Local Events.

Miss May McGuire of Portland is visiting in Newberg with Dr. and Mrs. Geo. Larkin.

Millinery sale, Friday and Saturday of this week at Mrs. Horton's.

C. Cross of Dundee goes up head. His subscription to the Graphic is paid to May, 1907.

Wanted—A girl for general housework. Mrs. Motschenbacher, corner Fifth street and Dayton road. 51-2t

For sale—Five acres of land with a good new house. Inquire any day except Saturday of L. J. Butterfield, South Wynoski St.

The usual amount of hard work was performed Monday night about town by the boys who were sure they were having just lots of fun.

E. R. Horton has the foundation in for a cottage on his lot on Second street south of the postoffice, which when completed will be for sale or rent.

J. C. Lucas has sold the east part of his business building on the corner west of Parker's store to Mrs. I. A. Horton, who it is understood will occupy it with her millinery stock later on.

D. M. Hoots, who has been for a year at Fresno, California, but who claims Missouri as the land he hails from, is visiting in this vicinity with his brother Hiram Hoots. He is figuring on locating.

O. E. Carter, a young business man of Catalina Island, Southern California, is visiting here with E. M. and O. J. Hodson and families, Mrs. E. M. Hodson being his aunt. He is formerly of Plainfield, Indiana.

November is a good time to set out cherry trees. For good, clean, well-rooted stock, see Porter Skinner, Springbrook. Trees true to name. Grafted with scions taken from bearing trees. Prices less than nurseries charge.

Mrs. F. A. Elliott and son, John, arrived home last Thursday evening from an extended visit in Illinois. They were accompanied by Miss Mayne Elliott, sister of Frank and Orange, who will remain in Oregon an indefinite time.

In place of speaking here Friday night as was first arranged, and was announced by the Graphic last week, Senator C. W. Fulton will deliver a political address at Crater's hall this evening. This is the only political speech of the campaign at Newberg.

County Recorder D. H. Turner informed the Graphic man Saturday that by a margin of about twenty-five, more instruments were put on record in his office last month than in any previous month in the history of the office. Not much pre-election business stagnation in Yamhill.

The October number of the Idaho Magazine, published at Boise, presents a good half tone picture of O. V. Allen, republican candidate for the Idaho legislature, and gives him a page write-up. His colleague is Hon. J. H. Richards, president of the American Mining Congress. O. V.'s Newberg friends are glad to see him going to the front politically.

Seth Mills registered a package of eagle claws valued at twenty-five dollars or more to a San Francisco house Monday. When up in Alaska he shot over a hundred bald eagles, which he says are as thick as crows in a wheat field up there, and he has realized quite a little figure in the sale of their talons which are used in making various kinds of trinkets.

The "old white school house" north of the depot has been recently moved a little to the west and has been incorporated into a new dwelling by N. C. Christenson. The lots on which the school house stood have been purchased by Chas. Larkin, who some time ago made the sale of his Dundee farm, and he is preparing to erect thereon a residence.

The last big rally before election day—the meeting at the Friends church to-morrow evening.

Mrs. E. H. Prindle of Cape Horn, Washington, visited in town Monday with Mrs. I. A. Horton.

Mrs. E. L. Evans and sons, Ben and Arlie, visited at La Fayette over Sunday with W. J. Stater's family.

It interested in varnish for furniture or any inside work, ask Moomaw & Sons for a sample can of Chi-namel.

E. W. Cook who recently moved from here to Sellwood, made a business trip to Newberg the latter part of last week.

Mrs. Amelia Calkins arrived recently from New York to make a visit with her sons S. M. and C. S. Calkins and their families.

Mrs. H. E. McGrew underwent a surgical operation in a Portland hospital Tuesday from which she is rallying satisfactorily.

For Sale—Span of horses, with first-class set of harness, at a bargain. Enquire of Claud Ferguson, Geo. Westerfield or F. A. Crawford. 48-4t

There are still some very pretty hats at Mrs. Horton's and now is the time to buy as you get a reduction on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Tom Hester writes from Portland that along with other Halloween prank seekers there came to their home Monday evening a son to make glad the household.

Well, now we know the little harness maker doesn't have to give a ten per cent discount to get rid of his harness, for he has hired a first class mechanic to help keep up his stock.

Samuel Newby of Rosedale visited here over Sunday with his brother, Axum, and his daughter, Miss Mabel, who is in college. He started Monday morning on a visit to Iowa and Kansas.

Caspar Glawan, who was acquainted with Jo Bowman in Alaska, visited here a few days last week. He was on his way to the old country where he will make a few month's visit at his old home in Austria Hungary.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Way of El Modena, California, who are on their way home from a visit with relatives in Indiana and Iowa, stopped off the first of the week for a short visit with Mrs. Way's cousins, Mrs. A. E. Moore and E. H. Woodward, and with her aunt, Mrs. Wm. Macy at Dayton. Mrs. Way has been one of the clerks of California Yearly Meeting of the Friends church since it was established.

The prohibition rally at McMinnville Saturday was fairly well attended, the assembly room of the courthouse being comfortably filled. One of the most telling addresses heard in many a day on local option and prohibition was delivered by Rev. H. C. Shaffer of Portland. Following the address a county executive committee composed of Mayor Northrup and A. J. Hundsaker of McMinnville and President McGrew, Rev. H. Gould and Jesse Edwards of Newberg, was appointed to manage the work in the closing days of the campaign in Yamhill county. Newberg was by far the best represented of any outside point in the county. Among those in attendance from this vicinity were Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Stanard, Prof. and Mrs. H. N. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rorabaugh, W. C. and Miss Sibyl Woodward, President McGrew, Jesse Edwards, Professors E. Partington and W. E. Lawrence, Mrs. W. R. Scott, Mrs. M. Bowerman, Mrs. J. T. Rhoton, Mrs. N. F. Byers, Rev. H. Gould and son Vernon, Rev. Jos. Hall, H. M. Williams, Jas. Lewelling, John Gilbert, M. P. Elliott, J. F. Taylor, Walter Miles, C. A. Hodson, J. M. Rittenhouse, Jas. Vestal, N. L. Wiley, J. F. Pettingill, M. Terrell, E. S. Craven and J. T. Osborn.

Shaffer, the orator, speaks here to-morrow evening on the vital issue of prohibition in Yamhill. Friends church.

All books now in stock at half price, six hundred new books coming. A complete line of holiday and other books will arrive in a few weeks from the east, at J. M. Shaw's. 51-t

Announcements have been received of the marriage of Miss Mary Reece, who will be remembered here as the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles Reece, at New Providence, Iowa, on October 20th to Hubert M. Livingston.

E. S. Craven is energetically preparing to put in his own water system and light plant at his home north of town. He is digging a well ten feet in diameter and of good depth, from which he will have water piped over the house and he is contemplating installing a small dynamo later for electric lighting purposes.

E. C. Ward now has the prune business rounded up about to suit him. It looks like he had worked up something of a corner, he having purchased this season nearly two million pounds of the evaporated product, over half of which are Italians. His purchases have been made throughout this part of the Willamette Valley and in Southern Oregon.

H. C. Shaffer of Portland, the man who made such a hit at the McMinnville meeting Saturday, has been secured to speak in Newberg to-morrow night, Friday, on local option and prohibition. He makes out a strong case and is a pleasing speaker, driving home his points with sharp sallies of wit. Newberg has never heard a more convincing speech than he will make to-morrow night. The meeting is to be held in the Friends church.

Lyceum Course Announcement.

The W. Waugh Lauder entertainment, the first of the course, the nature of which was explained last week, will be given Monday, November 14. That all may have the advantage of this rare musical treat, the low rates of 35c for reserved seats, and 25c general admission have been made.

Take notice. The reserved seat plats will be opened at the drug stores on next Tuesday morning, November 8th, at eight o'clock. Remember the date and don't get left as many did last year on the Fisk entertainment.

We Blush.

Among all the reports we have seen from editors who attended the State Association meeting at Hood River and wrote up an account of their visit, the Newberg Graphic man seems to be entitled to the blue ribbon. His account makes one doubly sorry he was not there.—Forest Grove Times.

Let Us Show You.

Austin & Boyes, the new butchers at the old stand of the Newberg Meat Co., are ready to show you what satisfaction expert meat cutters can give. Their meats are the best. Both phones and free delivery to any part of town.

Thanks.

A rapidly growing business has made it necessary for the publishers of the Newberg Graphic to enlarge that already excellent newspaper to a six-column quarto. Brother Woodward and his son, Walter, deserve all the good things that are coming their way.—Polk County Observer.

FURNITURE THE COZY KIND

Every one wants his home to look well and to be cozy. The furniture stock of some houses yields only the cheerless, ungraceful patterns—things that are quite as uncomfortable to use as to look at. Ours is different. You'll like the range, variety, and the numberless little comforts we show.
