The Home Savings Banks have arrived at Chehalem Valley Bank—Call and get one and start a bank account. $1.00 starts you.

Morris & Smith have made the sale of the Grafe house on the east side of South Main street to C. H. Ellis.

James Duncan has put up a neat shoe blacking chair for Earl Campbell which will be installed in Vestal's barber shop.

Hollingsworth & Cooper have been making some alterations in their store building and now have a complete glass front.

Dr. R. W. Harrold will take possession of his new dental parlors the first of the week, soon after which Dr. H. C. Dixon and family will move back to Grants Pass.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Kirk expect to leave within a few weeks with their son Arthur for New Mexico, in the hope that the warm dry climate will restore the latter's health.

Four young mocking birds, the kind which makes the music in the Southland, were received by express by E. H. Woodward last evening. They came all the way from sunny Kansas and were sent by his brothers who visited here in the spring. The birds got through in good shape, and the day will be waited for impatiently when they are old enough to show what they can do.

Miss Maggie McKenzie left a few days ago for New Mexico, in which state she is to take the position of matron in a college.

W. W. Hollingsworth and family have been spending a couple of weeks at Johnson's mineral springs near La Fayette. They find the mineral water very beneficial.

A subject of great importance to Newberg and vicinity will be discussed by Will E. Purdy, our new real estate man, at Crater's hall, Sunday evening, August 28th. All are cordially invited.

The regular meeting of the Prohibition Alliance has been postponed until Thursday night of next week—September 1st. Mr. E. S. Craven will speak of the National Prohibition Convention. All members are urged to be present.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector J. W. Hobbs is said to be making a record for being the crack all-around fisherman out at Newport from the biggest deep-sea catch to the champion taker of trout by fly or troll.

Dr. H. J. Minthorn writes from Newport of his intention to move to Metlakatla, Alaska, and engage in work with the missionary, Wm. Duncan, with whom he was connected a few years ago. Newberg people will read this news note with much regret.

J. L. Aldrich has sold his home on South River street to Mr. Needham, who is superintending the installing of the machinery at the new sawmill. Mr. Aldrich in turn bought M. H. Pinney's home place farther up the street. Mr. Pinney is arranging to build a residence just north of his lumber yard, near the depot.

The Barrell families, notice the plural number, got home from a combined wedding and coasting trip Saturday evening. Adelard Barrell, the groom, was sick a good share of the time, which greatly marred the pleasure of the outing for him. The Graphic has its compositor back again, and she has promised not to do that way any more.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Albert arrived Tuesday evening from New York and are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Emmerson. They intend to locate in this vicinity.

Rev. Mark Noble of Corvallis has been visiting his former parishioners here this week, and met with the Baptists in their prayer meeting Wednesday evening.

Mrs. J. T. Osborn and daughter Miss Bertha Cox arrived home from their Southern California trip last evening. The latter leaves in the morning for Seattle, where she will join Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Foster and Miss Martha Hunnicut of Whittier, California, and accompany them to Deering, Alaska, where Mrs. Foster has inaugurated a successful missionary work. The latter's sister, Miss Hunnicut, and Miss Cox will teach in the mission school.

Here's too'd for reflection for the boys. Two or three years ago a Portland youth, Gordon Burrus by name, a smart, slick looking chap, was sent up here to school. He couldn't keep his hands off of little things not his own and was sent home. Since then he has been in more or less trouble of the same nature, until finally in the spring he was caught stealing merchandise in a city store, for which offense he was last week sentenced to spend a year in the state penitentiary. The young man is reaping the natural harvest of the petty pilfering of his boyhood.

In answer to a call made in the churches Sunday morning, the ladies of Newberg gathered at the college boarding hall Tuesday morning, and took part in a general quilting party for the benefit of the dormitory. The work was done in the shade of the oak trees, some of the workers took their dinners, and all agreed that the affair was as pleasant from a social standpoint as it was profitable. It had been expected that two days would be necessary for the work but so hearty was the response that it was practically done in one—for which spirit of help and co-operation, especially that manifested by the ladies of the other churches, the management and friends of the college are very grateful.

W. E. Purdy brought suit against A. Bowman for commission to the amount of two hundred dollars, claiming to have fulfilled all conditions in the contract for the sale of Mr. Bowman's Chehalem mountain farm. The latter contended that he had not subscribed to all the conditions as alleged by Mr. Purdy and that there was no sale. The case was tried Monday and Monday night, the jury, Geo. Sykes, M. P. Elliott, W. H. Nelson, Ernest Hill, C. C. Ferguson and W. A. Moomaw, deciding against the plaintiff. The latter's attorneys were M. O. Pickett and E. E. Miller of Portland. Mr. Bowman being represented by Clarence Butt and L. F. Hall. Mr. Purdy says he will appeal the case.

Easy Pill

Easy to take and easy to act is that famous little pill DeWitt's Little Early Risers. This is due to the fact that they tonic the liver instead of purging it. They never gripe nor sicken, not even the most delicate lady, and yet they are so certain in results that no one who uses them is disappointed. They cure torpid liver, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, headache, malaria and ward off pneumonia and fevers.
