Mrs. H. J. Austin, who has been troubled with an abscess in the side, was operated upon in Portland last Thursday. The result was well nigh fatal and for a while her life was despaired of, but she rallied and it is a pleasure to report that she is now improving.

The Friends church was filled with a large audience Sunday morning and evening to hear Mrs. Sukhoda Banarjee of India give the marvelous story of her life and hear of her courageous work as a missionary among her benighted people. A wife at five years of age, a mother twice at thirteen, a rejected wife soon after because she was not the mother of a son, a social outcast—she came in contact with Christian teaching and her life began anew. Understanding her own people, she has opened up mission work where no white person could go, braving all dangers. She is now but twenty-five years of age and on realizing something of what she has already accomplished in the face of tremendous obstacles, her hearers could not but feel ashamed that they had done so little. Though she began studying the English language since Christmas, Mrs. Banarjee talks readily in public and with much expression. She is now engaged in raising funds to carry on her rescue work in India. At the close of the Sunday evening service, a collection was taken which amounted to more than fifty dollars.

The Oregon Handle Manufacturing Co. has just increased its capacity by installing a new lathe.

E. Spaulding, who for many months has been stricken with paralysis, died Tuesday forenoon. The funeral was held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. F. C. Stanard. In the death of Mr. Spaulding the community loses a citizen universally respected and honored.

A very nice, quiet wedding occurred at the home of Axum Newby, Sunday July 3rd, when their highly esteemed daughter, Miss Melinda, was united in marriage to J. Harlan Smith, one of Newberg's fine young men. Just as the clock struck four the bride and groom marched into a nicely decorated parlor to beautiful strains of music. The contracting parties stood under a wedding bell of mistletoe, where Rev. James P. Price of Salem, in the presence of relatives, conducted the ceremony which joined two lives in happy union. After congratulations, dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Newberg, he having purchased lots just north of W. L. Robertson's, on Edwards street, upon which he will build.

While intoxicated, Chas. Holst disturbed the peace of the Fourth of July celebrators Monday afternoon and after a lively scrimmage was put in the city bastille by Marshall Woods. The next morning he was brought before Recorder Pickett and not manifesting the proper spirit of contrition was fined twenty dollars. On inability to produce the coin Holst was again tendered the hospitality of the city. Last night his friends made up a purse, paid his fine, and he was given his liberty.

Cured of Chronic Diarrhoea After ten Years of Suffering.

"I wish to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mrs. Mattie Burge, of Martinsville, Va. "I suffered from chronic diarrhoea for ten years and during that time tried various medicines without obtaining any permanent relief. Last summer one of my children was taken with cholera morbus, and I procured a bottle of this remedy. Only two doses were required to give her intire relief. I then decided to try the medicine myself, and did not use all of one bottle before I was well and I have never since been troubled with that complaint. One cannot say too much in favor of that wonderful medicine." This remedy is for sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Safeguard the Children.

Notwithstanding all that is done by boards of health and charitable inclined persons, the death rate among small children is very high during the hot weather of the summer months in the large cities. There is not probably one case of bowel complaint in a hundred, however, that could not be cured by the timely use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Mr. Frank Riggs, of Franklinville, N. Y., in speaking of this remedy said: "I have found it expedient to have a supply of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy on hand. It has been a family safeguard and while especially beneficial to children, it is equally good in adult cases. I recommend it cheerfully and without reservation." For sale by C. F. Moore & Co.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
