Local Events.

C. E. Kirk and Miss Harrington of Seattle are down attending Commencement.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rittenhouse are visiting Will Thomas and family near Grand Ronde.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bashaw started back to their old Wisconsin home Tuesday morning where they will visit until fall.

Hervey M. Hoskins and Miss Louise Maloney drove down from the county seat Sunday and attended Baccalaureate services.

Mrs. L. S. Hill with daughter Esther of Eugene, and her sister Mrs. Dema Adams of Los Angeles who is spending the summer with her, are visiting Newberg friends.

Miss Margaret Inglis started back to St. Louis Tuesday, where she will visit a sister-in-law this summer and attend the big fair. She journeyed with the prohibitionists.

Fireworks of all kinds; also the Dynamite walking stick; no fire and big noise; best crackers made. Do not buy the cheap ones; we have a large stock at Moore's pharmacy.

J. M. Thomas of Michigan, brother of W. E. Thomas formerly of this place, is in Newberg looking about with an eye to investment. He spent the winter in Southern California.

Mrs. G. Keller and daughter Miss Leta of Monmouth visited in town with friends this week. While here Mrs. Keller sold their residence property on Meridian street to Peter Bashaw.

Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Hoberg drove down from McMinnville Friday and in the evening attended the public school graduating exercises, their grand-daughter Ella Nelson being one of the graduates.

Prof. R. W. Kelsey, Walter Miles and E. S. Craven left Tuesday morning to join the prohibition excursionists who started back to Indianapolis Wednesday to attend the national prohibition convention.

A. P. Johnson and family left Newberg Monday evening for Corvallis where their future home will be, Andy having purchased a farm in that vicinity. The Graphic very much regrets to chronicle their departure.

W. H. Hess sold his confectionery store and ice cream parlors last week to C. W. Skelton. The latter's niece Mrs. Myrtle Hemphill has been put in charge by the new proprietor who will continue for the present to act as Uncle Sam's man on R. F. D. No. 3.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn leaves today for Newport where he will take personal supervision of his sanatorium during the summer season. His daughter Mary accompanied him, the rest of the family to follow him soon. He will be gone until the first of September.

At the home of the bride's parents in the city of McMinnville Miss Olive Lambright was married to Walter Macy on Wednesday evening at nine o'clock. The bride, a half sister of Mrs. W. T. Macy, will be remembered by many as having attended college here some years ago, while Walter is almost a Newberg product. Both are deserving of the full measure of happiness which their friends bespeak for them. Their home will be in McMinnville where the groom is engaged with his brother Will in the furniture business.

Miss Effie Vantress of Portland spent Sunday in town with her parents.

You can't lose by buying one of Porter & Larkin's sample $1.50 shirts for 75 cents.

Who will be the Goddess of Liberty on the 4th?—A penny a vote—at both drug stores.

Geo. Utter, son of E. P. Utter, came down last week from Lapwai, Idaho, on a short trip.

Walter S. Parker acted as best man at the Macy-Lambright wedding at the county seat Wednesday evening.

Notice—Those indebted to the firm of Rittenhouse & Calkins, will please call and settle their accounts at the store of Mackie & Calkins.

Mrs. George Lamb of Tillamook, better known to Newberg people as Miss Edna Stratton, is making a fortnight's visit here with the home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Harger, Mrs. T. H. Bryan and Sidney Root attended the meeting of the State Pioneer Association in Portland the middle of the week.

Before leaving for St. Louis, Miss Margaret Inglis saw her new house over by the college well under way. It bids fair to be something of a mansion.

Mrs. Nathan White, Mrs. M. L. Hinshaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. White and the Misses Ione Hill and Pearl Cummings attended the Pier-Trueblood wedding in Portland Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard, married last Monday at Grants Pass, arrived here in the evening for a visit with the bride's mother, Mrs. R. J. McCollum and family.

Say, boys! we have those Dynamite and little Giants; the loudest and best crax made. Come and try them at Moore's pharmacy. Also a fine line of flags.

Newberg citizens have for several days been watching with interest the laying of the heavy steel rails on the railroad track here. They look more like business.

The Misses Pauline Turner and Kate Ramsdell of Portland, attended Commencement exercises and saw their cousin, Miss Carrie Turner, receive her degree from Pacific College.

F. E. Hobson is down from Sumpter and is with his family on a visit at the David home on Chehalis Mountain. Miss Hazel, daughter of Jesse Hobson of Sumpter, is also visiting Newberg relatives.

Two of Newberg's soldier citizens passed away Monday evening. J. W. Nevitt, who has long been afflicted with stomach trouble, died early in the evening, the funeral services being conducted at the home on North Meridian street Wednesday afternoon. The other death, that of A. S. Dudley from heart failure, was very sudden. Mr. Dudley was in usual health and retired as usual without making any complaint. Along late in the night Mrs. Dudley heard him make a little disturbance, after which he died almost at once. The funeral was held this morning at the M. E. church. The bereaved families have the heartfelt sympathy of the community.

Miss Laura Blair arrived home a few days ago from an extended visit at Seattle.

At her home near the college Miss Blanche McNay very pleasantly entertained the public school graduating class together with Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Kirk Saturday evening.

The annual school meeting held Monday afternoon was well attended. The vote on director resulted in the election with little or no opposition of C. J. Edwards, J. C. Colcord, the retiring officer who has served the district faithfully and efficiently for six years declining positively to serve another term. Andrew Pickett was elected district clerk.

Miss Jo Byers, a Roseburg school teacher, is visiting here in the family of Wm. Rich.

Miss Gertrude Lamb, who has been teaching school at Heppner, arrived home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCoy of Iowa are visiting in this vicinity with their nephews, S. W. and C. E. Newhouse. Such wide travel is a little unusual for persons of their advanced years, he being 87 and she 84 years old.
