Clemenson-Fitch.

On last Thursday morning a pretty wedding took place at Clarkston, Washington, when Miss Maud O. Fitch was married to Wm. M. Clemenson, the beautiful ring service of the Episcopal church being used.

In speaking of the young people the Clarkston Republican says, "The bride is one of the most charming young ladies in this locality, who has for the past two years been one of the teachers in Clarkston's public schools. The groom, Clarkston's efficient and popular postmaster, has by his agreeable manner and obliging ways, made a host of warm friends who join in congratulating him upon securing one so estimable as a life partner, and with them go the best wishes of all."

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Clemenson, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Coon, the latter being the sister of the groom, left on the boat for a trip to Oregon points. At the wharf a goodly number of friends gathered to see the bridal pair safely off, and they did not forget to take along a generous supply of rice and a large number of old shoes. Of course, all passengers of that steamer knew they had a newly married couple on board and numerous pranks were perpetrated.

The young people arrived at Newberg Saturday evening and are visiting the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clemenson. With justifiable pride Will has been introducing his wife to old time friends and receiving hearty congratulations.

Pier-Trueblood Nuptials.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday evening, June 22nd, at the Sunnyside Congregational church, Portland, when Elizabeth Trueblood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund A. Trueblood, was united in marriage to Mr. Stanhope Stevens Pier, the bride being well known to many Newberg people. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. J. Staub at 8:30 o'clock in the presence of a large number of friends.

The church was beautifully decorated, the altar being a mass of white and pink roses, potted palms and Oregon holly. Just before the bridal party entered the church "Oh! Promise Me" was beautifully rendered by Miss Allie Fowler. The bride and her attendants entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March played by Miss Charlotte Layton.

The bride, accompanied by her father, was dressed in white silk Crepe de Chine and wore a white Tulle veil—She carried an arm bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor, Miss Lula Trueblood, sister of the bride, looked charming in a gown of pink Crepe de Paris and carried a bouquet of pink La France rose buds.

Immediately after the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 891 East Taylor St. for the bridal party and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanhope S. Pier will be at home to their friends after August 1st, at 186 E. 32nd St. Portland, Oregon.

The first bowling contest ever held in Newberg took place in Van Leavitt's finely furnished club room last Friday evening. The visitors were from Portland and were Messrs. Kneys, Gaillard, Hysmith, Boulanger and McManamy. The Newberg bowlers were L. M. Smith, C. A. Parrett, Chas. Pressnall, B. F. Terry and Arthur Heater. The Portlanders won the first game by a score of 710 to 695, the second, of 695 to 675 and the third by a score of 696 to 632. The highest score in any one game was 171, made by Bert Terry. The best score of the evening was 466, made by Gaillard, Terry coming in second with a score of 443. The contest was witnessed by a large number of spectators and was close enough to be interesting.

A Strong Heart.

Is assured by perfect digestion. Indigestion swells the stomach and puffs it up against the heart. This causes shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and general weakness. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure cures indigestion, relieves the stomach, takes the strain off the heart and restores it to a full performance of its function naturally. Kodol increases the strength by enabling the stomach and digestive organs to digest, assimilate and appropriate to the blood and tissues all of the food nutriment. Tones the stomach and digestive organs. Sold by F. H. Caldwell & Co.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tone the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
