Local Events.

Orland Heacock went up to Pendleton the latter part of last week to work in Glenn Winslow's jewelry store.

Our lady attendant has some fine muslin underwear to show to the ladies of Newberg when in the store of Porter & Larkin's.

The attention of those desiring osteopathic treatment is called to the card of Drs. Patterson & Eells of Portland, which appears in the Graphic.

Miss Maud Wills and Mrs. F. H. Buchanan took the Polk county teachers' examinations at Dallas last week. The latter's papers will be forwarded to this county.

Elihu Roberts and D. W. Heston, former Newberg residents, who now live in Moores Valley, have the contract for putting in the mutual telephone company's line from North Yamhill to McMinnville.

Aubrey Kramien and Chas. Morris, who had been spending a few weeks making improvements on their Tillamook county claims, got home Friday. They peeled some sixteen hundred pounds of chittim bark while out.

A. P. Johnson, who had been helping run their thresher in the Carlton neighborhood, returned to Corvallis last Friday. He reports an average yield of only about sixteen bushels of wheat to the acre. The best threshed went twenty-four bushels.

Claud Clark of Logan, a graduate of Oregon Agricultural College, came up to Newberg Friday and visited for a few days with relatives and friends. He is contemplating going back to Indiana and engaging in Y. M. C. A. work at Valparaiso.

Mrs. H. A. Bodmer of La Grande, sister of Mrs. Grace Barrie, died at a Portland hospital Sunday. She was a queenly woman of rare grace and kindness, whose acquaintances were always her friends. She was known to many in Newberg.

The Newberg Smiths appear to be getting clannish. A cottage is going up for J. T. Smith just east of the new residence of Allen Smith, and J. Harlan Smith is expected to follow suit shortly on adjoining lots. They are colonizing a good part of town.

Herbert Coffin now occupies his old place in Moore's drug store. He was graduated with honors in Portland last June, and in addition to being a competent and reliable young man, is now a registered druggist and thoroughly prepared for his work.

The patriotic women of Newberg have answered the call relative to the city park proposition and are going to endeavor to do something. To this end a meeting of all the women of the churches of Newberg is called to take place next Thursday evening, August 25th, at 8 o'clock at the Baptist church. The call is made by the following named ladies, representing the different churches in more or less official capacity: Mrs. F. C. Stanard, Baptist; Mrs. A. T. McNay, Methodist; Mrs. Rose Bryan, Presbyterian; Mrs. C. W. Train, Free Methodist; Mrs. W. E. Terrell, Friends; Mrs. J. M. Rittenhouse, Adventist; Mrs. S. A. Ullery, Brethren. All the ladies of the town should attend the meeting and give the movement an impetus which will insure success. No worthier public enterprise could engage their attention at present.

Clarence Butts are at home in their new residence.

Sarg Britt, who is off on a two weeks' vacation, is at home this week.

They are good oak chairs at Porter & Larkin's and you get them free.

C. F. Moore and family returned from the coast the first of the week, Mrs. Moore stopping off at Sheridan to see her sick mother.

There are three different chairs to be had at Porter & Larkin's and you can just as well have them all without any extra expense to yourself.

C. W. Skelton has sold his confectionery store to J. M. Rittenhouse, who has also purchased the building comprising it and Vestal's barber shop.

W. A. Roberts and son Frank, of Eugene, cousins of S. W. Newhouse, came down to Newberg last week and have been looking the valley over with a view to locating.

The new station agent, O. L. Darling, is at the helm, having come up from Grants Pass to take this position. G. W. Cutts is again at his old post of duty at Shedd's.

Lewis Hanson and wife went to Marion Tuesday, where they will visit with relatives for a couple of weeks. B. E. Nosler will carry the mail and express in the meantime.

The Edison phonograph people have reduced the price of their records to 35c. They are the best. C. F. Moore has a nice line of them, also phonographs. The kind that talk for themselves.

Albert Parker has rented a part of J. E. Pressnall's art paint store and is stocking it up with Japanese goods—bamboo ware, China baskets, ebony boxes—in fact, all those pretty, ornamental and useful goods made by these progressive men of the Mikado's kingdom. The agency of the celebrated Irwin folding bath tub has been secured by him. Two other lines of goods on the way.

Not many Newberg people realize how much of an industry W. B. Sims has started here as a florist. He says little, but from the time he started his gardens on North Meridian street last year he has worked faithfully and is already getting good returns. He markets his flowers almost altogether in Portland, sweet peas having been his stock in trade so far. He has shipped every other day since the first of June, and from his gardens over one hundred thousand sprigs of this fragrant flower have found their way to Portland florists. Four or five young ladies have been employed cutting them. Asters will be the next flowers for market. The carnations will soon be housed in the new conservatory and their blooming held back until winter, when prices are high. Of course it takes longer to get the roses started. The industry is steadily expanding under Mr. Sims' careful supervision, and when once thoroughly established will be no mean addition to Newberg's varied lines of enterprise.
