her sister, Mrs. Jas. Comic and family.

Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Price of Portland visited in Newberg over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs.
John Larkin and Dr. and Mrs.
Geo. Larkin.

berg Enterprise, of which he will take possession the first of the month.

Mr. Maring of the firm of Maring & Blake, designers and litho-ples of the work they are putting out.

daughter, Belle, moved down to Newberg from the Rosedale neighborhood the latter part of last week and are making their home with J. F. Taylor on North Meridian street.

Dr. A. Mills rode out horseback from his Lincoln county homestead the latter part of last week for a short visit with his parents, brothers and sisters. He reports that he and family are thriving and enjoying life on the frontier.

November is a good time to set out cherry trees. For good, clean, well-rooted stock, see Porter Skinner, Springbrook. Trees true to name. Grafted with scions taken from bearing trees.
Prices less than nurseries charge.

Rural Mail Carrier Luther Charles brought in some apples grown by J. A. Kersey the other day which do not at all suffer in comparison with those on display in the postoffice, brought from Hood River. They are of the Twenty Ounce Pippin variety. Prize winning apples can be raised here all right—if growers would only take the pains.

Oscar L. Cox, secretary of the city Y. M. C. A. at Salt Lake, Utah, arrived with his wife Monday evening and visited over Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. J. T.
Osborn. The occasion of their brief trip west was the death of L. H. Buddemer of Portland, father of Mrs. Cox, who fell and dislocated his neck Saturday a week ago, while watching a football game at Berkeley, California.

In their wandering over the house last Thursday two of Granville Everest's children came across some rat poison which their parents had thought to place beyond the reach of the little tads. Of course the natural thing was to make a gastric experiment with the new discovery which well nigh proved fatal before the services of a physician could be secured. In this instance it was hardly a case of "rough on rats," despite the label.

On next Sunday evening in Crater's hall a big local option rally will be held at eight o'clock.
The churches of the town will adjourn their Sunday evening meetings or rather meet together in the one big meeting. It is to be a laymen's service, no minister appearing on the program. The meeting is to be presided over by Mayor L. M. Parker. The subject of prohibition in Yamhill county interests all, and Crater's hall should be packed on this occasion.

Read Patterson & Jones' ad for Saturday specials.

Umbrellas! Come and see our prices at the Blue store.

to clean the saloons out of Yamhill county.

he is occupying. When completed, it will be for rent.

with the weight and cares of eighty-six years, is visiting in-town with his old friend R. Richards. He is the father of J. Thorburn Ross of Portland.

R. B. Linville, who has sold out his racket store to Mrs. M.
J. Nash, moved yesterday to property purchased of E. L.
Withers in the west part of town.
Mrs. Nash has bought the Sawyer building in which is the racket stock of goods.

Mrs. H. D. Harford's mother, Mrs. Dickinson, and sister, Miss Patience Dickinson, arrived Saturday evening from Kansas City, and will make their home here for a year, which means of course that they will become permanent residents. They are greatly delighted with Oregon.

At the meeting of the republican club last Friday evening it was decided to have United States Senator Chas. W. Fulton deliver a political address here on the evening of November 4th.
This means a ringing speech in which will be found the keynote of true republicanism.

Mrs. Cynthia Meador of Los Angeles, California, arrived Saturday and is making a visit with relatives in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Morris, James Vestals and the Maris and Graphic families. From here she goes to Tacoma to make an extended visit with near relatives.

A photographer was in town Tuesday taking pictures of the different rooms of the public school, of the teachers and of the building. He is taking such views of all the schools in the state, thus making a grand collection which will constitute a feature of Oregon's educational exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair next year.

Newberg should be well represented at McMinnville Saturday at the Yamhill county prohibition rally. This is the prohibition stronghold of the county, and the people down this way will have to furnish a good share of the enthusiasm. A great deal is at stake. Now is the time to act for good government and a high standard of citizenship. If possible arrange to be in McMinnville on Saturday.

The Margarita Fischer Theatrical Company, well known through the valley, made its first visit to Newberg this week, appearing in Crater's hall on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights to large audiences, which were well pleased with the performances. The work of the company is clean and of much merit, and cannot be classed with the average theatrical troups which make the smaller cities.

A 50c tea for 25c at the Blue store.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Wright returned home to Baker City the first of the week after their visit here.

A gentleman named Reed arrived from Whittier, California, Saturday, and is looking for a location.

If you want your watch repaired by an experienced and careful workman, go to Reynolds the new jeweler.

Miss Anna Griffin of Wisconsin is a new arrival in Newberg who will spend the winter here with her sister, Mrs. W. B. Cory.

For sale—Five acres of land with a good new house. Inquire any day except Saturday of L. J.
Butterfield, South Wyooski St.

W. P. Ryan, who has been occupying the Moses Votaw house on River street, has leased the Newberg hotel and taken possession as landlord.

Prof. C. W. Kantner went down to Portland Wednesday to see his father, Rev. W. C.
Kantner, who had undergone a surgical operation in the city.

Now is the time to buy and enjoy the benefit of the first sale of the season, on Friday and Saturday, at Mrs. Horton's where you will always find good goods at good prices.

Nelson Sykes has purchased a corner lot of J. T. Smith on Third street just east of Claud Cummings' cottage and T. B. Cummings has a house already on the way for him. It promises to be a good one.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Evans are in receipt of an invitation to a K. of P. social in the city to-morrow night which they will attend. Mr. Evans will also attend the meeting of the G. A. R.
Sumner Post before returning.

M. Motschenbacher who recently purchased the Hunt property on the corner of Fifth street and the Dayton road, has had a large addition built to the house and is making of it a very roomy and presentable residence. Newcomers mean improvement.

The college boys are awakening an interest in football, and will play a game among themselves on the campus this evening, the school having been divided, for "rooting" as well as playing. The boys are trying to get up a game with the alumni for Thanksgiving and may arrange for a few games with outside teams.

Stewart Vaughan returned a few days ago from a visit with his son Will at North Bend, Coos county, where the latter has a position as cashier for a big lumbering company, a position which he has held for several years. Mr. Vaughan says business is lively at North Bend and that Will is doing well financially, he having made some profitable real estate investments.

J. H. Ackerman, state superintendent of public instruction, will be in Newberg Saturday, in company with County Superintendent L. R. Alderman, and will arrange with some of the residents west of town for bringing their children to the Newberg school. In the evening in the chapel of the college he will address the citizens of this community upon the subject of district consolidation. This is a matter which has been more or less discussed here for some time, and certainly one which should interest everybody. This will afford all a good opportunity of learning more of the system of consolidation and centralization which is being advocated.
