A 50c tea for 25c at the Blue store.

Born, on Saturday, October first, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Prather, a son.

Don't forget those beautiful hats at the Misses Hutchens' are going very fast.

The Rex district school opened Monday morning with a full attendance with Miss Grace Dudley as teacher.

You can take comfort in one of those "Morris" chairs Porter & Larkin are giving away with cash purchases.

At the M. E. conference held at Eugene last week Rev. H. Gould was returned to his Newberg pastorate.

Woodard Charles has purchased a lot of A. P. Oliver north of the public school, upon which he is building a cottage.

Mrs. Cader Powell and her sister Miss Kirker of Portland, visited in town a few days ago with their cousin Mrs. J. W. Forsyth and family.

W. J. Stater, who recently leased his West Chehalem farm, moved the first of the week to what he termed the burnt timber district of La Fayette.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boothby of Lexington, who had been visiting here for a few days with their son J. T. Boothby and family, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. J. H. Rees arrived home Saturday evening from a two month's visit in the east, most of which was spent at Vermilion Grove, Illinois. She also visited the world's fair a few days.

Lost, thirty-five sheep, marked with the red letter A, some on rump and some on side. A reward will be given to anyone giving information leading to their recovery. A. Bowman.

Will Rees left Monday on a visit to Indiana, his home state, and will attend the St. Louis fair before returning. In the meantime Mrs. Rees and children will visit relatives at Monroe, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Edwards went up to Dayton Friday to conduct the funeral exercises of the twin babies of Roy Martin who were poisoned on lye at Vancouver, Washington, some days previous.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hinshaw, the former a brother of Mrs. W. E. White and Mrs. T. E. Wright, arrived Saturday from Golden-dale, Washington, bringing their daughters, the Misses Cora and Amy, whom they have placed in Pacific College. They have been visiting here a few days before returning home.

A. P. Johnson made the purchase Saturday of the Adrian Bowman farm on Chehalem mountain and has rented the same for a period of four years to Chris Hanson. At the end of that time when Andy's son Clarence shall have finished his course in the State Agricultural College at Corvallis, we will expect to see them in old Yamhill again.

D. C. Atkins of Chehalem mountain, who takes great interest in making horticultural experiments, sent down some fine samples of the new sugar prune, in an evaporated state, the other day. If some big sounding, French name could be substituted for the common and offending word, prune, they would make good sellers in eastern confectionery stores.

The sports sallied forth at break of day Saturday in search of the gay pheasant and returns from the firing lines were not long in coming in. At about nine o'clock Chas. Leavitt came driving into town at high speed bringing Ernest, the fifteen year old son of Peter Segesenman of Chehalem mountain, who was the first victim of the day's sport. He had wounded a bird, and in his excitement was making after it, pulling the gun after him. In some way the trigger was pulled setting off the other charge and incidentally taking off one of the boy's index fingers. It was bad, but the wonder is it was not the undertaker's services instead of the surgeon's whose services were in demand.

Umbrellas! Come and see our prices at the Blue store.

Rev. S. W. Potter preached at the Rex school house Sunday morning.

J. W. Hobbs of Eugene, of the internal revenue department, spent Monday in Newberg.

It comes off to-night—the entertainment by the Misses Lytle and Walton of Portland. Crater's hall.

Our lady attendant has some fine muslin underwear to show to the ladies of Newberg when in the store of Porter & Larkin's.

Local hunters did not have their usual success on the first day of the new season. Some of the old time sports came in without a feather.

Ladies you will find a fresh and dainty line of millinery at Mrs. I. A. Horton's where you will always find best goods at best prices. Be sure and call.

Wm. Wilson and family took their departure Tuesday morning for San Diego, California, their future home, where they will be engaged in the hotel business.

For Sale—Team of mules, weight 1760 pounds: sound and true. A bargain. Must be sold. Apply to Thomas Herd, R. F. D. No. 3, Newberg. Mutual Phone 176.

The enrollment at the public school has jumped up to the four hundred mark this week, with more pupils in sight. It looks like the tenth teacher would be needed before long.

A bar fell from the hand of the express messenger when the express was being loaded on Tuesday morning's train, striking Agent O. L. Darling on the head and making an ugly scalp wound.

Miss Lytle scored a big success as Queen Esther in the cantata of that name in Portland last winter. Hear her at Crater's hall to-night. She is to be accompanied on the piano by Prof. C. W. Kantner.

Miss Rose Kruger and brother Leland left Monday for Manitowoc, Wisconsin, where they will make their home for a year with relatives and attend school. Their father, W. C. Kruger, accompanied them to Portland.

G. W. Baker and family and Miss Lillian Heacock who came out from Tillamook county last week, started out south for California on an overland trip Friday for the benefit of the latter's health who is threatened with consumption.

The county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in the Baptist church in Newberg on Friday and Saturday, October 14 and 15. Convention opens at 10:30 a. m., Friday, with a consecration meeting. In the afternoon will be given the president's address, and at night a lecture by Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, national lecturer and organizer. Bring your lunch and spend the day.

Last Thursday evening Rev. T. Brouillette's driving nag was standing in front of Brunzel's meat market, and becoming impatient waiting for its driver, started home. Some bystanders in undertaking to stop it made enough racket to frighten the faithful animal, a runaway resulting. The old horse measured its length on the corner by the laundry, and was with some difficulty put on its feet again. Both it and the vehicle were laid up for repairs.

N. E. Britt arrived home from his eastern trip the first of the week, he having been in attendance at the national G. A. R. encampment at Boston after which he visited relatives in New York. He is delighted with his trip and says he simply had the one great time of his life. He speaks in the highest terms of the generous treatment and hospitality shown the old veterans by the Bostonese. During the war Mr. Britt was a member of three different New York regiments, the remnants of which joined and marched together in the great parade in which were seventeen thousand veterans. Mr. Britt was the only one in attendance from this state, and with his Oregon badge as a distinguishing mark, he did not want for attention.

THE COZY KIND

Every one wants his home to look well and to be cozy. The furniture stock of some houses yields only the cheerless, ungraceful patterns—things that are quite as uncomfortable to use as to look at. Ours is different. You'll like the range, variety, and the numberless little comforts we show.
