NEWBERG, YAMHILL COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 11, 1904.

NO. 39.

Local Events.

Hodson Bros. offer some splendid bargains for a short time.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hoodenpyl of West Chehalem, on August 6th, a daughter.

You don't pay any more for your goods with chairs than you did without them at Porter & Larkin's.

Master Melvin Ogden of Portland has been spending the week here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Nathan White.

Call and see those new watches at Heacock's jewelry store. Just what you want. Greatly reduced prices this month.

Herbert Coffin, at present at Dayton, has engaged to work for Druggist C. F. Moore, and ere long will again be seen in his old position.

Mrs. T. H. Gardner, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. C. B. Wilson, went up to Willamina Tuesday evening to see her sister, Mrs. Robbins, who is seriously ill.

Jesse Edwards is arranging to put up a one-story business building on First street, between the Douglas photograph gallery and the Pressnell store. It is to be occupied by Mark M. Heacock, the jeweler and optician.

H. W. Johnston, who came up here from Southern California a few months ago, where he had been spending the winter, expects to leave with his family in a few days for their old home in Northwestern Arkansas. He likes Oregon very well and says it is likely that they will be back here within a couple of years.

Geo. H. Westerfield, who has been running a blacksmith shop at Dayton, moved to Newberg last week and has begun operations in the west end blacksmith shop. In noting his departure the Dayton Herald says: Mr. Westerfield is an expert horse-shoer and has had a great deal of experience in that line of work, having at one time, while in Salem, done a great part of the work of shoeing race and other horses that were at the state fair grounds. As there is much more work of that kind to be done at Newberg than here, he makes the change.

Dr. R. W. Harrold, a Chicago dentist of many years' experience, has made the purchase of Dr. H. C. Dixon's property, including both the business building and fixtures and the cottage back of it which is now in course of construction. Dr. Dixon will retain possession for a short time, after which he will return to Grants Pass and take up practice there again. Having just become nicely located in his new quarters, his selling out was a general surprise. Dr. Harrold's family, consisting of a wife and three children, are in Chicago, and it is understood will not come on for some time. The new dentist will probably build or purchase other residence property, as the Dixon cottage will be too small for his family.

An event in high Salvation Army circles, the marriage of Sergeant-Major Phoebe Mitchell, a former Newberg girl, to Treasurer Peter Vanderkelen, took place in Portland last Friday evening, prominent mention of which was made in the city papers. Brigadier-General Mrs. Stilwell of Los Angeles pronounced the couple husband and wife "in the name of God and the Salvation Army." The wedding was publicly performed in the barracks, prettily decorated for the glad occasion, the bride and groom appearing in regulation army uniform. In the marriage vow they promised that the union should in no way come between them and their work in the Salvation Army. After the ceremony the bride stepped forward and addressed the large and motley audience, followed briefly by the groom.

Special bargains in phonographs and records at Heacock's jewelry store.

Owen Maris and Curtis Parker drove up to Rosedale Saturday and spent Sunday with college friends of that place.

There are three different chairs to be had at Porter & Larkin's and you can just as well have them all without any extra expense to yourself.

Two hundred cords, or any part thereof, dry four foot wood for sale. Wood may be seen at Springbrook station. See Porter Skinner, or call Bell Phone.

E. A. Ellis completed his contract for the excavation work for the new city reservoir Friday, and the contractors began operation on the concrete work the fore part of this week.

While out buggy riding last Friday evening the Misses Maud and Emma Dorrance and M. O. Pickett came to grief. When driving down Wynooski street the gray trotter became frightened at some bicyclists and wheeling suddenly, pitched the occupants of the rig into the ditch. The driver suffered a badly bruised shoulder and a slightly disfigured face and Miss Emma Dorrance was rather severely shaken up. The buggy was pretty badly demolished.

Threelively rigs carried a lively crowd of Newberg young ladies up to the La Fayette locks Friday afternoon where on the grassy banks of the Yamhill a royal picnic supper was spread, the party returning in the "cool of the evening." The picnickers were the Misses Ione Hill, Anna and Grace Dudley, Nervia Wright, Ethel Smith, Anna Terrell, Mabel Gardner, Ione Woods, Lelia Littlefield, Anna Craven, Helena Ferguson, Ruth and Katherine Romig, Amy Heater, Nora Parker, Jennie McGregor, Mellic Douglas and Sibyl and Bernice Woodward.

J. I. Hadley, of Springbrook, has the thanks of the office for a basket of nice peaches.

See those drummer samples of shirts at Porter & Larkin's, $1.50 and $1.25 values for 75 cents.

Ralph Maris, who had been working in the harvest fields of Morrow county, came home last Friday.

Abner Blair last week moved his family to the property of his father, J. Kinley Blair, for whom they will make a home.

Rev. Herbert Cash, who is to take the pastorate of the Friends church the first of the month, has rented the D. H. Turner house, close by the church.

Everett White, who returned last week from a business trip to Moro, Sherman county, reports good crops and prosperous conditions in Eastern Oregon.

The Misses Mary and Lavinia Williams returned home from McMinnville Saturday morning where they had been visiting their sister, Mrs. J. W. Evans.

Mrs. Louis Balsiger, who had been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. McNay, returned to her home at White Salmon, Washington, Saturday.

Rev. J. F. Day, a former Newberg pastor now located at Hillsboro, will go to La Grande the first of September where he will serve as pastor of the Baptist church.

Miss Cora Dunham arrived Friday evening from Berkeley, California, and will again be in Pacific College on the opening of the school year the latter part of next month.

W. M. Woodworth, who arrived in Oregon not many months ago from Nebraska, and who has been a resident of Newberg but a few weeks, has caught the fever and is erecting a cottage on a lot which he has purchased just east of the public school grounds.
