at the sawmill last week has broken into the work of sawing the heavy timbers for the main building, but a large force of carpenters has been pushing the work on the large planer shed. The new yard has been laid off in accordance with the general plan of enlargement.

The prohibitionists held a rally and talkfest at the Baptist church Tuesday evening as a sort of preliminary round in warming up and getting into action for the coming presidential campaign. The program began with homeopathic doses but worked forward consistently to a "dramatic climax and conclusion" (a la Kelsey) rounded off with a call for tariff—for revenue only. Aubrey Kramien rendered Lowell's "The Crisis," followed by a reading by Carl Nelson. Walter Miles delivered the oration which will represent the Pacific Coast in the national oratorical contest at Indianapolis a week from Tuesday. The "wheel horse," Prof. Kelsey, was then led out and put through some lively paces. He appeared a little coltish to be plumbed with such a title, but gave good evidence that he is not wind-broken. In fact it is suspected that he is known as the wheel horse from the fact that his work is known to be largely on the tongue order. At any rate he gave a rousing good speech which was duly appreciated.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
