

Catarrh

Invites Consumption

It weakens the delicate lung tissues, deranges the digestive organs, and breaks down the general health.

It often causes headache and dizziness, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, and affects the voice.

Being a constitutional disease it requires a constitutional remedy.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Radically and permanently cures catarrh of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels, and more delicate organs.

"I was troubled with catarrh 20 years. Seeing statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla resolved to try it. Four bottles entirely cured me." WILLIAM SHERMAN, 1000 6th St., Milwaukee, Wis.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

Condition vs. Theory.

"Shay," began the loquacious party who had been trying to assume more than his share of liquid trouble, "I've (lie) got a the'ry 'bout (hic) whizzer matter—"

"To the station house with your theory," interrupted the policeman, as he gathered him in, "it's your conduct that confronts me."

Best in the World.

Cream, Ark., Nov. 7 (Special)—After eighteen months suffering from Epilepsy, Backache and Kidney Complaint, Mr. W. H. Smith of this place is a well man again and those who have watched his return to health unhesitatingly give all the credit to Dodd's Kidney Pills. In an interview regarding his cure, Mr. Smith says:

"I had been low for eighteen months with my back and kidneys and also Epilepsy. I had taken everything I knew of and nothing seemed to do me any good till a friend of mine got me to send for Dodd's Kidney Pills. I find that they are the greatest medicine in the world, for now I am able to work and am in fact as stout and strong as before I took sick."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidneys. Cured Kidneys cleanse the blood of all impurities. Pure blood means good health.

Bad men excuse their faults, good men will leave them.—Johnson.

CHRONIC SORES

Wheeling, W. Va., May 23, 1901.
Some years ago while at work I fell over a truck and severely injured both of my shins. My blood became poisoned as a result, and the doctor told me I would have running sores for life, and that if they were healed up the result would be fatal. Under this discouraging report I left off their treatment and resorted to the use of S. S. S. Its effects were prompt and gratifying. It took only a short while for the medicine to entirely cure up the sores, and I am not dead as the doctors intimated, nor have the sores ever broken out again. Some 12 years have elapsed since what I have described occurred. Having been so signally benefited by its use I can heartily recommend it as the one great blood purifier, mend it as the one great blood purifier, mend it as the one great blood purifier.

Care Schmulback Brewing Co.

Chronic sores start often from a pimple, scratch, bruise or boil, and while salves, washes and powders are beneficial, the unhealthy matter in the blood must be driven out or the sore will continue to eat and spread. S. S. S. reaches these old sores through the blood, removes all impurities and poisons, builds up the entire system and strengthens the circulation. S. S. S. is a blood purifier and tonic combined. Contains no mineral whatever but is guaranteed purely vegetable. If you have an old sore write us and our physicians will advise without charge. Book on diseases of the Blood free.

"He comes of a distinguished family, I believe." "Yes. His people have worn glasses for three generations."—Exchange.

"If you dare kiss me again I will call papa!" "I thought you said your father was in California?" "He is."—Houston Post.

First Doctor—Then we decide not to operate. Second Doctor—Yes. What do you think we ought to charge him for deciding not to operate?—Brooklyn Life.

Lady—I have nothing to give you, my poor man, but some cold sausages. Knight of the Road—Excuse me, mum, but don't your sign say, "Beware of the Dog?"

Clarinda—You can't keep a dog in your new flat? Florida—No, we had to give Fido away; but Frederick had his dear little bark put in our phonograph. —Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A teacher was explaining to a little girl how the trees developed their foliage in the springtime. "Oh, yes," said the little miss, "I understand; they keep their summer clothes in their trunks."

"Doctor," queried the inquisitive person, "do you believe that the cigarette habit causes weak minds?" "Not necessarily," replied the M. D.; "as a rule it merely indicates them."—Chicago Daily News.

"What's that racket down there?" shouted the old gentleman from the head of the stairs. "I think," promptly replied his up-to-date daughter, "that it was Bob dropping his voice when he proposed to me."

"Macintosh boasts a good deal about his family, doesn't he?" "Yes, I think he claims that the head of his family was the original Macintosh that Noah had with him during that rainy season."—Philadelphia Press.

Bridget—Why, Master Tommy, what ever is the matter? Tommy—I've hurt my hand in the hot water. Bridget—Shure, thin, it serves you right. You should have felt the water before you put your hand in!—Punch.

"What is love?" asked the sweet girl, who was looking for a chance to leap.

"Love," replied the old bachelor, "is a kind of insanity that makes a man call a two hundred pound female his little turtle dove."—Chicago News.

Mrs. Muggins—My husband is a perfect crank. Mrs. Buggins—All husbands are, my dear. Mrs. Muggins—But fancy a man who complains that my mustard plasters are not as strong as those his mother used to make!

Maud—See this ring? Archie gave it to me the other evening. Irene—I thought I recognized it. You'll find it has a rough place just under the setting that will make your finger sore. —Cincinnati Commercial Tribune.

A junior student—Cornell University. In rendering an account to his father of his last term's expenses, entered as an item: "Charity, thirty dollars." His father wrote back: "I fear that charity covers a multitude of sins."

"Do you think they'll be happy now they're married?" "Well, I don't see why not. They eat the same kind of breakfast food, take the same brand of dyspepsia tablets, and wear the same make of hygienic underwear."—Town Topics.

"I suppose, Senator," she said, "that you try to keep in touch with the financial interests of the country." "If I didn't, my dear girl, I'd have to cut down my livin' expenses or practice law a good deal harder than I do between sessions."—Ex.

A Little Rusty: "The bride seemed quite nervous, didn't she?" remarked the first Chicago girl. "Naturally," replied the other; "she's somewhat out of practice. It's the first time she's been married since last year."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Visitor—What a racket the steam makes clanking through the pipes! Flat Dweller (sighing)—Yes. It reminds me of one of Shakespeare's plays. Visitor—Which—"The Tempest?" Flat Dweller—No. "Much Ado About Nothing."—Town and Country.

A teacher in an East Side school in trying to explain the meaning of the word "slowly" illustrated it by walking across the floor. When he asked the class to tell him how he walked, a boy at the foot of the class shouted, "Bow-legged, sir."—Lippincott's.

"I lost my foot in the war," said the tramp, "and I'm trying to raise enough money to get out to California." "What do you want to go to California for?" asked the woman at the door. "Oh, I've heard that there are things which grow a foot in a day out there."—Yonkers Statesman.

Friend of the Family—I want to give your husband a birthday present. What do you think would please him most? Mrs. Kutely—Oh, a stickpin. He says he never has enough of them. Friend—What is his favorite stone? Mrs. Kutely—The emerald. (Hanging up the 'phone.) Isn't that lovely; I've always wanted an emerald pin!—Detroit Free Press.

Scene: Editor's sanctum. Printer (rushing in excitedly)—Here's a go, Johnson, the murderer, has just been found innocent, and the government has telegraphed a pardon. We've got the whole account of the hanging set up, with illustrations, and the form is on the press. Editor (coolly)—Don't get excited, man. Worthy of Emulation.

"What," asked the youth, "is the secret of your happiness and contentment?"

"I manage to be just deaf enough not to hear some things and blind enough not to see some others," answered the sage.

Son of a Samurai.

Admiral Togo was third son of Togo Kichizaemon, an admiral of the clan of Satsuma, and the father gave him the name of Heihachiro. He was born at Kogoshima on the 14th day of the 10th moon of the year of grace 1857. The gracious period of Meiji (which by interpretation means the era of enlightened reign) began in 1868 A. D. That was also the birth date of the new Nippon. After the sacred tradition of a samurai family, his mother took him to the shrine of a guardian deity and placed him upon the altar as the offering to his country and to the sword, that he might defend the land of the gods. Like many another boy of a samurai family, his military training dates back far beyond his memory.—Century.

Mrs. L. C. Glover, Vice Pres. Milwaukee, Wis., Business Woman's Association, is another one of the million women who have been restored to health by using Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: I was married for several years and no children blessed my home. The doctor said I had a complication of female troubles and I could not have any children unless I could be cured. He tried to cure me, but after experimenting for several months, my husband became disgusted, and one night when we noticed a testimonial of a woman who had been cured of similar trouble through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, he went out and bought a bottle for me. I used your medicine for three and one half months, improving steadily in health, and in twenty-two months a child came. I cannot fully express the joy and thankfulness that is in my heart. Our home is a different place now, as we have something to live for, and all the credit is due to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Yours very sincerely, Mrs. L. C. GLOVER, 614 Grove St., Milwaukee, Wis." Vice President, Milwaukee Business Woman's Ass'n.

Women should not fail to profit by the experience of these two women; just as surely as they were cured of the troubles enumerated in their letters, just so certainly will Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cure others who suffer from womb troubles, inflammation of the ovaries, kidney troubles, nervous excitability, and nervous prostration; remember that it is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that is curing women, and don't allow any druggist to sell you anything else in its place.

An Indiana Lady Tells of a Wonderful Cure:—

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: It is a pleasure for me to write and tell what your wonderful medicine has done for me. I was sick for three years with change of life, and my physician thought a cancerous condition of the womb. During these three years I suffered untold agony.

"I cannot find words in which to express my bad feelings. I did not expect to ever see another well day. I read some of the testimonials recommending your medicine and decided to write to you and give your treatment a trial.

"Before I had taken half a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, I began to sleep. I have taken now six bottles and am so well I can do all kinds of work."—MRS. LIZZIE HINKLE, Salem, Ind.

If there is anything in your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. Address is Lynn, Mass.; her advice is free and always helpful.

Tenant Paints the House.

A man recently took a house upon a lease in a certain crescent in London without examining the terms of his agreement as closely as he should. After a time the landlord called upon him and pointed out that he was bound to do all the outside painting at certain intervals. He protested, but it was "so nominated in the bond," and there was no help for him. After a good deal of thought he hired the painters and directed them to paint the whole of the front of the house red, white and blue—in stripes.

When it was finished the neighborhood—it was rather a fashionable part—was up in arms and the landlord was frantic. The tenant politely explained to him that there was nothing in the agreement about the color and that red, white and blue, in stripes, was his favorite combination, but he thought he might, perhaps, be better pleased with the painting of the back, which he proposed to color green, with yellow spots.

The landlord, who well knew that not another house could be let in the crescent if he carried out his threat, nearly had a fit at the idea, and within a week the tenant had a new lease, in which the landlord undertook to do all the outside painting himself.
