

AUTUMN WEDDINGS.

Cummings-Brouillette.

Amid decorations of autumnal foliage of green, red and gold, a most pleasing marriage took place at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, October 19th at the home of the bride's parents on Wynooski street, the contracting parties being Mr. Thomas L. Cummings, youngest son of one of Newberg's most esteemed families, and Miss Celina Brouillette, fourth daughter of Rev. and Mrs. T. Brouillette.

The bride, a staturesque blonde, was elaborately gowned in cream silk over cream satin. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses and wore the veil and orange blossoms. The groom was attired in conventional black. The officiating clergyman was Rev. T. Brouillette father of the bride and the beautiful ring ceremony was used.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Charles Lapp, sister of the bride, the couple entered the parlor unattended save by little May Whitten and Master Wendell Boyes, niece and nephew of the bride, in the capacity of flower bearers. The marriage vows were pledged in the presence of only the relatives and immediate friends of the contracting parties.

A beautiful little home awaited the happy pair, and after a sumptuous wedding supper, they were driven away to commence life in their own cottage.

Both the bride and groom are popular and we unite with their many friends in wishing them happiness and prosperity through life.

A GUEST.

Sykes-Horton.

At the home of the bride's parents in Newberg last evening, October 19, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the contracting parties, one of the prettiest weddings of the season occurred, when Miss Harriet Esther Horton and Mr. Nelson J. Sykes, two of Newberg's most popular young people, were united in marriage.

At the appointed time the couple took their position in the tastefully decorated parlor, the guests standing while Rev. F. C. Stanard pronounced the impressive ceremony which made them husband and wife, the groom sealing the vows by placing the beautiful wedding ring on the finger of his bride. The latter was beautifully attired in pearl gray tulle over silk.

After congratulations were extended, the guests were invited to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding feast was spread.

The happy young couple have a host of friends who will be glad to know that they will make their home in Newberg.

Doubtless no more complete surprise was ever sprung on an unsuspecting public, the issuing of the announcements this morning being the first intimation which even the closest friends of Mr. and Mrs. Sykes had of the happy affair.

Smith-Bryan.

A very pretty wedding took place on Sunday, October 16, 1904, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carey, La Fayette, Oregon, when their grand-daughter, Kate A. Bryan was united in marriage to Orvil O. Smith, of Newberg. Just at 12:30 p. m. the bridal party entered the parlor, which was very prettily decorated for the occasion, with autumn foliage. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jesse Edwards of Newberg. The bride was attired in a very pretty dark blue tailor dress and carried white carnations. The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The bridesmaid, Miss Edna Perkins, was attired in light blue and carried pink roses. Clarence Bryan, a brother of the bride, acted as best man. An elaborate wedding dinner followed congratulations. There were about thirty-five guests present, and the happy couple received many very pretty presents. They will reside at their new home on a very pretty farm located about one mile from La Fayette.

Cummins-Blaylock.

The romance connected with D. W. Cummins' trip to the world's fair has blossomed into a wedding, which took place last week at Braymer, Missouri, when our "Uncle Web" was joined in holy wedlock to Mrs. Mary Blaylock. The couple is expected home in the near future.

Hiatt-Jessup.

Miss Lillian Jessup, who will be remembered by many Newberg people as the daughter and youngest child of Dr. Elias Jessup and wife, is to be married this evening at the Friends church of Whittier, California, to Mr. Albert Hiatt.

Stanley-Lewis.

Miss Grace R. Lewis, youngest sister of Prof. Chas. E. Lewis, is to be married this evening at the latter's home at Paonia, Colorado, to Carl E. Stanley, well known as a former resident of this community.

C. H. Barrie, Deceased.

Charles H. Barrie, born at Watertown, New York, January 23, 1838, died here last Thursday after a long and gradual decline in health.

He moved from Minnesota to Oregon in 1892, settling in Newberg where he has resided ever since. He was united in marriage at Winona, Minnesota, October 25, 1868, to Elizabeth Coe. He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, Elizabeth Barrie of Newberg; a son, J. W. Barrie of Portland, Oregon; a sister, Mrs. H. Lashier of Friend, Oregon; a brother, William Barrie of Little Falls, Minnesota.

He was not a man of public life, but in his home he was ever found a kind and loving husband and father, ever sacrificing for the comfort and pleasure of those he loved.

The funeral services were conducted from the M. E. church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, Rev. Gould officiating. The pallbearers were A. P. Oliver, P. A. Morris, J. C. McCrea, W. C. Kruger, C. A. Butt and J. M. Rittenhouse.

What is More Desirable

Than a pretty suburban home where you have the freedom of the country and at the same time the conveniences of town. The suburban home not only affords you more freedom, but gives you many more privileges in poultry raising, gardening and diversified farming than a home in town. When you take into consideration that the prices of a lot in town and a five acre tract in Miss M. E. McDowell's Sunnyside subdivision are about the same, and both in the school district of Newberg why delay securing one of these desirable tracts at the reasonable prices they are being sold for, until in a short time you will be compelled to buy further out at advanced price? Get the best while you have a chance.

Can You Eat?

J. B. Taylor, a prominent merchant of Chriesman, Tex., says: "I could not eat because of a weak stomach. I lost all strength and ran down in weight. All that money could do was done, but all hope of recovery vanished. Hearing of some wonderful cures effected by use of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, I concluded to try it. The first bottle benefited me, and after taking four bottles, I am fully restored to my usual strength, weight and health." Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat and cures. Sold by F. H. Caldwell & Co.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

No one who is acquainted with its good qualities can be surprised at the great popularity of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It not only cures colds and grip effectually and permanently, but prevents these diseases from resulting in pneumonia. It is also a certain cure for croup. Whooping cough is not dangerous when this remedy is given. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. It is also pleasant to take. When all of these facts are taken into consideration it is not surprising that people in foreign lands, as well as at home, esteem this remedy very highly and very few are willing to take any other after having once used it. Saves Two From Death.

"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Haviland, of Armonk, N. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage, also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other on earth. Infallible for coughs and colds, 50c and $1.00 bottles guaranteed by F. H. Caldwell & Co.
